

CORRESPONDENCE

Butternut Ridge, N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed find order for $3.00 to be applied to payment on renewal of the Highway. I am enjoying the best of health and fellowship with Christ our Saviour. He is blessing me wonderfully these days. I am working in the woods this winter and having services on Sundays in camp. My Lord is blessing me in this work. We have seven different denominations represented in camp, including Roman Catholic. They are all very attentive, and we all agree that Christ our Redeemer was born and died that we might have everlasting life, and His blood is sufficient. Pray for us and that my life and testimony might be a light to lead them to Christ.

Yours in love and fellowship of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Wishing you a Happy New Year, I am,

Yours in the service,

BUDD D. PRICE

Black's Harbour

Dear Highway:

Greetings in Jesus' name. Christmas has come and gone again. Another year is just about spent. We trust it is one more year's work for Jesus as well as one less of life to live.

We want to take this opportunity to thank all, through the Highway, who had their share in making this one of the most pleasant Christmas seasons of our lives. We received so many beautiful cards and cheering letters along with so many other nice and useful gifts that we appreciated so much. Again we say, thank you and God bless you. Our church here at Black's Harbour gave us ten dollars in cash besides so many other lovely gifts. We thank God for the thoughtfulness and kindness of such a church. May God help us to feed them on the finest of the wheat from the Spiritual standpoint.

We are expecting to begin revival services here the 16th of January. Evangelist A. D. Cann is to be the special speaker. We covet your prayers for same that God may give us a gracious revival. We enjoyed our meetings this fall with Brothers H. S. Wilson and F. A. Watson very much. I love them now more than ever. God gave us some souls with them both for which we praise Him.

We wish you all a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

Dear Highway Readers:

We feel constrained at this time to write a few words in acknowledgment of the goodness of God and His undertakings in our behalf. While it has been a year of peculiar testings that has kept us calling on God for more grace to keep us from going under, we thank our Heavenly Father we have been brought through with a good degree of victory and blessing on our soul, and at the present writing we thank God we are able to balance our spiritual budget and feel that we have a surplus on hand for unexpected emergencies and any new offensive that the enemy may send along. There have been times through the year when we have not only felt like shouting but have actually sounded the trumpet for our Lord and Master, and right now we feel like letting out a ram's horn blast for God and truth. Glory to God.

We were kindly remembered at Christmas by the people coming to our home making us a donation of cash and enjoying a chicken supper together. Later we received other useful gifts including two fine turkeys, and as our children were away, wife and I each had a turkey. Oh, happy Christmas days. We thank God and his people and take courage as we move into the New Year. We also wish to thank those who sent us beautiful Christmas cards.

Wishing you all a safe voyage over the turbulent waters of life and an abundant entrance into the City of God.

Yours and His,

P. W. BRIGGS

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed you will find renewal for Highway that is a wonderful help to me as I do not get out to church very much nowadays. Happy New Year to all the Highway readers.

MRS. JOHN T. CAMPBELL

Kingston, Kings Co., N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed $2.00 for my King's Highway renewal for one year and the balance (50c) for the Highway Supplementary Fund. Well, another Christmas Day is passed and we hope that the peace and goodwill spirit has found an entrance into the millions of hearts this season, for truly living in this world as it is today would be sad indeed without it. We praise God today that the song that the angels sang on that memorable night that the Babe of Bethlehem was born has never grown old, but seems to ring out in notes of joy in the hearts of His people today for they know that the Prince of Peace still lives and reigns, and His Kingdom shall have no end. He has told us about these days that we are living in, and said, look up for your redemption draweth nigh, so we praise Him today for the refreshing and the reviving of our hope in Christ, that the anchor of our souls is holding steadfast in Him, the Rock of our salvation. Jesus never fails. If we abide in Him we need not fear for He will surely pilot our frail bark safely over the stormy voyage of this life. I thank Him that He has made a place for the most humble and weakest of His children to fill, each one is under His care and notice.

Praise God for His word, praise God for the chart (the dear old Holy Bible). Let us obey the command and learn to pray as He taught His disciples to pray. Many of us seem unable to do much or anything worth while to change conditions of the present day. Some of us are growing old, passed the three score and ten limit. Bodies are growing weaker, financial conditions more difficult, less to give to His cause which we love to see carried forward, and we seem so helpless to help where we see so much help needed, but amid it all we can pray, and He has promised to answer, so let us pray and continue to pray for the reward is sure for those who faint not. Your editorial of the 15th inst, is very encouraging to me. May God bless you, Brother Dow, and all of His dear children scattered throughout the whole world, is my prayer, for if each one in their small corner let that light shine the revival I believe will come.

Your brother in Christ,

J. W. COSMAN

Saint John, N. B.

Dear Highway Readers:

We have not sent in any report of our doings since we came to Saint John so perhaps a letter would not be amiss at this season.

First, we would say, we are, and have been enjoying the fellowship and co-operation of these dear people. The membership is not large, but steady and faithful, and we find them lovers of truth.

Since coming here, we have done some extensive repairing on both church and parsonage, (following up the good work started by Brother Mullen). This has meant heavy work, and each have been willing to share his or her part of the burden.

We had a service at the T. B. Hospital, and in November we had a service in the Alliance Tabernacle, after which six candidates were baptized. These were not converted since our coming here as pastor, but a carrying out of the fact that "one sows, and another reaps." The Christmas season was a time of pleasantness. We were so lovingly remembered by our congregation with gifts of money and useful personal and household articles, also over one hundred greeting cards came through the mail from friends far and near. It is so nice to be remembered, and we say, "Thank you" again to every one. We had a special Christmas service in which the children sang and recited, bringing praise and glory to "The New Born King."

We also had a very nice watch-night service. Sister Ariel Watson was present and gave us a vocal solo; also Brother H. K. Ingersoll, Brother Raymond Parks, Sister Ella McCarthy and Brother DeVern Mullen gave addresses on different phases of our church work, and their hopes and aspirations for 1940. These articles will appear in the Highway in the near future.

Two souls have returned to the Lord recently, for which we rejoice. We expect to be on the air the first week in February, during the devotional period at 8.30 a. m. over CHSJ.

We are all well at present, children have had chicken-pox, but are well now. God is keeping us blessed in our souls, and are expecting to be true to God and Holiness.

Yours in Him,

REV. & MRS. J. A. OWENS

ADVICE TO MINISTERS

Let them preach, in language understood by the common people, the glorious gospel of the blessed God. Let them tell the world lying in wickedness of sin, repentance, power, faith, judgment to come, and life everlasting. But above all let them live out their gospel, and by their zeal for souls, their passion for righteousness, the simplicity and purity of their lives, and their love for God and men, adorn the doctrine and persuade men.—Dr. W. B. Selbie.
