

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. J. A. Owens, of Saint John, was elected president of our Alliance this year and discharged his duties as such very acceptably.

Our Evangelist, Rev. Dr. C. E. Hardy, proved himself to be a strong preacher, with a real evangelistic gift. His preaching and appeals were responded to by those who heard him, and brought results in many seekers for full salvation.

Our pastor at Woods Harbor, N. S., Lic. B. D. Price, was ordained to the gospel ministry on Friday, July 11th. Rev. W. E. Smith preached a strong and inspiring sermon at this service, which was greatly enjoyed by the large congregation.

Rev. H. S. Dow was again appointed treasurer of the Alliance, but resigned from that office, and Rev. F. A. Dunlop, of Marysville, was elected in his place.

Rev. H. C. Archer was again appointed by the Alliance to have the oversight of Beulah grounds this summer. Brother Archer will hold regular preaching services on Sundays and a prayer-meeting on Wednesday night until the end of August.

Five young people were recommended for license to preach by the Alliance this year. Mr. Sterling Hicks and Ronald and Ralph Sabine and two young women: Miss Myra Crowell, R. N., who has been engaged at her profession in Toronto, Ont., for several years past, and Miss Thelma Rose, of Port Maitland, N. S.

A very impressive Memorial Service was held at Beulah in memory of the passing of one of our preachers, Rev. Dr. H. C. Sanders, of Amherst, and several other prominent members of our churches who have gone to their eternal home on high, during the past year. Rev. P. J. Trafton preached a helpful and inspiring sermon and several others of our preachers took part in this service.

Rev. H. S. Dow was again appointed editor of our paper, the King's Highway, for another year, and Rev. B. C. Cochrane, our pastor of Moncton church, was appointed Associate Editor. Brother Cochrane is also editor of the Young People's Page. Rev. H. S. Dow was also appointed by the Alliance as a stationing committee, to have the oversight of pastorless churches, to try to procure pastors for them, and also to help pastors who have no charges to secure one.

The Home Mission Board has asked H. S. Dow to take up evangelistic work under the supervision of the Board, for this year.

Rev. F. A. Watson and Mrs. Watson visited their daughter, Mrs. Stuart Peterson, and family in Moncton for a few days after Beulah camp-meeting. Brother Watson spoke at the prayer-meeting there on Tuesday night.

Rev. G. A. Rogers is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rogers, at Benton, N. B., for a few days after Beulah. He will supply for Rev. H. C. Mullen on the Hartland circuit Sunday, July 20th. Brother Mullen expects to go to Nova Scotia to visit his mother, and will supply for Brother Rogers that Sunday on the Port Maitland field.

Rev. W. E. Smith, who has been our pastor at Island Falls, Me., the past year, has gone home to Somerville, Mass., to visit his family. Brother Smith surely did excellent work on his field. Besides building up the work spiri-

BEULAH NOTES

Beulah Camp-meeting for 1941 is now a thing of history.

It was surely owned and blessed by God. The meeting was well attended from the beginning, and as usual the attendance increased as time passed. The last days of the meeting found every room on the grounds both in dormitories and cottages filled. And many who came had to find rooms outside the grounds. It seems now as if we would have to enlarge our sleeping quarters in order to take care of the ever-increasing crowds. The last week end of the meeting the weather was very unpleasant. It was cold; clouds hung low; rain fell in abundance, so that hundreds were kept away. But the large tabernacle was filled Saturday night and three times on Sunday.

And in spite of unfavorable weather the people had sunshine in their souls. The meetings began the last Sunday with prayer as usual at 6.00 a. m. and did not close till sometime in the early hours of Monday morning. It was truly a blessed day.

An inspiring baptismal service was held at one o'clock, when several young people followed their Lord in the ordinance of baptism.

There seemed to be a larger number of young people than usual in attendance, so their meetings which were held at 4.00 each afternoon were well attended. Several of the preachers of our own denomination preached during the meetings, and the general comments were that they all preached well. Our evangelist preached three times each Sunday as well as week nights. He seemed to stand his work well, and we believe that many souls were definitely blessed, converted, reclaimed and sanctified. Space would not permit us to mention all those who assisted in the music. Rev. F. A. Watson, Rev. B. C. Cochrane, Rev. G. A. DeLong were song leaders. Mrs. J. A. Owens, Miss Faith Seeley and Rev. B. C. Cochrane and others did the playing, and all did their work well. The solos, duets and quartettes as specials in song were excellent, a great inspiration to all. To God be all the glory.

We are now looking forward to another great camp meeting which will be held D. V. at Riverside, Robinson's, Maine, from August 15 to 24 inclusive.

Rev. Leslie Mann, of the Nazarene Church, will be the special evangelist, assisted by several other preachers.

Let us all pray that this meeting also will be a great blessing. We all need special blessing and inspiration to our faith in these terrible times. God bless you all.—H. S. D.

tually, he opened the Church at Crystal, which had been closed for several months. He organized a Sunday School there, which is being quite well attended. He had the church wired and electric lights put in; he repaired the parsonage, cleaned and redecorated the inside; and in addition to all this, he painted the outside of the church at Belvidere, which adds greatly to its appearance. He is still praising the Lord and "Shouting for Victory," not only in the day time, but often in the night seasons. Well done, Brother Smith. We say, Praise the Lord also.

He who has no vision of eternity will never get a true hold of time. Thomas Carlyle.

NOTICE

We have not received the reports from several of our Sunday schools. Will those who have not attended to this matter, please do so immediately, in order that our statistical report may be complete?

MRS. H. C. MULLEN,
S. S. Agent,
Hartland, N. B.

NOTICE

This issue of the King's Highway is late, due to Beulah Camp meeting so near the date of issue.—Editor.

A CORRECTION

The poem, "Walter Steeves" in Highway June 30th, credited to Judson Sanders, should have been credited to Miss Norah Everill.

APPRECIATION

Amherst, N. S.

Will the many friends of the Sanders family please accept our heartfelt thanks for the innumerable and thoughtful kindnesses in this their time of sorrow?

In the midst of our tears we have great joy for the blessed home-going of our loved one. He walked with God, and is not, for "God took him."

Our own denominational friends by their deep sympathy, deeds of love, and their sincere affection for us, have drawn us nearer each other than ever before until we feel we are indeed like one family, as the great number of cards, letters, etc., testify.

Such things are of the greatest comfort in sorrow and more to us than we can express.

We shall continue to remain in Amherst as before, Miriam continuing to carry on the medical work as far as she can.

In deep appreciation and love.

Yours,
THE SANDERS FAMILY

MARRIED

Stairs-Briggs

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the United Baptist Church, Temperance Vale, N. B., on Friday evening, June 27th, when Miss Bertha Elsie Briggs became the bride of Elmo George Stairs. Rev. P. W. Briggs, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Their attendants were Miss Avis Foxe and David Cronkite. Mrs. Stairs is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bird Briggs, of Temperance Vale, and Mr. Stairs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stairs, of Lower Southampton. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home where over a hundred invited guests were entertained. The bride and groom received many beautiful and useful gifts.

We unite with their many friends in wishing this young couple every happiness.

Burke-Woodward

On the evening of June 16th, 1941, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage in Jonesport, Me., Rev. H. S. Wilson united in marriage Sanford Burke and Miss Irma Woodward, both of Beals, Me. The happy couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Crowley, the double ring service being used.

We extend best wishes for a long and happy future.—H. S. W.
