MARRIED

Arsenault-McCall

A pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist Church, Moncton, on Sept. 7th, when Gladys Florence, daughter of Mrs. Alice McCall, was united in marriage to George Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arsenault, of Moncton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. C. Cochrane.

We join with the many friends of this young couple in extending best wishes.

Mrs. H. S. Wilson

Mrs. Mildred Wilson, wife of Rev. H. S. Wilson, passed away at her home at Jonesport, Maine, Aug. 30th, after a long and painful illness. Sister Wilson had been to Boston some months ago for treatment. Since then she had been tenderly cared for by her daughter, Marguerite, and Brother Wilson. Her suffering at times was almost unbearable but her courage and cheerfulness helped her through it all. When I talked to her, there was no complaint and she was resigned to the will of God. A brief service was held at the parsonage at Jonesport Tuesday morning, Sept. 1st, where friends and members of the Church gathered to pay their respects to the departed one. The funeral service and burial was at Seal Cove, Grand Manan. In the absence of Brother Symonds, the service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Brother G. A. DeLong, Brother Percy Greene and Brother Carpenter. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, which bore silent testimony of the esteem in which our sister was held. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband and daughter, Marguerite, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benson, also one sister, Mrs. Lawrence Cook; and one brother, Moody Benson, all of Seal Cove, Grand Manan.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

IS IT COME TO PASS?

The following inscription appears on an old tombstone at Church Comsie, Essex, England, and certainly seems prophetic of the present crisis. This tombstone dates back 500 years.

"When pictures look alive with movements free;

When ships like fishes swim below the sea; When men outstripping birds can scan the sky.

Then half the world deep drenched in blood shall be." —Pentecostal Herald

"WHAT IS YOUR LIFE?"

Carroll P. Lanpher tells the story of a young man who was converted only a brief period before his death.

"An hour or so after his friends had sung a hymn he was heard to say, 'Lost! Lost! Lost!' His mother asked him, 'Are your hopes feeble?' 'No, mother,' he said, 'but my lifetime is lost. I am twenty-four years old, and until a few weeks ago nothing had been done for Christ and everything for myself and my pleasure. Oh, that I could live to redeem my lost, lost life!'"

All too often life is accepted as something to spend for individual satisfactions. It is eternity at the door that may jar one into the real meaning of the earthly sojourn.

"What is your life?"

It is an opportunity to get right with God.

It is an opportunity to develop Christian experience.

It is an opportunity to get some of our associates to God.

It is an opportunity to show Christ's life to those who have never seen Him.

It is an opportunity to help the church in the great work she does as an institution founded by Jesus Christ and commissioned to carry on for and with Him.

Ah, how grand are the possibilities of life! —Selected.

The gospel in all its doctrines and duties appears infinitely superior to any human composition. It has no mark of human ignorance, imperfection, or sinfulness, but bears the signature of divine wisdom, authority and importance, and is most worthy of the supreme attention and regard of all intelligent creatures.—Emmons.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 convened with the Church at Belvedere, Me., Sept. 3-6, 1942.

The first service on Thursday night found present a fair attendance and a good spiritual atmosphere. H. C. Mullen was the speaker of the evening, bringing a message from Micah 6:8: "What doth the Lord require of thee?"

On Friday evening S. G. Hilyard brought a message from Heb. 6:1: "Therefore having the principles of the doctrine of Christ." The speaker emphasized the principles that must be left behind.

The business session took place Saturday at 2.30 p. m. In the absence of the president, L. T. Sabine took the chair. Roll call found present ministers and delegates as follows: Ministers: Rev. L. T. Sabine, Crystal, Me.; A. G. Hilyard, Perth, N. B.; H. C. Mullen, Hartland, N. B.; Lic. Joseph Moses, Royalton, N. B.; Lic. Ronald Sabine, Crystal, Maine.

Delegates: John Thorne, Belvedere; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Glidden, Crystal.

Election of Officers for ensuing quarter resulted in: Pres., Rev. L. T. Sabine; Vice-Pres., S. G. Hilyard; Secy., H. C. Mullen; Treas., John Thorne; Highway Agent, Joseph Moses.

Devotional committee appointed by the chair: Brothers John Thorne and Harold Glidden, with chairman.

Verbal reports were brought in by the visiting brethren and the delegates present.

Brother Hilyard spoke of the proposal to erect a church building at Perth. A church building had been secured elsewhere and had been torn down and would be transferred to Perth. The present place of worship would be sold.

The Devotional Committee reported as follows: Saturday evening service in charge of Lic. Ronald Sabine; Sunday a. m., Ronald Sabine; Sunday p. m., Joseph Moses; Sunday evening, H. C. Mullen.

A vote of thanks was given to the entertaining church.

On Saturday evening Lic. Ralph Sabine was the speaker, taking from Acts 24:25 the theme, "Procrastination." Several seekers responded and found their way to the altar of prayer.

Sunday morning love feast was led by Brother Harold Glidden. It was truly a feast and prepared the way for the services all day. Sunday was a day of victory and blessing all through. At 11 a. m. Brother Ronald Sabine brought a good message from Isa. 62, taking as a theme, "Beulah Land Experience." In the afternoon Brother Joseph Moses held his audience in rapt attention while he warned against disobedience, using the life of Saul as an illustration.

In the evening H. C. Mullen spoke from the theme, "God's three appointments." A number of earnest seekers prayed to victory at the close of this service.

This was a very interesting and profitable quarterly meeting, one of the old-fashioned kind when the keynote was evangelism, and the Spirit's presence very real. The church and pastor were encouraged to press the battle for future victory.

H. C. MULLEN,
