

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Woodstock, writes encouragingly of our work there. The attendance was good at the Xmas services.

Rev. H. E. Mullen is engaged in evangelistic services at Fort Fairfield, Me. He is being assisted by Evangelist Mortensen and wife of New Jersey.

The Moncton Church seems to be thriving under the labors of their new pastor, Rev. H. M. Kimball. New voices are being heard in the prayer meetings and the blessing of the Lord is on all the services.

Rev. H. S. Dow visited Amherst, N. S., Jan. 12th; went in the evening with the pastor, Brother Grant, and his wife and Miriam Sanders to the jail and spoke to the prisoners. They seemed to appreciate it and many of them asked for prayer. Then we attended the Young People's Meeting in the Church and spoke to them. Brother Grant is encouraged with the work there which seems to be going steadily on. We also went to Westchester, N. S., the two Sundays following and had two services each Sunday with the faithful ones who gathered for worship. Our church there is looking forward to having a pastor for next year.

Mrs. H. C. Archer, of Moncton, had the misfortune to fall and fracture her wrist as she was about to enter the church Sunday night, Jan. 21st. The doctor who was called to set the bone, said it was a bad break.

No doubt one of our pastors will be receiving a call to Westchester Church soon, and when he does, if he is making a change he will do well to accept, for he will find a good opportunity for service there. We have some faithful people there to work with. A very nice parsonage, nearly new, next to the church, with two good stoves already in it, a double garage and a good church building with tower and bell. Westchester is a pretty spot, the village nestling down between the beautiful hills surrounding it. It is on the main C. N. R. line running between Moncton and Halifax. Besides the R. R. station, the village has a post office, two general stores, a garage, and will have a sawmill installed this spring, which will guarantee a good supply of cheap fuel. Westchester is large enough to provide the two churches there with good congregations, and yet it has no liquor stores or bootleggers. No theaters or picture houses, nor public dance halls to debauch the lives of the young people. The citizens of that community are a fine class of respectable, industrious people and have comfortable homes and should make good material to build into the kingdom of Jesus Christ. A good opportunity for some man of faith who wants to work in the Master's vineyard. The church at Calais, Maine, expects to begin special services there Jan. 28th. The pastor, Rev. H. L. Robertson, will be assisted by Rev. H. S. Dow.

We were glad to receive a very encouraging letter from our good sister, Ida M. Keirstead, of Amherst, recently. She always writes appreciatingly of our work on the King's Highway. Sister Keirstead has suffered a great deal this winter with neuritis, which is very painful, but with it all she keeps cheerful and victorious.

Rev. L. T. and Mrs. Sabine wish to express

PERSONALS

Mr. T. W. Whitten, of Woodstock, is very low. Mrs. Whitten is also poorly.

Mrs. S. A. Baker is improving after an attack of cold.

We are glad to hear that several of our older people who have been quite ill this winter because of colds, etc., are improving again. Among them are Brother and Sister T. W. Whitten and Mrs. Herbert Mooers, of Woodstock, Mrs. Robert Barr, of Fredericton, Mrs. A. W. Grant, of Greenbush, and Mrs. Abner Hopper, of Moncton. The editor had the privilege of calling on another faithful member of ours at Westchester, N. S., recently, Mrs. Lawson Caldwell. We found our sister well, and happy in the Lord. She is now in the 88th year of her age. She has a sister, Mrs. Hunter, of Oxford, N. S., who is 91, and a brother, James Giles, living in Florida, who has reached the ripe old age of 100 years. The King's Highway wishes them a continuation of good health and the blessing of the Lord.

Mrs. Alberta Ryder, of Butternut Ridge, writes: I would not want to be without the King's Highway. It certainly brings great comfort to me. And she sends her renewal and a contribution toward the Supplementary Fund.

A letter from Brother I. Kilcollins, of Fort Fairfield, says: "Wife and I all enjoying good health and the blessing of the Lord."

The items in Personals of last issue referring to Miss Helen Sargeson and other church members being sick, signed J. A. O., were from Rev. J. A. Owens, Saint John Church.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Bruce Logan, of Amherst, has undergone a serious operation at Highland View Hospital. Her many friends join in wishing her a speedy recovery.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Dear Mr. Dow:

Several times I have attempted to write this letter, and each time I have put it off hoping I might have the money which I owe on my Highway, but as I do not see any prospect of having it soon, I am asking you to please discontinue my paper. I know I shall miss it terribly, but would rather do without it than to feel it is a financial debt growing larger.

Sincerely yours, etc.

The Highway Supplementary Fund takes care of subscribers like the writer of the foregoing letter. Those who want our paper, and who need it, but are not financially able to pay for it. Through the kindness of our contributors to this fund, hundreds of people are receiving the King's Highway.—Editor.
