

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

In the last issue of the Highway we stated that the new missionary born to Rev. E. A. M. Keirstead and Mrs. Keirstead in Africa was a girl. And our attention since has been called to the fact that we had made an error in that statement, for the new missionary is a boy, Kenneth Eugene. We are sorry for this blunder and humbly apologize to all womankind for saying he was a girl, when it was only a boy.—Editor.

The editor of the King's Highway preached at Fredericton on Sunday evening, Feb. 2nd, to a good congregation, also spoke at the Sunday school on the subject of temperance, and at the Young People's Meeting on Friday night. Brother Trafton, the pastor, was just recovering from a cold. The interest is good in Fredericton church. There were over thirty out to the young people's meeting on Friday night, Feb. 7th.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, was called to Havelock because of his mother's illness. Rev. Thomas Gordon, of Deerfield, N. S., supplied for Brother Mullen on Sunday, Feb. 2nd, and Rev. H. S. Dow supplied on the following Sunday. We enjoyed very much the privilege of preaching to the people at Lower Brighton, Victoria and Hartland, where we had served as pastor for ten years.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, writes that the revival is on at Port Maitland. He says that Rev. G. A. DeLong is giving them wonderful messages, and souls are getting saved. They had a gracious victory Sunday night and the meetings are continuing. He also wishes to say that he is resigning as pastor of that circuit and is ready to follow where the Lord leads. Rev. B. C. and Mrs. Cochrane are at Beals, Maine, in meetings; will be there until Feb. 23rd.

Rev. E. R. Watson, of Meductic, writes: We have all had the cold but are well on the way to recovery again now.

PERSONALS

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden passing of Mr. C. S. Ingraham. We had a letter from Brother Ingraham about New Years time. He said he had been quite sick, but expected to go back teaching again at the opening of the new term. He was living at Elgin, N. B., where he was principal of the school. We have not heard the particulars of his death or funeral, except that the body was taken to New York for burial where two of his sisters lived.

The Church at Saint John has lost another valuable member by the death of Miss Effie How, daughter of the late Rev. W. W. Howe, and Mrs. How, who lives in Saint John. The obituary will appear later.

We heard recently that Mr. Nelson Baker, of British Columbia, whom some of our older people will remember, has passed away. Mr. Baker was a cousin of the late Rev. S. A. Baker, and brother of Mrs. Diadama McLeod, who now lives in Long Beach, California. They all used to live in Woodstock, N. B. We believe that our good sister, Mrs. McLeod, is now 97 years old, and is quite well. We had a nice letter from her not so long ago. Her daughter, Anna, who has been a missionary in Japan over 30 years, has recently come home to her mother in California.

Mr. Charles Goodspeed, of South Devon, N. B., celebrated his 84th birthday on Feb. 11th. He is in good health, and enjoying salvation.

Mrs. Alvin Perry, of Port Maitland, N. S., is visiting relatives and friends in Saint John, Fredericton and Woodstock.

Private Loc. Hubert MacGeorge, who is stationed at Partridge Island, Saint John, spent the week end, Feb. 1st to 3rd, at his home in Fredericton.

A CORRECTION

In an obituary of "Millard Davis," which appeared in the last issue of the King's Highway, and sent in by Rev. H. S. Wilson, it reads that "interment was in the Indian cemetery." It should read in the Indian River cemetery. We are very sorry for this blunder, and humbly apologize to the pastor and relatives and friends of the deceased.

NOTICE

Friends of the Foreign Missionary work, we call your attention again to our needs at this time. Soon we must send salaries to our workers in Africa, and to do so we must have more money. Will you all kindly help us what you can.

Quite a number of people are behind on their pledges, some as far back as 1935. This ought not to be so. If you cannot send in the full amount of your pledge, send in what you can.

We can only pay our missionaries if you send it in. We know the year generally has been hard financially for a good many, and we appreciate all you have given. Now at this time if a goodly number of people would forward something, no doubt altogether we would have sufficient. Can we count on YOU?

Thank you!

Treasurer

The death of Mrs. Julia Ann Scott took place at her home, 322 Argyle St., Fredericton, N. B., Sunday morning, January 26th. She was 88 years of age, and had been in failing health for 2 years. Her husband, Joel S. Scott, predeceased her several years. She is survived by a son, Berry Scott, of Calais, Me., and a sister, Mrs. Charles Niles, of Fredericton, N. EDITOR

A visitor of Coleridge argued strongly against the religious instruction of the young and declared his own determination not to "prejudice" his children in favor of any form of religion, but to allow them at maturity to choose for themselves.

The answer of Coleridge was pertinent and sound. "Why prejudice a garden in favor of flowers and fruit? Why not let the clods choose for themselves between cockleburrs and strawberries?"—Presbyterian Record.
