

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We just received a letter from Rev. W. E. Smith saying that he has had a relapse and is back in bed again. He states the Doctor says he has been too active and must keep quiet for a while. Bro. Smith is still shouting the victory. Let us remember him in prayer.

Mrs. H. C. Sanders spent a few days at Moncton recently. She spoke in the prayer service there Oct. 21st, and also at a missionary gathering Oct. 22nd. Her messages were much appreciated.

Rev. H. C. Archer spoke in the prayer service at Moncton, Tuesday, Oct. 28th, supplying for the pastor Rev. B. C. Cochrane, who was ill.

Our church at Sanford, N. S., of which Rev. G. A. Rogers is pastor, began special meetings Sunday, Oct. 26th. Rev. H. S. Wilson, of Jonesport, Maine, is evangelist.

The Moncton church expects to have DeVerne Mullen with them Sunday, Nov. 2nd. Bro. Mullen and the pastor, Rev. B. C. Cochrane will broadcast over Moncton Radio Station CKCW the same day, Nov. 2nd, 6:30-6:45 p.m.

We have heard that the Crawford church is also engaged in special services with Rev. G. A. Delong assisting the pastor, Rev. H. L. Robertson. May the Lord richly bless all these revival efforts and give great victory. Make these meetings a subject of special prayer.

The revival services at Marysville have enjoyed an encouraging beginning. Some victories have been already recorded and conviction is on the people. Rev. H. S. Dow is assisting the pastor, Rev. F. A. Dunlop.

Rev. J. A. Owens received two candidates into church membership at Saint John Sunday, Oct. 26th. He writes that he had an enjoyable time with Bro. Rogers at the Port Maitland Y. P. Rally. Mrs. Owens supplied at Saint John the Sunday he was absent. Bro. Owens will conduct the morning devotions over Radio Station CHSJ the week of Nov. 3rd.

Rev. Budd Price was a visitor at Moncton and Salem recently. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James Nickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Malone of Woods Harbour, the whole party motoring through to Saint John. Bro. Price preached at Salem Sunday evening, Oct. 26th.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and the church at Fredericton expect to begin special evangelistic meetings on Nov. 16th with Rev. R. J. Dixon as special speaker.

Our churches on Royalton and Hartland circuits had an exchange of preachers on Oct. 26. Rev. H. C. Mullen went to Royalton and Lic. W. Marsten to Hartland. Hartland reports that they enjoyed Brother Marsten's ministry very much. They expect to begin special meetings at Hartland on Nov. 16th with R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., as evangelist.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and the editor of the King's Highway motored to Hartland on Monday, Oct. 27th, to see Mr. Dow's son, Edward, and his family. On their way up they called at Mr. Bert Nixon's and were surprised to find Mrs. Ida Keirstead of St. Andrews there. Sister Keirstead is enjoying quite good health for her. She expects to visit friends in Woodstock on her way home. Bert Nixon is up-river engaged in lumbering again this year. Sister Nixon is quite well and happy as usual.

On our return we made a brief call on our good sister, Mrs. Emma Downey, at Waterville. We were sorry to find her quite ill and confined to her bed but Sister Downey is happy in the Lord. We also made a brief call on Mrs. S. A.

PERSONALS

Deacon Henry Benson, of our Seal Cove church, is a patient at the Chipman Memorial Hospital, St. Stephen. He was operated on recently and we trust is well on the way to recovery by now.

Miss Marguerite Steele of Saint John visited Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Smith of Port Maitland for Thanksgiving, and attended the Y. P. Rally at Port Maitland.

Mrs. Short of Saint John is confined to her home through illness.

Mrs. Otty Keith is a patient in the Saint John hospital.

Sister Cronk of Grey's Mills has been sick but is now improving.

Mrs. Raymond Parks, who is in Fredericton hospital because of an attack of infantile paralysis and was partially paralyzed, is slowly improving. Raymond has left here and has gone to Quebec. He is in the R.C.A.F.

Miss Edith Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark, of Marysville, who also suffered with the same epidemic, is improving and is able to be around the house some.

Mrs. Hanford MacDonald of Moncton is somewhat improved in health, but is still unable to attend service of the church regularly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Dow and two children are in Carleton County, N.B., for a few days visiting his brother, Mr. B. S. Dow and family at Hartland, and also Mrs. Dow's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hemphill, at Knowlsville. Edward and family came by auto from Belleville, Ont., where Edward is an instructor in the Air Force.

Mrs. Louise Cripps of Norton is expecting to go to Vancouver, B.C., the first of November to spend the winter with a married daughter.

A letter from our Sterritt sisters says they will move to Head of Millstream and live in the parsonage there for the winter. Rev. H. M. Kimball the pastor, and our church people at Millstream have given them a very cordial invitation to come and spend the winter there. We appreciate very much this kindness on the part of this good pastor and his people, seeing that our sisters had to move somewhere for the winter. They will be a real help and blessing to Brother Kimball and the work at Millstream.

Mrs. Roxanna Sabine, of Riverdale, N.S., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Mullen at Hartland, N. B., and her son, Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Crystal, Me., accompanied the latter to Boston, Mass., for a two weeks' visit with her sister there. Mrs. Sabine, though just passed her 88th birthday (Oct. 23rd), is enjoying the best of health and a live interest in the things of full salvation.

Ronald T. Sabine entered the Eastern Nazarene College at Wollaston, Mass., on Sept. 29th. He and his brother, Ralph, already there, are preparing for the gospel ministry.

FOREIGN MISSION FUND

Mrs. B. A. Dow (per Rev. H. S. Dow).....	$ 2.00
Woodstock Ch. Thanksgiving Offering	20.65
Woodstock Mission Society.....	19.51
Rev. H. S. Wilson.....	8.00
Beals Sunday School.....	28.00
Crawford Church (per Althea Lord)....	11.00

F. A. ANDERSON,

Asst. Treasurer

Baker and Mrs. C. P. Phillips at Woodstock and found them both quite well.

Rev. P. J. Trafton of Fredericton and several members of the church there are attending the special meetings at Marysville.

SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Rev. H. S. Wilson.....	$ .50
Miss Lydia Dow .....	.50
Mrs. N. R. Beal.....	.25
Lester W. Alley.....	.25

NOTICE

A special session of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church of Canada is called to meet at the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton, on Tuesday, Nov. 11th, at 10.30 a.m.

It is desired that all pastors attend and delegates be sent from the churches.

H. C. ARCHER,

Secretary of Alliance

DONATION

On our prayer meeting night, Oct. 14th, our church and friends of Westchester pleasantly surprised us with a Thanksgiving offering and donation of groceries, vegetables, etc. On Mrs. Cann's birthday we were again surprised when a number of ladies gathered at the parsonage and presented her with gifts of various kinds.

We are indeed grateful for these kind remembrances and shall endeavour to show our appreciation by sincere service to our Heavenly Father and to the people.

A. D. AND MRS. CANN

MARRIED

Lasky—Adams

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, Black's Harbour, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their daughter, Myrtle Alexandra, was united in marriage to Mr. Raymond Burton Lasky. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Mullen on the evening of Sept. 27th in the presence of a few immediate relatives and friends.

They will reside at Black's Harbour. We all join in wishing them a long and happy life.

Theriault—Urquhart

At the Reformed Baptist Church, Black's Harbour, Thursday, October 23rd, at 8 o'clock, Rev. H. S. Mullen united in marriage Miss Ruth Eugenia Urquhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Urquhart, and Weldon Vernon Theriault, son of the late Lemuel Theriault, and Mrs. Theriault. They were attended by Miss Roberta Leavitt, as bridesmaid and DeVern Greene, best man. Reta Williamson acted as flower girl. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. A reception was held the same evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Albert Richardson. May the blessings of God rest upon this fine young couple, is our prayer. They will reside at Black's Harbour.

Kennedy—Rogers

At the Reformed Baptist Parsonage, Crystal, Me., October 18th, Mr. Leon C. Kennedy and Miss Geraldine B. Rogers were united in marriage by the pastor, Rev. L. T. Sabine.

THE GODLESS ARE HEARTLESS

Communitic philosophy declares faith in God is unnecessary and harmful, and teaches that love for humanity is the true way of life. But theirs is a faith without works. Laments a Jewish leader, "The Soviets refuse refugees. They had loudly proclaimed themselves to be the friends of man, of the humble, of the persecuted. But they will offer no refuge to any. That damns and dooms their claims as hypocritical."—Sel.