

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. DeLong visited his parents in Fredericton recently. He was on his way home from Crawford, Me., where he was assisting Rev. H. L. Robertson in revival services. He attended special services at Marysville two evenings. He reports good meetings at Crawford.

Rev. H. E. Mullen and the church at Fort Fairfield expect to hold special meetings in the near future with Rev. F. A. Watson of Beals, Me., as evangelist.

Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Island Falls, Me., has had two baptismal services recently in which several candidates followed the Lord in the ordinance of baptism. Some also have united with the church. He reports that his work is encouraging.

The Marysville church and pastor closed their evangelistic meetings on Sunday night, Nov. 9. Several souls found victory and blessing during the services.

Rev. H. S. Dow spoke on prayer at an afternoon service at Fredericton on Sunday, Nov. 9th, and also spoke at the prayer meeting on Tuesday evening in Saint John.

Rev. G. A. DeLong was heard in a very helpful message over the air while in Fredericton recently. He spoke for Rev. F. A. Dunlop.

Rev. J. A. Owens delivered a series of very helpful and instructive messages on holiness over the air at Saint John one week recently.

The attendance and interest at both the church services and Sunday School are increasing at Moncton. The work in general is very encouraging.

A meeting of the Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church was held at Fredericton on Nov. 11th as previously announced in the Highway. Rev. J. A. Owens, president, was in the chair. A good number of preachers and delegates were present from Maine, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. Our work was well represented. A good interest was shown on the part of our people in general which was very encouraging. At that meeting in response to a request from our missionary, Rev. E. A. M. Keirstead in South Africa, the Alliance voted to sell a part of our one thousand acre farm there if the Foreign Mission Board considered it advisable, after they gave the matter due consideration.

PERSONALS

The editor recently received an interesting letter from one of our good friends of former days, Mrs. Amanda Boyer, of Vancouver, B.C. Sister Boyer is still a valued subscriber to the King's Highway. She says that she is just recovering from a long illness, and is on her feet again. Our Sister is in her 84th year and is praising the Lord for His great salvation and wonderful care.

We also had another letter of much interest to many of our readers from our aunt, Mrs. Jane Maxon, of Detroit, Michigan. Our aunt writes that she is in her 94th year, and is quite well for her age. She is mourning the loss of another son, Percy, who passed away some months ago, whose obituary we did not get, but we understand his passing was quite sudden and came as a great shock to his aged mother. Sister Maxon writes that she is trusting God and underneath and round about her are the Everlasting Arms, which are her strong support now in her time of weakness. She still longs to see the faces of her friends of former years in New Brunswick which she expects to meet with the company of the Blood Washed on the other side. She wishes to be remembered in prayer.

Mrs. Byron Brown, of Lower Brighton, another of God's saints and one of our faithful church members there is also confined to her bed through illness and is very weak. We called on her recently, and found her free from pain and quite comfortable, and enjoying a steadfast faith in the God of all comfort whose loving care for His own never fails. Brother B. H. Richardson of the same place is also confined to his bed through weakness due to old age for he is about 90 years of age. But he says he is trusting God and has no fears for the future. Let us remember all our aged and sick ones in prayer.—H. S. D.

Mrs. Annie Foley, of Saint John, spent a few days recently visiting in Fredericton the guest of Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton.

Miss Dorothy Perry, of Fredericton, spent the weekend of Nov. 8th and Remembrance Day in Saint John.

Morley Mitchell of North Devon and son Gordon are on the sick list.

Mrs. Nathaniel Beal and her daughter, Gladys Upton, of North Head, Grand Manan, are visiting relatives in Fredericton.

John DeLong of Fredericton is quite seriously ill at his home, 135 Queen Street.—P. J. T.

Thomas Mitchell passed away at his home in Fredericton on Sunday night, Nov. 9th. He was buried the following Wednesday. Obituary will appear later.

My son, Norman, has been in the Army Air Corps for over a year. He is now taking a short course at Cambridge University in preparation for an examination for Flying Cadet. He attends church at Tremont Temple. He asks us to remember him in our prayers.

DONATION

On the evening of Oct. 22nd a number of young people met at the R. B. Parsonage in Fort Fairfield to spend the evening with Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Mullen and family. A very pleasant time was spent. The young folk enjoyed playing games and singing hymns. Refreshments were served by the girls.

At the close of the evening they presented us with a gift of money. The pastor thanked them for such a gift and also offered thanks to God. We appreciate their kindness and enjoyed having the young people with us. May God bless them all.
