

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has resigned as pastor of the Woodstock church after a pleasant term of six years. Resignation to take effect the end of June. He is open for a call where a pastor is needed.

Our church at Moncton is having victory. Several seekers were at the altar Sunday night and prayed through to victory. We had a good prayer-meeting Tuesday night.

Rev. E. R. Watson writes encouragingly about the work at Meductic. He received two into church membership last Sunday night. Brother Watson wishes to say through the Highway that he is resigning from his pastorate there and is open for a call.

The editor of the King's Highway expects to assist Rev. W. E. Smith, our pastor at Island Falls, Maine, in special meetings beginning Sunday, March 2nd.

Please continue to send mail for King's Highway to 45 Archibald Street, Moncton, N. B. Material for publication please mark King's Highway. Personal letters please address, Rev. H. S. Dow, Island Falls, Maine, in care of Rev. W. E. Smith.

Rev. J. A. Owens will be speaking on the air from Saint John beginning March 10th, for the remainder of the week. He says they are expecting to hold special Evangelistic services there in the near future.

Rev. G. R. Symonds writes that they are still continuing special meetings at Seal Cove with Rev. A. D. Cann as Evangelist. He says the interest and attendance are good, and they are looking for victory. He says that their girl Betty, who was operated on for appendicitis six weeks ago is still quite weak. Rev. B. C. and Mrs. Cochrane have finished their meetings at Beals, Maine, and go to Perth, N. B. next. Their address from March 2nd to 16th will be Perth, N. B., care of Rev. S. G. Hillyard.

The National Youth Committee has reported that sixty per cent of all American boys and girls between the ages of fourteen and eighteen have no connection whatsoever with a religious group, be it Protestant or Catholic. What are we doing to take them the gospel?—Pentecostal Evangel.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Jas. Rogers of Woodstock, suffered a severe heart attack recently, and is still quite poorly.

Mrs. H. Cronkite and Mrs. S. MacFarlane are still in very poor health. May God bless and comfort these faithful disciples.

We have also had a letter from our Brother, Rev. S. Greenlaw, of Rollingdam, N. B. Bro. Greenlaw has been a valued subscriber to the King's Highway for many years. Mrs. Greenlaw sends an offering for our African work, which we appreciate. They enjoy the Highway very much.

Miss Eva Sears, of Fort Fairfield church, has gone to Wallingford, Conn., to work. She writes that she misses the home church very much, and I am sure that the church at Fort Fairfield will miss sister Sears also.

Brother Charles MacCallum of Moncton, had the misfortune to lose his home and all his household effects by fire a few weeks ago. Brother Charles How of Fredericton, N. B., suffered a like misfortune in the loss of his home and its contents by fire one morning recently.

We have just had a very interesting letter from our good Brother S. B. Charlton, of Somerville, Mass., in which he informs us of the death of Mrs. Edward Higgins who for several years has been living in Detroit, Mich, I think. Some of our older readers will remember Mr. and Mrs. Higgins who used to live at Meductic several years ago, then moved to Fort Fairfield, Me., where Mr. Higgins died and sometime after Mrs. Higgins moved to Boston, and I think she finally settled in Detroit, Mich., with her son Clyde, where she passed away on Feb. 8th. Brother Charlton writes that he is near 82 years old and that his health is very good. He is still praising the Lord for salvation that keeps and satisfies his soul. He says that Mrs. Charlton and the other members of his family are about in their usual state of health. He writes that Mrs. Blaisdell has been living with them this winter, but has gone back to New Hampshire with her son Minot, and his family again.

The fifteen-months old baby of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Kimball has been ill with pneumonia, but is now recovering.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The quarterly meeting of District No. 4 will convene with the R. B. Church at Port Maitland, N. S., from March 20th. to 23rd.

The Sunday School Convention will be held at 3 p.m. on Saturday, March 22nd. Will the churches please send delegates and letters?

M. R. PRICE, Secretary.

The quarterly meeting advertised to be held at Moncton, N. B., in last issues of Highway, is postponed indefinitely on account of so much sickness among the churchmembers at Moncton.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 will convene with the church at North Head, March 13th—16th.
G. R. SYMONDS, Secretary.

MARRIED

Gibson—True

On Wednesday evening at 136 St. John St., Woodstock, N. B., Mrs. Winnifred M. True became the bride of Mr. Aubrey A. Gibson, both of Aroostock Junction, N. B.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. T. Sabine. The many friends of the contracting parties wish them every success.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. A. E. Niles

Mrs. Angelina E. Niles, of 390 Northumberland Street, Fredericton, N. B., passed away from this life, Monday morning, Feb. 17th., in the 86th year of her age. She had been ill for a long time. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, Charles H. Niles, two sons, Gordon, Houlton, Maine, and Orrington, Portland, Me., and three daughters, Mrs. Perley Currie, Mrs. William Hancock, and Miss Ethel, all of Fredericton, and a large circle of other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, February 19th., from her home, with a short service at 1 o'clock p.m., Rev. P. J. Trafton officiating. The remains were taken to the United Baptist Church at Mactaquac, where a regular service was held. Rev. W. A. Harper, pastor of the church, had charge; Rev. P. J. Trafton, gave the address. There were several beautiful floral tributes.

Our sister was a humble follower of Jesus and passed peacefully to her eternal rest. May the Lord comfort the sorrowing ones, to whom we extend our sympathy. Interment was in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Alveh Adams

Passed away at his home at Fort Fairfield, Me., Feb. 15th, after a short illness, Mr. Adams was born at Littleton, Me. He was 59 years of age; he leaves to mourn his passing, besides his widow, two brothers, Edward and Asa, both of Fort Fairfield. The funeral service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church at one o'clock Feb. 17th; burial took place at Andover, N. B. To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

H. E. MULLEN

The home of Sister W. W. Howe was invaded again by death, which claimed the eldest daughter, Effie. Sister Effie had been a great sufferer for a number of years. Her last weeks were spent in General Public Hospital. On every occasion as we visited her she always had a ringing testimony that told of the goodness of God in saving and sanctifying her soul. She was born in Studholm, Kings Co., but lived nearly all of her 52 years in Saint John. She died the 31st day of January and the funeral was held from her home at Kane's Corner, East Saint John, the following Monday at 2.30. Her pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, spoke from text found in Mark 14:8. "She hath done what she could."

She leaves to mourn her passing, her mother, Mrs. W. W. Howe; brothers, Samuel and William; one sister, Mrs. Henry Gallant, of Saint John, and a host of friends. The large attendance and beautiful floral wreaths and sprays spoke of the high esteem in which our sister was held. She is greatly missed by pastor and members of the congregation of the Reformed Baptist Church of Saint John, of which she was a member. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."
