

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

An ordination service was held at Beulah Camp-meeting on Friday afternoon, July 5th, when Adelbert D. Cann was ordained to the gospel ministry.

Some of our preachers who are stationed in the United States left the camp-meeting at its beginning. Because of the new ruling affecting aliens going across the border, they were afraid they might have trouble getting over if they remained in Canada after Just 1st. We missed them from our meetings.

Rev. L. T. Sabine and Rev. H. C. Mullen, with their wives and some of their children, went to Havelock, N. S., after the camp-meeting to visit relatives for a few days. Rev. G. A. Rogers also went up to Benton, N. B., to visit his home and parents. Mrs. Rogers went to Saugus, Mass., to visit her former home.

Rev. F. A. Anderson and family, of Millville, went to Nova Scotia for a short visit.

Rev. W. E. Smith went back to his home at Somerville, Mass., after camp-meeting. He expects to attend Riverside Camp.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane and Mrs. Cochrane went to Amherst and Truro, N. S., to visit friends and Mrs. Cochrane's relatives for a few days. After that they will begin special evangelistic meetings at Maple Ridge, N. B., and will continue in meetings in our churches in York and Carleton Counties through the fall months. They are going out under the auspices of the home mission board this year.

Rev. H. C. Archer will remain at Beulah in charge of the grounds and religious services till September 1st.

The Sterritt sisters plan to visit the Millstream circuit in the near future to show their lantern slide pictures of our mission work in Africa.

The male quarter of Eastern Nazarene College visited Beulah camp-meeting for a few days, and their singing was greatly enjoyed by the people.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop and family will remain at Beulah Camp-ground for a few weeks.

Mrs. Ida M. Keirstead came to Beulah at the close of the meeting with her niece to spend a few weeks at her cottage there. Sister Keirstead is still quite poorly and suffers a good deal of pain.

Lic. Wilton Marsten has gone to Royalton circuit to supply for them for a time.

Another of our young men, Ronald Sabine, a son of Rev. and Mrs. L. T. Sabine, has recently declared his call to the gospel ministry.

BEDDING FOR BEULAH

Grey's Mills Church—1 quilt, 2 pairs of pillow slips.

Mrs. F. A. Dunlop's S. S. Class, Marysville—4 pillow slips.

Lower Brighton Missionary Society—2 quilts.

Rev. Malcolm Moffat, the grandson of Robert Moffat, the pioneer missionary to Bechuanaland in Africa, died on Christmas eve at Kalwa, Northern Rhodesia. At the time of his death he was seventy years old, and like his grandfather he had given his life for Africa.

PERSONALS

We just received a nice letter from Mrs. Diamanda McLeod of Long Beach, California. She sent her renewal to the King's Highway with many expressions of appreciation for our paper which we were glad to receive. Sister McLeod is quite well and retains her interest in the Lord's work although she is nearing the century mark of her age, ninety-six past I think. May the dear Lord be pleased to leave her here many more years to grace His cause.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mary L. Robertson

The community of Norton, N. B., was saddened by the passing of one of its local residents in the person of the late Mary L. Robertson, Friday, June 17th, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Robertson was the widow of Douglas Robertson, who passed away two years ago. She was 72 years of age. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. John Young, Ripples, N. B.; Mrs. George Tuck, Framingham, Mass.; Mrs. Borden Schrader, Southboro, Mass.; and Mrs. Charles Cleveland, Norton; six sons, Harry, Hatfield's Point; Rev. Howard Robertson, Milltown, Maine; Percy, Norton; Gordon, Cambridge, Mass.; Arthur, Memphis, Tenn.; and Foster, Saint John, N. B.; one sister, Mrs. James Clark. There are several grandchildren.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon at 2.30, service conducted by the Rev. James Burns, Sussex, assisted by Rev. J. A. Owens, Saint John. The funeral was held in the Francis Robertson Memorial Church, Riverbank, where interment was also made.

Our sister was a member of long standing in the Reformed Baptist Church, Norton. The testimony of those who knew her best is that she held a deep and devoted reverence for God; her life consistent, her faith firm unto the end. The writer had the privilege of calling and praying with her a few days prior to her going home. Her testimony was that Jesus was precious to her and that she was ready to go.

REV. J. A. OWENS

Mrs. Victoria Joy

The death of Mrs. Victoria Joy, Seal Cove, occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Leavitt Cronk, on Thursday, July 4th. The deceased had been ill for a number of months, ever a patient sufferer. The end came peacefully and our sister left this world with a strong hope of life in the world to come.

Left to mourn the loss of a beloved mother are three daughters, Mrs. Edgar Russell, Mrs. Samuel Harvey, and Mrs. Leavitt Cronk.

The funeral was held on Saturday, July 6th, and was conducted by Rev. B. C. Cochrane, assisted by Rev. M. Dewolfe and members of the R. B. and U. B. choirs.

To those bereaved we extend sincere sympathy.

THE HIDDEN HURT

The sorrow that nobody mentions,
The sorrow no one may share;
Is the sorrow the dear Lord giveth,
His sweetest, tenderest care.
He knows where the hurt is deepest,
The tears of night and day,
And whispering softly, "I love you;"
Brushes the tear-drops away.

MARRIED

Bain-Sears

The Reformed Baptist Church at Upper Woods Harbour was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday evening, June 17, when Miss Ruth Sears, daughter of Mrs. Rowena Sears and the late Charles Sears, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Bain, of Sandford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bain. At 8.30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Dorothea Landers.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. R. Symonds, assisted by Rev. G. A. Rogers. After the ceremony Mrs. George Landers sang, "I Love You Truly." A reception at the home of the bride was attended by relatives and friends.

We unite with their many friends in wishing this fine couple a very happy and long life.
