

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. J. A. Owens expects to begin special meetings at Saint John in the near future with Rev. P. W. Briggs as evangelist.

The interest in the Lord's work at Island Falls and Crystal churches is gaining under the faithful ministry of Rev. W. E. Smith our pastor. The people appreciate his labors there very much.

Rev. H. E. Mullen reports good interest and attendance at all the services at Fort Fairfield.

Rev. H. M. Kimball will conclude his ministry with the church at Moncton in June, and is available for a call wherever the Lord may direct.

Rev. H. E. Mullen, of Fort Fairfield, Maine, wishes to say that he is open for a call to any of our churches who need a pastor.

Rev. H. C. Mullen of Hartland has also tendered his resignation to that group of churches, and is open for a call.

Rev. H. S. Mullen of Black's Harbor has engaged Rev. H. C. Mullen to assist him in special evangelistic meetings beginning March 11.

Rev. B. C. and Mrs. Cochrane began special meetings at Perth, N.B., last Sunday, March 9th.

Rev. H. S. Dow spoke for Rev. P. J. Traffon at Fredericton at the morning service Sunday, March 2nd, and also at the prayer meeting the following Tuesday night. The services were well attended, and seasons of blessing.

Lic. Mered Grant of Amherst, N. S., writes: I feel that the Lord is calling us to new fields of labour. Would you kindly notify the churches through the Highway that I am open for a call where ever the Lord may choose to lead.

Rev. F. A. Anderson has resigned from the Millville circuit and is open for a call.

(REV.) L. T. SABINE, Treas.
Woodstock, N. B.

Last year cigarettes yielded a revenue to the United States of $500,000,000. During the past forty years the population of this country has increased forty per cent while tobacco consumption has increased one hundred and thirty-six per cent. Women can be "thanked" for a large part of this percentage increase.—Herald of Holiness.

PERSONALS

The editor of the King's Highway called on Mrs. S. A. Baker at Woodstock during the quarterly meeting and found her quite well. Sister Baker still retains a good interest in all branches of our work. She is very comfortable, boarding with Mrs. C. P. Phillips, and is looking forward to getting to Beulah Camp-Meeting again this summer.

Mrs. Aaron Dow, (widow), of Northampton, is very ill at this time. Rev. W. E. Smith called on her on Saturday, March 8th, and says that she is not expected to recover. Mrs. Dow is 88 years old. Brother Smith says that when his father was 22 years of age he taught school at Northampton and Mrs. Dow whose name was Martha Cluff at that time, went to school to Mr. Smith, and when Rev. W. E. Smith was 22 years of age he went to Northampton to preach and boarded with Mrs. Dow. Brother Aaron Dow passed on to Glory several years ago. He was a subscriber to the King's Highway and a faithful member.

We learn that Rev. G. A. Sellar, of East Florenceville, N.B., a retired United Church preacher, has passed on to his reward. Bro. Sellar was a warm friend and valued subscriber of the Highway and occasionally contributed to its pages. He was an old time Methodist and always remained very sympathetic to our church.

The readers of the Highway will be very sorry to hear of the untimely passing of Rev. L. J. Alley, whose obituary appears elsewhere. The Highway extends sympathy to the bereaved ones.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Albert Burt

On Friday, Feb. 21st, the writer was called to officiate at the funeral of Mr. Albert Burt, of Royalton, N.B. Our brother passed away suddenly at the home of Mrs. Silas Burt, where he had been making his home for the winter. The deceased was 88 years of age, but had been well up to the very night of his death.

The funeral service was held in the R. B. Church at Royalton. The writer was assisted in the service by Licentiate Welton Marston, pastor of the Royalton church. Twenty-seven years ago the last of December, the writer conducted the funeral of the wife of Mr. Burt. This was his first funeral.

The deceased leaves to mourn their loss, two daughters, Mrs. Harry Weade, of Centreville, N.B., and Mrs. A. Reid, of Knoxford, N.B., and three sons, William and Harry of Royalton, and Leon, of Bridgewater, Maine. Two brothers and a sister also survive him. Interment was made in the local cemetery at Royalton.

Albert E. Cook

Seal Cove has been greatly saddened by the passing of one of its most respected citizens, Mr. Albert E. Cook, at the age of 51 years. His death occurred on Feb. 26th at his home. Mr. Cook has been in declining health for the past few years and had been confined to his bed since last October. He was patient and resigned to God's will during his illness and left a clear testimony of his readiness to depart.

Mr. Cook has been a valued member of the Seal Cove Reformed Baptist Church for the past 20 years. He was appointed deacon on Feb. 26th, 1929, and he was faithful, zealous and devoted in filling this office for the past 12 years. It is worthy of note that he died on the same day and month as he was appointed to office. Being a leader he will be greatly missed both in the church and community.

The funeral was held on Feb. 28th. A short service at the house was followed by a service in the church. The writer was in charge and spoke from II Sam. 3, 38, "Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?" The following brethren assisted, Percy Green, G. A. DeLong, A. D. Cann and Max DeWolf. The church choir rendered appropriate music. The many floral tributes and the large attendance bespoke the high esteem in which our brother was held.

He leaves to mourn, his widow and three sons, Lawrence residing here, Russell in active service and Wilber residing at home.

Interment was made in the Seal Cove cemetery.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sincere sympathy and prayers.

REV. G. R. SYMONDS

Rev. L. J. Alley

The many friends of Rev. Leon J. Alley were shocked to hear of his sudden passing at the age of forty-four years.

Bro. Alley had been in his usual good health but was suddenly stricken with thrombosis. He was pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at Derry, N. H.

His last public service was to conduct a funeral during which he said that life was uncertain and that he might be called next.

He was converted at an early age and was ordained to the Reformed Baptist ministry in 1917. He held pastorates with us at Beals, Crystal and Woodstock. He united with the Church of the Nazarene in 1927 and has held successful pastorate with them since that time.

Funeral services were held at his home church in Derry, conducted by D. Neilson, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, assisted by many of the ministers of that denomination.

A service was also held in the Reformed Baptist Church at Beals, conducted by the writer assisted by Rev. B. Shorey, Rev. H. S. J. Blaney, Rev. H. E. Mullen, Rev. H. S. Wilson and Rev. B. C. Cochrane.

He leaves to mourn his loss his sorrowing wife, Mrs. Ethylus Alley, one son, Owen Alley, of Wakefield, Mass. His father, J. P. Alley, one brother, Lester Alley, and two sisters, Mrs. Oscar Alley, and Mrs. H. L. Crowley, all of Beals.

We extend our deepest sympathy to these mourning hearts but rejoice with them in the hope of a glad reunion. "Blessed in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

YOU CAN'T DRINK AND WIN!

During 1934, when legal beer came back, I thought I would try a bottle of legal beer, since it was not against the law to drink. I liked the taste of it, and since I had plenty of money, I kept on drinking. That was the beginning of my downfall. I spent all my money, lost all my property, wrecked my home, lost all my friends, and paid out plenty in fines. Since listening to your program I have quit drinking and am making a "come-back." Please tell the world for one who knows, that no one can drink and win.—S. C. D., Louisiana, in National Voice.
