A DONATION

On Friday evening, Nov. 1st, a number of the members and congregation of the Hartland Church met at the parsonage, where a pleasant evening was spent with the pastor and wife.

On behalf of those present, Brother Charles Shaw presented them with a donation of cash and groceries. Refreshments were served by the ladies, after which a very profitable season of prayer was enjoyed.

We deeply appreciate the expressions of kindness and appreciation of these dear people. H. C. MULLEN AND WIFE

NOTICE

Those coming to quarterly meeting at Mercer Sett. by bus or train, get off at Norton and notify Brother A. G. Bickerton, Lower Millstream, Kings Co., N. B., in advance, so arrangements may be made to meet those coming. Also if those coming have the songbook, "Songs of the Comforter," bring a copy with you.

PERSONALS

Mrs. P. J. Trafton was given a happy surprise Monday evening when a goodly number of her lady friends came into the Reformed Baptist parsonage at 8.30 singing "Happy, Happy Birthday," and bringing with them a beautiful four-layer birthday cake. The evening was spent very pleasantly and Mrs. O. R. Estey, in a pleasing short address, presented Mrs. Trafton with a gift of money; the recipient was taken wholly by surprise and tried to express her appreciation of their kindness in a few words. Before their leaving, Mrs. Trafton cut the cake, which was served with ice cream, also provided by the ladies. At the close of the evening the ladies departed, wishing Mrs. Trafton many happy returns of the day.

We are sorry to hear that Brother Schuyler Page, of Chattanooga, Tenn., has recently passed away. As many of our readers know, he was a brother to Mrs. S. A. Baker, of Woodstock, N. B. He also has a brother, Charles, at Caribou, Me.

Mr. Page was a valued subscriber to the King's Highway for many years. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones.

We recently called on Mrs. I. M. Keirstead at St. Andrews, N. B., and Mrs. H. W. McLain, of North Head, G. M., N. B. We found them both suffering much pain, but very cheerful with all—H. S. Dow.

Mrs. L. C. Watt, of North Head, has recently moved to Waltham, Mass. She will be greatly missed by the church at North Head, where she is a faithful member.

We also called on Mrs. Warren Sollows at North Head recently. Mrs. Sollows is not enjoying very good health.

DONATION

On Nov. 8th we were invited for the evening meal with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCrea and family. Upon our arrival we were informed that Mr. and Mrs. Amos Ingraham also had been invited, Mr. Ingraham being home on leave from the C. F. C. stationed in Quebec. Upon adjourning to the living room we discovered that a few of our neighbors had taken up positions of advantage there. Experiences of other days began to come to mind, and our surprise was completed. Others continued to arrive until over thirty people had met for the evening.

After a social chat someone suggested singing, so the books were produced and a hearty hymn sing was enjoyed, interspersed with talking and a good laugh.

About 10.30 the ladies appeared with a very tasty lunch which everyone enjoyed, which was followed with more singing.

About 11.30 we were invited to the dining room where we had presented to us groceries that filled the dining room table, also some money. Following a custom we unwrapped the parcels and thanked each of the donors, after which prayer was offered in behalf of the gathering, and "Blest be the Tie," was sung, closing, in the estimation of all, a very enjoyable evening. To all again we say thanks and God bless you.

REV. S. G. AND MRS. HILYARD

Prayer is not overcoming God's reluctance, but taking possession of his willingness.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die Revelation 14-13. in the Lord."—

Mrs. William Galloway

The death of Mrs. William Galloway took place at her home in Amherst Tuesday, Nov. 5th, at the age of 61 years. She was born in Stirlingshire, Scotland, and came to Canada several years ago, finally located at Amherst, where her husband died five years ago Friday, Nov. 8th, the day of her funeral.

The funeral service was held at the home by Rev. Dr. Rice, assisted by her pastor, Lic. Mered Grant.

She leaves to mourn her loss, two sons and six daughters, and several grandchildren, besides a host of friends. Their loss is her gain.

Sister Galloway was saved about five years ago. Was baptised at Beulah and joined the Reformed Baptist Church here at that time. Her life was one filled with praise to God for His wonderful salvation.

Though in poor health for some time, and unable to attend church, when she did get there, her testimonies and prayers were always an inspiration to all who heard her.

The day before she died was one filled with such radiant joy that neither son or daughter can feel sad in their mourning, for the glory of God filled her soul. "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like His."

We extend our sympathy to all the bereaved. MRS. H. C. SANDERS

In loving memory of Sister Galloway:

"HOME AT LAST"

Let every sound of grief be stilled,
And every eye be dried,
For this dear saint, whose faith in Christ
Has now been satisfied.

Let us forget our pain and loss
In this, her joy and bliss.
She's met at last "her Saviour dear."
Her aim in life was this.

So oft we've watched her shining face,
Inspired by love and zeal;
And heard her testify of "Faith,"
'Till we'd "her blessing" feel.

A traveller, weary in a land
That's alien to the soul.
Rejoices, as the ship nears home,
Though tears obscure the goal.
All pain and suffering now are o'er,
All "testings" now are past,
For her no travail evermore,
She's safe at home, at last.

M. McBRIEN,
Amherst, N. S.
