

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. H. S. Dow has attended two funerals since coming to Fort Fairfield. Some of our readers may be interested to learn of the death of Mrs. James Pearce and Mr. Nelson Maskell, both buried in Riverside cemetery.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer have returned to Moncton for the winter months. Brother Archer reports a good summer at Beulah. See his letter.

Rev. F. A. Watson assisted Rev. G. A. Rogers in the revival effort at Bristol, Sept. 20th-24th. Souls are being saved in this meeting. Keep praying.

The Moncton Church enjoyed the privilege of having Bro. DeVerne Mullen with them Sunday, Sept. 27th. Large congregations listened with great appreciation as he rendered beautiful messages in song.

The recently held quarterly meeting at Belvedere, Me., was one blessed of the Lord. Several souls sought the Lord, and since then four more at Crystal have been converted. A revival spirit is on and we are unitedly praying for many more to say "yes" to the will of God.

Ralph and Ronald Sabine, who were home from E. N. College for a few days, were greatly appreciated by the churches for their assistance. They not only assisted in the quarterly meeting, but preached at several other services.

A baptismal service is planned for Sunday, Sept. 27th.

Sabine-Lilley

A beautiful church wedding at Belvedere took place on Tuesday evening, Sept. 8th, when Miss Mary E. Lilley, of Smyrna Mills, and Licentiate Ralph L. Sabine, of Crystal, Maine, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the groom's father, Rev. L. T. Sabine, assisted by Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, N. B.

The church was beautifully decorated with an arch and flowers and filled with guests, about one hundred of whom attended a reception at the parsonage at Crystal, following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Sabine will pursue studies at the Eastern Nazarene College, where the groom is a junior in theology. Mrs. Sabine will study music. Their many friends wish them every good success.

Cameron-Chetwynd

On Saturday evening, Sept. 5th, a quiet and pretty wedding was solemnized at the R. B. parsonage, Woods Harbor, when Iva Ulrica Chetwynd, daughter of Staley Chetwynd, Upper Woods Harbor, became the bride of Dexter Cameron, of Shag Harbor, the writer officiating.

To the happy couple we extend best wishes for a happy married life.

OH, FOR A THOUSAND TONGUES

Dr. Sewell, an old Methodist, when dying, shouted aloud the praises of God. His friends said, "Dr. Sewell, do not exert yourself; whisper, Doctor, whisper." "Let angels whisper," said he, "but the soul cleansed from sin by the blood of Christ, a soul redeemed from death and hell, just on the threshold of eternal glory—oh, if I had a voice that would reach from pole to pole I would proclaim it to all the world: Victory! Victory! through the blood of the Lamb!"—Selected.
