

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—
Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Carol Wilcox

The death of Mrs. Carol Wilcox occurred at the St. Stephen hospital where she entered Dec. 3rd for an operation. She came through the operation and seemed to be doing fine but on Dec. 11th was taken suddenly worse and passed away shortly afterwards. She was 45 years of age. Her passing was very sudden and was a great shock to the community.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her husband, Mr. Carol Wilcox, of Seal Cove; her mother, Mrs. Emma King, and two brothers, Finley and Ferman King, all of Lubec, Maine.

She will be greatly missed and especially by her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilcox, as she and Mr. Wilcox had lived with with them for the past nineteen years.

A short service was held at the home of Mr. Hiram Wilcox and following at the Reformed Baptist Church. The Church choir rendered appropriate music.

The service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. R. Symonds.

Mrs. Wilcox was an active and valued member of this church and the large attendance bore testimony of the high esteem in which she was held.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

Charles E. Churchill

Darling Lake has lost one of its most prominent business men in the passing of Mr. Charles E. Churchill on Jan. 4th at the age of 75 years. He was born at Short Beach, N. S. Mr. Churchill had been a fisherman and millman, and the last few years of his life a merchant. He was a very highly respected citizen.

Dr. H. C. Sanders is a nephew. Years ago when Dr. Sanders was a young preacher he had the privilege of baptizing his uncle.

Besides his beloved wife he leaves two sons, Judson and Roderick, Short Beach, N. S.; four daughters, Mrs. Eugene Harris, Short Beach, N. S.; Myrtle, R. N., Boston, Mass.; Sarah, Darling Lake, N. S.; and Mrs. James Carter, R. N., N. H., and many friends.

Funeral service was from the home Jan. 8th. Rev. A. S. Bishop officiated and Rev. G. A. Rogers assisted. Two selections were rendered beautifully. Interment was made in the Darling Lake cemetery.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

John Burns

Sandford has lost one of its most beloved citizens in the passing of Mr. John Burns on Dec. 30th at the age of 74 years. He was born in Lunenburg. For the last 36 years he had been a resident of Sandford. He was a fisherman and then a fish buyer for a number of years.

Mr. Burns was a member of the old Methodist church and carried the stamp of the saintly Wesleys. Mr. Burns attended the R. B. Church at Sandford and taught the Bible class for years. He was a layman who knew his Bible. We can say from a sincere heart that he was truly a good man.

Besides his beloved wife he leaves one son, Harry, Cambridge, Mass.; one daughter, Mrs. Daniel MacAskill, Brookline, Mass., and a great host of friends. Many shall rise and call him blessed.

Funeral service was from the home Jan. 2nd. Most of the singers were from the R. B. Church. Three beautiful selections were rendered. Dr. Ryan officiated. Interment was made in the Chegoggin cemetery.

We pray for sorrowing hearts in this hour of sadness.

William Churchill

Yarmouth County lost one of its oldest citizens and the Reformed Baptist denomination lost one of its oldest members in the passing of Mr. William Churchill at the age of 95 years.

Mr. Churchill had enjoyed comparatively good health until the last few months of his life when he had a slight paralytic stroke. On Jan. 7th Mr. Churchill had the misfortune to fall and badly fracture his leg. He died early the next morning at the Yarmouth Hospital. Before the writer reached there he was gone. Whenever we called on Mr. Churchill he always told us that he was trusting God.

He was of a cheerful disposition. He is very highly spoken of by business men of this community. He was a member of the R. B. Church, Sandford, N. S. He made his home with his son, Edmund.

He leaves one son, Edmund, Sandford, N. S.; one daughter, Mrs. Aaron Churchill, Sandford, N. S.; two brothers, Amos, Short Beach, N. S.; and Henry, Malden, Mass.; one sister, Miss Matilda Churchill, Sandford, N. S.; five grandchildren, a number of nephews and nieces, and a large circle of friends.

The funeral was held in the home of his son, Edmund, on Jan. 10th. Rev. G. A. Rogers, his pastor, spoke from Ps. 91:1, 14, 15, 16. Singers from the Sandford R. B. Church sang three beautiful selections.

Interment was made in the Darling Lake cemetery.

May God bless these sorrowing hearts in this hour of great loss.

Elton F. Crowell

Elton F. Crowell died in Toronto on Dec. 25th at the age of 60 years. Mr. Crowell was born in Baccaro, N. S., and lived there until about 14 years ago when he moved to Port Maitland, N. S. Mr. Crowell had been a fisherman most of his life. His health had been failing for some time. A few months ago Mr. and Mrs. Crowell went to Toronto for a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Cedric Sears.

During his sickness Mr. Crowell became savingly acquainted with Jesus. He was cared for by his daughter, Myra, R. N.

Besides his beloved wife, he leaves the following: One son, Arthur, Rockville, N. S.; five daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Churchill, N. Y.; Mrs. Cedric Sears and Myra, R. N., Toronto; Mrs. Ross Pitman and Edith, Yarmouth, N. S.; one sister, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Baccaro, N. S., and a number of friends.

The funeral service was held at Truell Funeral Home, Toronto, on Dec. 26th. Rev. E. W. Tokley officiated and spoke from Mal. 3:17. The body was sent to Nova Scotia. A short service was held in the United Church of Canada at Port Maitland, N. S., on Dec. 30th. Dr. Ryan spoke on words found in John, 14th chapter.

Interment was made in the Port Maitland cemetery. May God comfort these sad hearts in this hour of great loss.

Millard Davis

The church at Jonesport has lost another one of its faithful members in the passing of Brother Davis, who died very suddenly of appendicitis in the hospital at Calais, Me., on Jan. 14th. Brother Davis was in his 31st year.

He leaves to mourn their loss, his father and mother, of Addison, Me. And two brothers, Leland and Milton, both of Jonesport, Me., besides many other relatives and friends.

The funeral services were largely attended and were conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. H. E. Mullen of Fort Fairfield. Interment was in the Indian cemetery.

To those who mourn we offer sympathy and pray that the God of all grace may comfort their hearts.

Mr. B. Ansley Keith

On Dec. 18th death came to the home of Mrs. Eva Taylor at Apohaqui, N. B., taking from this life her aged father, Mr. B. Ansley Keith.

Our departed brother testified to the fact that he believed all was well with his soul.

He had reached the ripe old age of 90 years and up to the time of his death had enjoyed a measure of good health.

Interment was at Head of Millstream in the Baptist burying ground by the side of his wife who predeceased him by some years.

The writer spoke from text Numbers 23:10: "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like His."

He is survived by three sons, Ora A. Keith, Berlin, N. H.; Otty M., Apohaqui; Samuel E., Saint John; one daughter, Mrs. Taylor; and three grandchildren.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

RUIN

By Jessie R. Kennedy

The storm may slay in awful wrath
The giant oak across its path;
But time, nor sun, nor God, nor man
Can ever make it whole again.

So wrath of man may crush and kill,
With unleashed passion, as it will;
But shame, repentance, God nor grace
Can ever all its scars erase.

What though an age were sadly spent
With naught to do except repent,
Though oceans full of tears were shed
They could not resurrect the dead.

"I do not have definite figures on the percentage attributing the downfall of inmates to alcoholic liquor, but I would estimate one-third to alcoholic drinking. The average age is twenty-six plus."—Hattie B. Bowley, Superintendent, Nebraska Reformatory for Women.
