

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The Sterritt Sisters expect to remain in charge of the work at Mercer another year.

Rev. H. M. Kimball, who has been pastor of Moncton church the past two years, has moved to Killam's Mills circuit. The members of the church and congregation of Moncton met at Mrs. Alice McCalls on Monday evening and tendered Brother Kimball and family a very nice farewell party. They were presented with two nice chairs and some money as a token of appreciation of his services. Brother Kimball's new address is Havelock, Kings Co., N. B., R. R.

Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton, and Rev. H. S. Dow were visitors to Hartland circuit on Sunday, June 1st, where they assisted the pastor, Rev. H. C. Mullen, in all day services. Rev. P. J. Trafton preached at Lower Brighton in the morning and H. S. Dow at Hartland in the morning and Victoria at the afternoon service. Rev. P. J. Trafton preached at Hartland in the evening. At one o'clock H. S. Dow assisted the pastor in a baptismal service in the Saint John river. Four candidates were baptized. Two of them being Mr. Burpee S. Dow and his wife, the son of Rev. H. S. Dow.

The pastor received two members into church membership at Victoria and two at Hartland in the evening. All the services were well attended and were seasons of blessing. Chester Cochrane, of Marysville, supplied for Rev. P. J. Trafton in his absence.

Rev. E. R. Watson, of Meductic, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Millville group of churches for the coming year.

Rev. J. A. Owens, of Saint John, began special meetings at Greys Mills on Sunday, June 1st. He is being assisted by H. S. Dow.

Rev. Gordon Symonds's address, who is a member of the rooms committee of Beulah, is Seal Cove, G. M., N. B., instead of Woods Harbor, N. S., as per last Highway which was a mistake.

A very pretty wedding took place at the Millville Union Church on June 4, when Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gill was united in marriage to Robert Gamache, of Baker Brook, Madawaska Co.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Brother Dow: Brighton, N. S.

I am enclosing renewal for the Highway. I love this dear paper for it is a great blessing to me. Jesus is precious to me; always His lover I'll be.

Yours very truly,

MRS. F. C. SULLIVAN

Brother Dow:

Enclosed find renewal of my Highway and 50c for Supplementary Fund. I am glad to have a good paper to read. The Lord is my strength and underneath me are the everlasting arms.

Yours in the Lord,

MRS. JAMES CURRIE

Fredericton

Dear Brother Dow:

Enclosed please find renewal of Highway, $1.50. So glad Jesus saves, and has been very precious to me while in the hospital at Montreal. It was then I proved Him precious to me in so many tokens of His redeeming love. The Hospital chaplain told me I had come to the best place in the world for help. I was so glad I could tell him I was looking beyond to One that was "strong to deliver," and "mighty to save." How much we have to be thankful for. "The Eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms."

I am enclosing a clipping entitled "Dear Son, Good Night."

Yours truly,

MRS. THOMAS MITCHELL

One message discovered in a pair of socks at the New Brunswick Red Cross depot recently had the following poem clipped from some periodical and the workers held up the pair of socks for a moment or two to make a copy of the words. They were as follows:

THE SONG OF THE SOCK

"Cast on sixty, but not too tight."
(I wonder where you are tonight).
"Purl two, plain two, for inches four."
(To think YOU'D have to go to war,
Your sense of duty made it plain
But—will you come back home again?)
"Yes, that has made a nice smooth toe,"
(Just "missing" that is all I know.)
"Ten on two needles, graft yarn through."
(Tomorrow I might hear from you,
Your home still waits and Mum is here,
All hearts that love, can conquer fear.)

Brave must be hearts to mother men,
Braver to have them go again,
Proud I am to have borne you, son,
Father of all, Thy will be done.

Even if silence grows and lengthens,
One I know, will surely strengthen
You, wherever you are tonight,
My love enfolds you, dear son, Good night."
