BEDDING FOR BEULAH

Mrs. J. H. Sabine, of Riverdale, N. S., not many years under ninety, has set a good example for younger women by making with her own hands, for the Evangelist's room at Beulah Camp, one fine quilt and a hooked floor rug.

From Mrs. F. A. Dunlop's class, Marysville, two fine blankets.

Havelock, N. S. church—2 quilts, 1 pair pillow cases.

Mrs. John Sabine—1 quilt.

Most of the shadows of this life are caused by standing in our own sunshine.—Emerson.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Elizabeth McMullen

Our sister, Mrs. Elizabeth McMullen, wife of W. Pennington McMullen, of Hartland, N. B., passed to her eternal reward Saturday morning, July 5th, after a lingering illness of many months. Sister McMullen had reached the age of 78. She was born at Bridgewater, Maine, a daughter of the late Thomas and Sarah Snow. Besides her husband she is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H. B. Dickinson, Charlottetown; Mrs. Wm. Bookmiller, Royal Oak, Mich.; and Mrs. F. A. Aiton, Hartland; two sons, Claude and Milo, both of Hartland, and one sister, Mrs. D. W. Gray, East Chelmsford, Mass.

Our sister was a faithful and consistent member of the Hartland Reformed Baptist Church, and through many years was a staunch pillar in that church. She will be much missed and her place will be hard to fill. As long as she was able she was faithful in attendance at all the services in the church, and when no longer able to do that, she still carried the burden for the work. She was a woman of noble character and deep sympathies, and loved by all the community.

The funeral took place from the home of her daughter, Ms. F. A. Aiton, on Monday p. m., July 7th, and was conducted by her pastor, H. C. Mullen, who spoke from a text chosen by Sister McMullen: "The eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms." Deut. 33:27. Rev. Dr. Levy, of the U. B. church, was present and assisted. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery, Hartland.

H. C. MULLEN

Stanley Mullen

The death angel visited our community bearing away the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Mullen. Besides the parents, four brothers and two sisters are left to mourn. Funeral services were held at the home on June 20th. Rev. P. W. Briggs officiating. To those who mourn we extend our prayers and sympathy.

P. W. BRIGGS

Rev. Dr. Herbert C. Sanders

Our denomination has recently lost another of our preachers, in the sudden passing of Rev. Dr. Herbert C. Sanders, of Amherst. Dr. Sanders died Sunday night, June 29th, 1941. He is survived by his wife and all their eight sons and daughters. Five of the children, Faith (Mrs. MacDonald), Paul, George, Charlie and Grace are in missionary work in South Africa; Judson, Norman and Miriam are here in the homeland.

Dr. and Mrs. Sanders went to South Africa as pioneer missionaries many years ago, having been called of God and sent out by the Reformed Baptist Church. They served there over 25 years in all. It would be useless for one to try to tell what they accomplished in that great country in the salvation of the heathen. Of course we sent out other missionaries from time to time as the needs required, and as a result of their combined labours we have a strong work there with many members.

The funeral service which was largely attended, was held for Dr. Sanders in his home at Amherst, N. S., on Wednesday following his death. Several ministers of his brethren were present: Rev. H. C. Archer, Rev. P. J. Trafton, Rev. H. S. Mullen, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Rev. H. Kimball, Rev. A. D. Cann and H. S. Dow, who spoke from a text selected by Mrs. Sanders in Rev. 14-13: And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours and their works do follow them.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Amherst, N. S.

To the bereaved family who mourn the passing of a good husband and father, and to his many friends to whose spiritual and physical needs Dr. Sanders ministered many times, we extend sincere Christian sympathy.

CORRESPONDENCE

Rockport, Mass.

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find five dollars ($5.00). This pays for my subscription, also my sister, Phyllis M. Crowley's subscription to the Highway. The balance please use for Highway Supplementary Fund.

The King's Highway is a truly wonderful paper. It is enjoyed in my home very much, especially the missionary correspondence, and the Temperance column.

Jesus at all times is my ever near and dear friend. How glad I am I can trust Him.

Yours in Him,

MRS. ANNIE B. SEAVEY

Dear Brother Dow:

I am enclosing renewal for the Highway for another year. This paper is a great blessing to me, as my sight is poor I cannot read many papers. What is over use for the Highway fund.

Am quite well at present. Trust you rae well.

MRS. D. DOWNEY

Temperance Column

Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging. Whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.—Prov. 1:20.

LIQUOR AND DEFENSE

The cry now is: "We must have liquor for the soldiers." The beer-boozers say they must have beer, and the whiskey-boozers say they must have whiskey * * *

Great wisdom (?) this: $17,000,000,000 for defense and a drunk army to do the defending! Are we of this nation going to prove to be as big fools as were the French? The liquor interests do not know the meaning of patriotism.

Reports from an eastern city indicated that 28% of the young men seeking admission into the United States Army have been rejected as "unfit" for service. All kinds of things—from bad teeth to syphilis—seem to have been wrong with the applicants.

This is indeed a most deplorable state of affairs. The young men who have been rejected, however, are not so much to be blamed as those who are responsible for dragging down the moral standards to where they are today. Men and women in high public positions who advise young folk to "drink enough to find out what your capacity is," and those who glorify the idea of being modern 'are the ones mostly at fault.
