

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. W. E. Smith, who is spending the winter in Florida, writes that he has about recovered his normal health again, and expects to leave there and come north in April. Brother Smith writes that he is ready to serve any of our churches that may need a pastor next year. Our brother did good work at Island Falls last year; he is a worker. He built the work up spiritually and did a lot of work in repairing the church property there. He is a whole team in a meeting. He can preach, sing, play and also compose his own music if he needs to. When he gets back north he will have his address in the Highway and some church needing a pastor can contact him then, or write him at once at his present address, 11 1-2 Vine Street, Kissimmee, Florida.

Lic. Wilton D. Marston, who has been pastor of the churches of the Royalton circuit for the past two years, has tendered his final resignation to those churches and is open for a call as the Lord leads.

Rev. S. G. Hilyard, pastor of the church at Perth, N. B., and Rev. H. E. Mullen, pastor of the Fort Fairfield, Me., church, exchanged pulpits Sunday evening, Feb. 8th.

Rev. H. C. Archer supplied the pulpit at Moncton Sunday, March 8th, and preached messages that were much appreciated by the people.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has tendered his resignation to the churches of the Hartland circuit and is open for a call.

Rev. P. J. Trafton has accepted a unanimous call to continue as pastor of our church at Fredericton.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop and family are under a four week quarantine, the youngest girl, Patricia, being ill with scarlet fever.

The special services at Seal Cove with Rev. H. S. Dow as evangelist, closed Sunday, March 8th. There was some good victory in the meetings.

DONATION

On Friday evening, Jan. 30th, the pastor and his wife were pleasantly surprised when answering a knock found a number of members of the Perth church and congregation gathered on the verandah. A very pleasant time was spent in conversation and singing, followed by a very tasty lunch served by the ladies.

We noticed after the lunch was served that there were quite a number of parcels still remaining on the kitchen table and upon examination found our larder had been well stocked, and besides some money.

The evening closed with prayer offered by the pastor to the Giver of every good gift, in behalf of those present. We say thank you again.

Yours in Christian service,

S. G. and MRS. HILYARD

Thank you friends for your faithful support of this fund. Your generosity makes it possible for us to send the Highway to some who cannot afford the subscription payment.

Mrs. Pearl Green, (nee Belle Duplissey), of East Centreville, has recently undergone a surgical operation in the Woodstock Hospital. Her mother writes that Belle is now on the road to recovery.

NOTICE

To the Pastors and Churches of the Reformed Baptist Alliance:

Noting the results of satan's handiwork in the earth, and realizing that these are dire times indeed, with millions of souls being ushered into the presence of their Maker through violent means, I would ask you to observe Good Friday as a day of prayer and fasting, that our hearts may be schooled by the Holy Ghost to meet the need in our day, and that the agony of Christ Jesus our Lord be not in vain.

Also that consideration be given to separate notice to District No. 2.

REV. J. A. OWENS,

President of Reformed Baptist,
Alliance of Canada

NOTICE TO DISTRICT NO. 2

A motion was passed in Quarterly Business Meeting that all pastors and churches on District No. 2 be asked to observe special services during Passion Week.

Services to be held in the churches each evening, Monday through Friday, as well as the Sunday services. It is suggested we all observe the Lord's Supper Thursday evening. Friday to be observed as a day of fasting and prayer. It was also suggested that the day's activity of our Lord, Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday be subject matter for these different services, so that each church on the district would be co-operating on the same themes.

Secretary

BIRTHDAY TRIBUTE

On Friday evening, March 6th, a number of friends were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Dow, in honor of the 72nd birthday of Moses Hillman. He had been invited to spend the evening with them, and when the friends came in, it came as a complete surprise to him.

The evening was spent in conversation, and in the singing of a number of good old hymns. Several readings were given, one being an original poem expressing appreciation of his faithful services as janitor of the Reformed Baptist Church.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, on behalf of those present, presented Mr. Hillman with a gift to which he very fittingly replied and expressed his appreciation of the good will of his many friends.

Delicious refreshments were served after which a parting prayer was offered by the pastor.—Hartland Observer.

OUR HOPE

I cannot tell how, in this turmoil of life,
With the sorrows and trials that darken, and strife,
My soul's kept serene, untouched by the foe,
Safe in the hiding place, God's children know.
I cannot tell when, or how soon it may be,
Disaster or death, may overtake me.
I only just know, that my Saviour's strong arm
O'er shadows my soul, and keeps it from harm.
We never can tell, when the horrors of war,
May engulf and destroy all our Faith's standing for.
But this we may know, whatever may be
There's a safe hiding place for you and for me.
The promise of God has been truly fulfilled;
His law in our hearts, and our minds, is instilled.
'Tis beyond any hope of destroying by man;
Our Father can keep us; He gloriously can.
There may be no service, no Bible, no prayer,
Should such come to pass, yet we need not despair;
For still in our hearts, engraved by His love,
His promises live, sent down from above.
The Comforter promised, is with us today,
To guide us, and help us, and show us the way.
To bring to remembrance the things we'd then
miss;
No mortal can ever rob us of this.
Original composition by Mrs. M. McBrien.
