

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Mr. Dow: Penniac

I am enclosing renewal for Highway subscription for March, 1942. We like to read it very much.

Yours truly,
MRS. MINNIE McDOWELL

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find P. O. renewal to the Highway. It is like a friend from N. B. coming into our home. We are still trusting in the Lord and He is blessing us here in California.

Yours truly,
MRS. F. E. CARR

Dear Highway:

Greys Mills, N. B.

We as a church at Greys Mills wish to report through your columns the grand results of the special services held here, commencing on Sunday, the 8th of June, and until over Sunday, the 22nd, conducted by our pastor, Rev. Arthur Owens, assisted by the Rev. H. S. Dow as evangelist. The preaching of both Mr. Owens and Mr. Dow was in power and with the Holy Ghost sent down from Heaven, and while only a few attended these meetings through the week, yet a goodly number did get to the services on Sunday. We are sure the work done will be far-reaching and a great good accomplished. The church was helped in a very special way and encouraged to press the battle for the saving of souls and for Holiness of heart and life of believers. Three of our young people took a definite stand for Christ, and we know that God's preached work shall not return void. For these services we thank God and for His servants who so faithfully laboured among us. For this grand reviving we thank God and take courage.

We also appreciate very much having Miss Ruth Vanwart home from college in time to be organist during the services.

As ever yours in the Master's service,
S. H. BRADLEY, Clerk

Dear Highway Friends:

Greetings again from your Home Mission workers.

The many expressions of appreciation and interest relative to our former letters make us grateful we have written, and urge us to write this final item concerning our itinerary work.

At the time of our last writing we were anticipating our meeting with the churches at Amherst. We began our campaign there on Easter Sunday and continued over May 4th, a four-Sunday series. Attendance at these services was below what it should have been for a community like Amherst, but the Lord again manifested his interest in the efforts of the few. The blessing of God attended the Word and quite a number of backsliders were restored. While at Amherst we were hospitably entertained by Brother and Sister Grant, Dr. and Mrs. Sanders, and we shall ever remember their kindness.

Leaving Amherst May 5th we travelled via Truro, where we spent a few days at Mrs. Cochrane's home, to Wood's Harbour to campaign for souls with Brother and Sister Price and the good people of our church there. I was glad for the privilege of ministering here, as my associations with the beginning of this work under Brothers F. A. Dunlop, H. E. Mullen and others gave me special interest in it. We were delighted to find a beautiful little church here, erected during Brother Symonds' ministry, and the work both at Wood's and Shag Harbour prospering under the faithful ministry of their new pastor and wife. The people gave us a good hearing, and again God gave victory. Our services beginning May 11th continued over June 5th, were owned of the Spirit. Brother and Sister Price entertained us in their home and we surely enjoyed their fellowship.

On June 8th we began our last meeting of the year with Brother and Sister Rogers and the church at Brazil Lake. This meeting continued over June 22nd, and was attended by the blessing of the Lord. The people of Sandford and Port Maitland joined us in this campaign and gave valuable assistance in the services. In this meeting we were again privileged to see victory which we trust shall be permanent. The people of Brazil, under the aggressive leadership of their zealous pastor, have done a fine job of repair and renovation on their church. The building is a credit to the loyal band of workers there, and stands out in the community. While at Brazil we were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Allen, who spared no effort to make our visit pleasant and enjoyable. The memories of our first meeting at Brazil Lake are such as will ever cause us to thank God for the privilege of fellowship in labour with Brother Rogers and his people there.

And now our year of evangelism is over. For us it has been crowded with blessings and has brought to our lives enrichment that we can never thank God for as we would like. Pastors and people have given us wonderful support and co-operation and the Lord has given victories that cause us to bow our heads and fervently thank Him that He has taken the weak and that which is nought to bring salvation to needy hearts.

We are grateful to our Home Mission Board for their confidence and faith which made possible our representing them in the field of evangelism, and we trust they and our people who give them financial resources, may feel that the expenditure necessary to our support has not been an unwise or unprofitable investment.

Thanking all who have borne our needs on their hearts and in their prayers during the year, and hoping that we may be remembered in like manner as we return to pastoral work, we remain,

Yours in holy bonds,
B. C. & MRS. COCHRANE

Dear Highway:

I should have had a report in your column several issues ago, but better late than never. I want to mention especially our special meetings at Victoria during the month of May. We continued the meetings for three full weeks and the Lord blessed us abundantly. We had endeavored to secure the services of two of our brethren, but failed to get either of them, so fell back upon Brother L. T. Sabine to fill the gap. This he did very acceptably and efficiently. From the first sermon God put His seal upon the preaching and it was in power and demonstration of the Spirit. Mighty conviction many times settled down upon the people and about a dozen responded and prayed through at the altar. Many more went away deeply concerned. No doubt some got their last call. Brother Sabine proved that he had evangelistic gifts as well as pastoral. Anyone needing evangelistic help need not hesitate to engage him for a meeting. He preaches rugged and solid gospel. The church was edified and all agreed that we had one of the best series of meetings that church had enjoyed for a long time.

While writing we would like to mention the grand day we had on this field on June 1st. Both Brother Dow and Brother Trafton were with us all day and Brother Sabine also in the afternoon at Victoria. We had a full day with the following program: Brother Dow preached at Hartland in the morning and Brother Trafton at Lower Brighton. At 1.30 a beautiful baptism took place at Hartland, when four were baptized. In the afternoon we all gathered at Victoria where again Brother Dow brought the message. Two members were received into the church. In the evening at Hartland Brother Trafton was the speaker. He brought a strong and scriptural message on the need of heart holiness. At this service also two were received into Church fellowship.

We praise God for evidences of His favors, and take courage to press on to further victories.

May God bless all the readers of the Highway.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—
Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Solomon McFarlane

Mrs. Eliza McFarlane, widow of the late Solomon McFarlane, departed this life to be with Jesus, Monday evening, June 16th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Daye, Orange St., Woodstock, N. B. She was 76 years of age and had been ill for eleven months, which was accompanied with great suffering at times, in the midst of which praises to her Saviour fell from her lips, but no word of complaint. She was given every attention and care by her loved ones. She was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church in Fredericton and always maintained a deep Christian experience. Her testimony was clear and definite to the experience of justification and entire sanctification, and her life was in harmony with her profession.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, four daughters, Mrs. Jack Daye and Mrs. E. McCallum, of Woodstock, N. B.; Mrs. H. L. Hawkins, Fredericton, N. B., and Mrs. Pearl Cjesky, of Waterbury, Conn. Also four sisters, Mrs. F. M. Boyd, Hartland, N. B.; Mrs. F. L. Hartt, Mrs. H. E. Foster and Mrs. Arthur Baird, of Bangor, Maine, and a large circle of other relatives and a host of friends. The funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Daye on Wednesday at 2.30 p. m., and was largely attended. Clergymen taking part in the service were Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton; Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Woodstock, and Rev. Mr. Profitt, U. C., also of Woodstock. Favorite hymns of the departed were rendered by the Choir of the Reformed Baptist Church, and a male quartette from the United Church of Canada. There were many beautiful floral tributes, adding their fragrant silent testimony of the high esteem in which she was held. Interment was in the Methodist cemetery. To the sorrowing ones we extend our deepest sympathy. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."
