

handle many of the reptiles; although big, he said they were harmless. All along the way we met with only courtesy and kindness. We enjoyed excellent accommodation in hotels at very reasonable rates. Everywhere we have seen liquor exposed for sale, but thus far have seen only one person under its influence, and he a poor backslidden boy from the North. I have yet to hear an ugly word spoken and people seem to be happy.

Of course there is a great deal of sin in this resort but we have not seen it. Crowds throng the streets and every body acts decently.

The City of Miami covers a considerable territory. It has a few great buildings and many medium sized hotels.

There are some great churches. The Nazarenes have six churches in and around Miami. First, and Central Churches are splendid structures with good congregations.

I heard W. J. Harney at Grace Nazarene Church Sunday morning, the 14th. He looks like an old man. He was a boy like myself 44 years ago in Asbury College. But the old man set the place on fire. We got to a religious service every night.

There are two good holiness missions nearby and revival services are being held in two Nazarene churches and a special Bible conference (Fundamental) in the First Presbyterian Church. We find that God has His people everywhere. If I were a sport I would find enjoyment at the movies, the horse and dog races, the fairs, and the beaches. Thank God the pull is towards God's people and the places where God is honored.

The boys have left for Boston. I shall remain here at least a week longer. I hope to go to St. Petersburg, then to DeLand for the holiness camp held there the middle of February. I spoke in the First Nazarene Church last night and enjoyed it. The glory holds and the fire burns.

Yours for holiness

CORRESPONDENCE

Fort Fairfield, Maine

Dear Highway:

Our meeting with Brother and Sister Mortensen from New Jersey, closed Feb. 4th. During all these services our attendance was good.

Their singing was a great help and blessing to all. Brother Mortensen's messages were much appreciated. His preaching was plain, definite and true to the Word. In nearly all his messages he stressed the need of heart holiness. We consider him to be outstanding among the holiness evangelists. The Lord gave us a number of seekers; many of them were young folk. Our hearts feel encouraged and we trust God will make us a help and blessing to them.

It's about time the churches will be calling preachers for the coming year, so I would like to say that I am open for a call to any place where God may lead.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed renewal for the King's Highway. I can hardly wait for the paper to come. I like to read every bit of it. It helps me remember that you are all working for the Lord, and especially what the missionaries are doing for the dear Lord in the foreign lands; and I hope and pray the dear Lord will keep you all true to Him. That is what we need—the truth and faith in God. And may the Lord bless you all.

Yours for real holiness,

MRS. HOWARD KENNEY

Dear Brother Dow:

I am enclosing money order for renewal of Highway subscription.

I am happy in Jesus. He is precious to me, and as I rest in Him, He supplies all my needs.

Yours sincerely,

MYRA A. CROWELL, Reg. N.

Dear Friends:

Amherst, N. S.

Because freight from Saint John to Africa has come up so high I am thinking we better wait before we send a box out.

However, I am going to send a trial parcel to Grace of needed supplies for her hospital work. If it is not too expensive we will likely soon send others.

Thanking those who have so readily responded and assuring them the things they sent are having my attention and will be prepared for a future box, I am,

Yours in Jesus,

MRS. H. C. SANDERS

Dear Highway Friends:

We feel that we too should send in a report from this part of God's vineyard.

Our work in this place is very good considering the difficulties our folk have to overcome in order to attend church. Some live at least 10 miles from the church, some four or five miles, and very few of our people live less than a mile from the church, so you see if they attend church at all they must travel, and on these cold winter nights that is none too pleasant. But we praise God for those who in spite of cold weather or distance can be depended upon to be in their places and help push the battle for God and holiness.

We would also like to report that we were kindly remembered at Xmas in many ways, by money and other gifts and cards that exceeded 100 in number.

Our church people deserve credit for their kindness to us at Xmas. The people of Wesley should also be given credit for the many useful gifts we received from them.

Would also like to mention a donation given to us on Jan. 26th, when a number of church members and friends met at the parsonage to again help to supply the material needs of their pastor. For all these things we are very grateful to these people and to God, the Giver of all good gifts.

A TRIBUTE

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labours, and their works do follow them." Rev. 14:13.

It seems to me this can be truly said of our dear Sister Hale.

My first meeting her was in 1891 or 1892, and learned there some of the things a missionary needed to sacrifice, work to do, hardships to go through with. But the more I learned of those things the less they frightened me and the more she told me of how the natives of Congo could be taught, the more my heart longed to begin work in Africa.

My talks with her only added fuel to the fire already burning in my heart.

After we went to Africa her frequent letters always cheered us in our first efforts to teach an illiterate people. Her frequent gifts of $5.00 now and then gave us opportunities to get some things we wanted but limited means made us wait for.

Once, I remember, her Christmas gift with some from others, we sent and bought grafted fruit trees, oranges, pears, apples and plums. Those trees are still there, giving blessing to missionaries living in a hot and thirsty land. "Her works do follow her."

Aloni, one of our first evangelists, has been supported by her for many years. She gave for his support and she had him on her heart and daily prayed for him. Sometimes he weakened, from pressure brought upon him, but he has come blessedly through and today is one of our most spiritual workers.

Lately her means was too small, of herself, to support him, but God always sent her the money, one way or another, and also by her sacrifice she kept her trust. "Her works do follow her."

Aloni is one today who travels hither and yon, praying with the sick, helping the weak in faith, and getting others to believe. What an investment she made of her supporting him! What is the value of a human soul, a poor uncivilized heathen redeemed by Jesus' precious blood!

She grew more spiritual as she grew old. Her letters are uplifting and some I have today are full of her deep dependence upon God and how she prized the privilege of prayer. She spent time and prayed for the missionaries all over the world. I am wondering who will take her place.

She was busy with meetings and went to speak whenever she was asked, always anxious to do something for her Lord whom she so loved.

We have a great loss but she a great gain, in this passing of one of God's workers.

SANCTIFICATION AND FORNICATION

word "abstain" is used here as in the text. And I doubt if these two provisions: the life and the blessing of sanctification, are, in and of themselves, sufficient to fully cover the case unless the splendid comment of Dr. Clarke is not practised. I have been in the Christian ministry for around a half century and I know many cases where ministers have yielded themselves to the lower nature and gone down to perdition. Some of them were holiness men of national reputation. Not long ago, in my home state a so-called holiness man killed his blind wife in order to marry his housekeeper. I have seen college presidents fall. Did this provision work? It did not seem to. Why? Because it did not have the human cooperation. Brethren, we are not yet in Paradise. We are in the enemy's land. None of us are out of gun-shot of the devil. Don't imagine yourself in a fool's paradise. Your enemy lurks on every side.

"Help me to watch and pray,

And on thyself rely,

Assured if I my trust betray

I shall forever die."
