

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The Church at Calais, Me., closed their special meetings Sunday night, Feb. 25th, with several seekers finding victory at the altar, and a great testimony meeting following which lasted till ten o'clock. It was a great meeting all through, all the seekers except one were adults, ages ranging from 17 to 80 years old. See Brother Robertson's letter in this issue.

The Church and pastor at Moncton are engaged in special evangelistic meetings. Lic. B. F. Kimball, a brother of the pastor, is the evangelist. The people are enjoying his preaching and the attendance is very good. The special meetings began on Sunday, Feb. 25th.

Several of our pastors have resigned already and are open for calls from other churches.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, who has been in Woodstock, N. B., for five years, writes that he is open for a call to any of our churches. Rev. S. G. Hilyard, B. A., of Royalton, N. B., also has resigned and is open for a call.

Rev. F. A. Watson, of Beals, Me., writes that he has served that church eight years, has resigned and received a unanimous call to remain for another year, but has decided to leave, so is open for a call to some other church.

Rev. E. R. Watson, of Meductic, writes encouragingly of his work on that circuit. See his letter in this issue.

Rev. E. R. Bradley has resigned as pastor of the Jonesport Church, resignation taking effect June 20th, 1940, and is open for a call to work where the Lord may lead.

PERSONALS

The King's Highway and the Reformed Baptist denomination in general have recently suffered a great loss in the passing of Mr. C. C. Harvey, editor of the Fort Fairfield Review. We were sorry indeed to hear of Mr. Harvey's demise. He was always very kind to us, and did a great deal of advertising for our church and camp-meetings through the columns of his paper, and seldom made any charge for the same. Mr. Harvey was a man of fine integrity and was a great asset to the town and community where he lived. The King's Highway extends sincere sympathy to his bereaved family.

H. S. DOW

Mrs. H. C. Archer, of Moncton, wishes to express her thanks to her friends who have sent cards of sympathy since her recent accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Trites, of Lutes Mountain, are spending the winter in Moncton, where Borthert Trites works in the foundry.

We are very grateful to our friends for their contributions to this fund. The Lord bless you all.—Editor.

We hope that all our subscribers will send in your renewals as soon as due. You will find it easier to pay a small bill than a large one. Please let us hear from all who are in arrears. Thanks.—Editor.

QUARTERLY MEETING NOTICE

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3 will be held at Jonesport, Maine, March 14 to 17 inclusive. Each church please send a report and some delegates.

REV. E. R. BRADLEY,
Secretary.

MARRIED

Davis-Beal

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Beals, Maine, Jan. 18th, when Lois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Beal, of Beals, was united in marriage to Carlisle Davis, son of Mrs. Clarence Alley, of Beals.

We join with many friends in wishing them much happiness. They will reside at Alley's Bay.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

Prayer is the mightiest thing put into human hands. If we know how to pray, nothing is impossible to us. Prayer should be a thing of plan and purpose as well as impulse. The power to pray, and the power to teach others to pray, is entirely dependent on the depth of the spiritual life. There can be no forward movement in missions except as this is attained through a deepening of the spiritual life of the leaders of the church and a real spiritual revival among the members. The one real lack of today is a lack of spiritual life; the one great need, the realization of the constant presence and power of the Holy Spirit.—Robert E. Speer.

OBITUARY

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.—Revelation 14-13.

Death came to Gerald, five year son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reid, as the result of an attack of pneumonia.

The funeral service was held at the home on January 24th, conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. Fr. McConaughy.

Interment was made in the Millville cemetery.

We extend sympathy to those bereaved.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

F. A. ANDERSON

Lyman P. McMillan

The Reformed Baptist Church at Calais has suffered another loss in the death of the late Lyman P. McMillan on January eleventh.

The deceased was seventy-four years old and greatly respected by a host of friends. He was born in Lewiston, Maine, in April, 1865, and moved to Calais shortly, where he was converted. Later he sought and obtained the experience of heart holiness. He became a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church and was appointed deacon, which office he had held for forty-six years.

Our short acquaintance with the deceased has been that we have always found him entirely interested in the things of Christ. Through his pain and suffering he patiently waited for the Master's summons.

His loss has been keenly felt in the church and community. The funeral service was held at the home on Sunday, January 14th, conducted by the writer. Scripture read, Philippians 1:23.

He leaves to mourn besides his widow, three sons, Earl of Augusta; Walter of Calais, Maine, and Harold of Providence, R. I., and eight grandchildren.

To the bereaved we extend our sincere sympathies.

REV. H. L. ROBERTSON

IT IS LARGELY A MATTER OF WILL

"On my arrival from China," wrote a missionary, "I received a letter asking me to call and see an invalid. I knew he was blind, but I was not prepared to see what I did see.

"He was lying upon the bed; every joint in his body was immovable—unable to turn in any direction. His jaw was locked, so that it necessitated the removal of his front teeth to insert the spout of his feeding cup. His whole body was as stiff as a log of wood, but his mind was full of grace of service.

"For twenty-nine years he has lain thus, fed only on liquid foods. For twenty-two years he has been blind. Is it possible that such an one as he could do anything to help others?

"Listen! Seventeen blind children are supported by his efforts in India; ten in China; a blind Bible woman in Korea; a blind boy in the Sudan; a blind boy in Fiji; a blind Bible woman in Jaffa. Three hundred pounds a year is received in answer to prayer by that faithful, sightless, silent, paralyzed disciple in that little shut-in room in Melbourne."—Selected.
