

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers baptized two candidates at Port Maitland June 15th and on July 6th received them into church membership. He also baptized one candidate at Brazil Lake June 29th, and the same day received four into membership of our church at Brazil.

Lic. Ronald Sabine supplied for his father Sunday, Aug. 10th, at Crystal and Belvidere. Lic. Ralph Sabine led the prayer service at Belvidere Aug. 14th and Lic. Wilbur Mullen had charge of the prayer meeting at Crystal Aug. 15th. Both the latter have been attending Eastern Nazarene College and are home for a few days visit.

Riverside Camp-meeting started in good. There seemed to be a spirit of burden on the Christians and some conviction on the unsaved from the beginning. The evangelist, Rev. L. E. Mann, preached stirring messages and several of our own preachers were present to assist in any way they could.

Some of our young people who have been attending E. N. C. are present at Riverside, namely, Miss Helen Mullen and Wilbur Mullen, son and daughter of Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Mullen, of Hartland, and Ralph Sabine, son of Rev. L. T. and Mrs. Sabine, of Island Falls, Me. These young folk are making themselves useful in playing the piano and organ in the services, and also in leading young people's and children's meetings.

Rev. James Jones, pastor of a Nazarene Church in Ohio, with his wife, were also present at the Camp for a day. Brother Jones preached a helpful message on prayer Monday afternoon.

The first Sunday of the meeting was wet and cold and this made attendance small, but the Lord was with us and some were blessed. We are expecting more victory and better attendance as the meetings go on.

Rev. G. R. Symonds and family are visiting relatives and friends at Port Maitland and Darling Lake, N. S.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen and sons, Deverne and Paul, accompanied by Miss Helen Justason, of Black's Harbour, passed through Moncton Monday, Aug. 18th, on the way to Havelock, N. S., where they will spend a brief vacation.

Lic. Miriam Sanders supplied the church at Westchester, Sunday, Aug. 10th, and we hear her messages are much appreciated.

A WELCOME

Since accepting the call to the church at Belvidere and Crystal, we have moved and fairly well settled.

On Tuesday, Aug. 13th, the parsonage was practically filled with members of the congregations of both churches, where a pleasant evening was enjoyed.

These kind people gave us a real welcome, making us to feel that they were glad we came with them.

They left us with some groceries and cash. To this act of thoughtfulness we say, thank you.

A nice luncheon was served. After expressions of appreciation and prayer for God's blessing upon our united efforts, we felt quite at home, and we look for victory.

PERSONALS

Misses Thelma Rose and Myra Crowell are visiting in Sanford, Port Maitland, and Yarmouth. They have each conducted services in the churches of this circuit, and have assisted in young people's meetings. Their messages were much appreciated.

The Y. P. Societies of Sanford and Port Maitland have been holding joint services during the past quarter. At each meeting the visiting society has charge of the programme. This plan has proved to be helpful to both groups.—G. A. R.

Among those expecting to attend the Holiness Youth Rally at Ottawa Aug. 29th-Sept. 1st are: Revs. H. S. Dow and G. A. Rogers, A. D. Cann and wife, Rev. B. C. and Mrs. Cochrane, Misses Mary Campbell, Iva Hicks, Iola Mitton, Faith Seeley and Daisy Beech, Mrs. Archie MacCallum and son, Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dow, Bertram and Sterling Hicks may also be there.

CONGRATULATIONS

To Lic. Norman and Mrs. Sanders, who rejoice in the birth of a son, Aug. 13th.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Memorial service was held in the Shag Harbor, R. B. Church on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 10th, by the pastor, Rev. B. D. Price. Scripture lesson, Rev. 7, 9th verse to end. Text: Mark 14:8: "She hath done what she could." Service held in memory of our sister, the late Mrs. Howard Kenney, who passed away on July 11th during the pastor's absence at Beulah Camp.

Funeral service was held in the Shag Harbor Baptist Church on July 13th, the Rev. E. A. Robertson, of Woods Harbor, United Baptist Church, officiating.

We miss our sister very much as she was one of our charter members of Shag Harbor Church. She was a very active member, and carried a burden until God called her to be with Him.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.
MABEL R. PRICE

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4 will convene with the R. B. Church at Havelock, N. S., on Sept. 11th-14th inclusive. Will the churches please send delegates and letters?
MABEL R. PRICE, Secy.

MARRIED

Smith-Hayes

A quiet and very pretty wedding took place on Aug. 6th at Head of Millstream when Luella, daughter of Mrs. Hannah Hayes and the late Mr. Charles Hayes, became the bride of Mr. Bernard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith, of Port Maitland.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. R. Symonds and was witnessed by near relatives and invited guests.

A reception followed the ceremony and a shower was given the following evening by her many friends of the community. Many beautiful and useful presents were received on these occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left the following Saturday morning for Port Maitland, Yarmouth Co., N. S., where they will reside.

We join their many friends in wishing a long and happy married life to this fine couple.

G. R. SYMONDS

Swim-Furrow

A quiet wedding took place at the R. B. parsonage, Woodstock, on August 12th, when Phyllis P. Furrow was united in marriage to Elery S. Swim, both of Hartin Settlement.

We extend best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—

Miss Evelyn Scovil

The death of Miss Evelyn Scovil at Allston, Mass., on June 29th, 1941, removed another of the older members of the Reformed Baptist Church at North Head, N. B.

Miss Scovil was 75 years of age, was a daughter of the late Capt. James Scovil. In 1924 she moved with her niece, Mrs. Augusta Johnston, to the U. S. A., where she has lived since that time. She had been in failing health for the past year. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Palmer Beaumouth, of Cambridge, Mass., two brothers, Calvin Scovil, of North Head, N. B. and George Scovil, of Lubec, Me. The funeral service was held at Cambridge, Mass., on Monday, June 30th, conducted by Rev. Samuel Millar. The body was taken to Grand Manan, where service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church at North Head, and in the absence of the pastor was conducted by Rev. Max DeWolf.

We had been our sister's pastor twice, and remember her faithfulness to the Church both as a worker and supporter.

One by one we pass to our reward, and may it be truthfully said that our works do follow us.

H. C. ARCHER
