

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. E. A. M. Keirstead, B. A., our missionary in South Africa, has recently been awarded the degree of Master of Arts by the University of N. B. Brother Keirstead's many friends will be glad to hear of his success again.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge has signed up for overseas service, and is at present cooking for the officers' mess in Saint John.

Rev. H. S. Dow spent a few days with the good folk at Windsor, N. S., preaching at their mission from Friday night, May 17th until the following Wednesday. The Christians enjoyed the messages and some requested prayer. The following Sunday we had services at Havelock, N. S., which were well attended and seasons of blessing.

Sister Ida M. Keirstead, of St. Andrews, is still suffering greatly with neuritis, and appreciates the prayers of God's people. She is not able to write very much, but we trust that her friends will continue to write to her.

There were so many letters from our missionaries in the last issue of the King's Highway that several articles by the brethren were crowded out. We expect that they will appear in this issue.

Our church at Havelock, N. S., has not secured a pastor for next year yet. This is a good opportunity for some pastor to do good service in the Lord's work. There are a goodly number of strong Christians here and several well to do families, and a large number of young people who like to attend church. They have a good church building and a nice parsonage, almost new, with a large heater stove already installed in it—a good field for work.

Lic. Wilton Marston, who has been attending God's Bible School at Cincinnati, Ohio, writes, that he is graduating from the Christian Workers' Course there this spring and is ready to take up pastoral work if any of our churches need a pastor and give him a call.

NOTICE

We are sorry that a list of the names of several contributors to our mission fund, which our treasurer, Rev. L. T. Sabine, says that he mailed to us, did not reach the editor of the King's Highway. It should have appeared in April 30th issue.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the Church at Havelock, N. S., Thursday, May 30th, to continue over the following Sunday, June 2nd.

We are sending extra copies of our Camp Meeting number of the Highway to our ministers. Please give them around and help to advertise our Beulah Camp Meeting.

Thanks—H. S. D.

NOTICE TO CHURCHES

All persons wishing to secure a copy of the Minutes of the Alliance for 1940 will need to pay 25 cents to the collector or pastor of the Church.

REV. H. C. ARCHER,
Secretary

PERSONALS

A letter from Sister Baker, of Woodstock, says that she is not very strong yet and is not sure of getting to Beulah Camp Meeting.

She writes that her brother, Schuyler Page, of Tennessee, has recently undergone a very serious operation in a hospital but is improving quite rapidly again, and will soon be able to be out.

Mrs. T. W. Whitten, of Woodstock, is moving across into Maine to live with her daughter, Mrs. Foot, at Washburn, Me, we hear. She has made many friends in Woodstock as she does everywhere she lives, and will be greatly missed by them. The King's Highway wishes her the blessing of the Lord.

Brother F. T. Kimball, of Fort Fairfield, is very low. He recently suffered a paralytic stroke.

NOTICE

The Fifty-second Annual Meeting of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada will convene at Beulah Camp Ground on Wednesday, June 26th, 1940, at 10.30 a. m.

The first session for business will be held at 2 p. m.

Ministers as well as two delegates from each church and one delegate from each local missionary society constitute the members of the Alliance.

REV. H. C. ARCHER,
Secretary

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Annie Cummings

The Reformed Baptist denomination lost a valued member in the person of Mrs. Annie Cummings, aged 75, who passed away at her daughter's home in Woodstock, N. B., on March 30th.

Our late sister leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, Willard, of Ritchie, N. B., (where she made her home) and Peter, of Dow Settlement, N. B.; three daughters, Mrs. Harry Shaw, Coldstream, N. B., Miss Hilda, R. N., Woodstock, N. B., and Mrs. Allan Bell, Northampton, N. B.; also three brothers: Moses and Judson, of Hartland, N. B.; Greely, of Houlton, Maine, and three sisters: Mrs. Belle Cronkhite, Temple, N. B.; Mrs. Ward Miller, Royalton, N. B., and Mrs. E. E. Cameron, Fredericton.

Services were held on Monday, April 1st, conducted by Rev. L. T. Sabine. Interment was made at Dowville, N. B. The many friends of the family extend their sympathy.

HOW DID HE LIVE?

So he died for his faith. That is fine.

More than most of us do.

But, stay! Can you add to that line

That he lived for it, too?

It is easy to die. Men have died

For a wish or a whim —

From bravado or passion or pride.

Was it harder for him?

But to live; every day to live out

All the truth that he dreamt,

While his friends met his conduct with doubt,

And the world with contempt.

Was it thus that he plodded ahead,

Never turning aside?

Then we'll talk of the life that he led.

Never mind how he died. Ernest Crosby
