

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We wish all our ministers would bring the matter of The Highway to the attention of their congregation and urge those in arrears to renew and also get some new subscribers. Several of our brethren are already doing this, and are sending in renewals and new subscribers often, for which we are grateful.

Our church building at Killams Mills has been finished inside, and those who have seen it say it is beautiful, and is a credit to the members and the community. The dedicatory service will be held on Sunday, June 7th. An all day meeting will be held with several preachers present to take part. We are expecting a time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord. All welcome.

Rev. A. D. Cann, of Westchester, N. S., has accepted a call to become pastor of the Hartland group of churches. Brother Cann feels that the Lord is leading in this call, and is looking forward to a fruitful ministry there.

Rev. H. S. Dow expects to begin evangelistic meetings with Rev. B. D. Price at Woods Harbor, N. S., on May 31st. Please pray that the Lord will give us victory.

The last report from Mrs. H. C. Mullen of Hartland is that she is slowly improving in her health. Mrs. L. T. Sabine, of Island Falls, Me., has been very poorly for several weeks, and confined to her bed with a severe attack of bronchitis; but we are glad that she is better.

Miss Miriam Sanders, of Amherst, N. S., is assisting Rev. P. W. Briggs at Havelock, N. S., in special meetings.

NOTICE

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 will convene with the church at Meductic on June 11-14. Let us pray for a good meeting.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Margaret MacLeod

Margaret MacLeod, wife of Mr. John MacLeod, passed from this life on May 2nd at the age of 69 years and 6 months. Her sudden death came as a great shock.

Mrs. MacLeod was born in Cape Breton, N. S. She and her husband moved to Massachusetts nearly 45 years ago. They resided in the town of Saugus.

Besides her beloved husband, Mr. John A. MacLeod, she leaves two sons, Daniel and Melbourne MacLeod, Saugus, Mass.; three daughters, Sadye (Mrs. Frank Dahlberg), Saugus, Mass.; Ethel (Mrs. Roy Davison), Dorchester, Mass.; Annie (Mrs. G. A. Rogers), Port Maitland, N. S.; and one brother, Mr. John MacLean, Glace Bay, N. S., and a large circle of friends.

The funeral was held from the Nazarene Church of Clifftondale, Mass., on May 6th. Rev. J. W. Turpel officiated. Rev. J. Cubie and Rev. A. Garnett assisted. Rev. Mr. Turpel gave a fine tribute to the memory of the departed one. He spoke very fittingly from Phil. 1:21. Two beautiful selections were rendered.

The casket was banked with beautiful flowers. Besides floral tributes from the family, friends and neighbors there were beautiful flowers from the Clifftondale Nazarene Church, of which the deceased was a faithful member and from the Sandford Reformed Baptist Church of which her son-in-law, Rev. G. A. Rogers, is the pastor.

The body was quietly laid at rest in the Riverside cemetery, Saugus, Mass., where her son, a first world war veteran had been buried just 14 years ago.

Mrs. MacLeod was a fine Christian woman. Our temporary and earthly loss is her eternal and heavenly gain. One day we shall meet her where there is no more parting.

May the Great Eternal God sustain and comfort the broken hearts in this hour of heartfelt sorrow.

Mrs. William Macfarlane

The death of Mrs. William Macfarlane took place Monday morning, May 18th, at her home, 348 Westmoreland street, Fredericton, N. B., after an illness of over six weeks duration. She was born in Blantyre, Scotland, 67 years ago and with her husband and family came to Fredericton 22 years ago. She was converted early in life and was a devout follower of her Saviour and Lord. She united with the Reformed Baptist Church in Fredericton over 18 years ago and has always been a true and faithful member in every way. She will be greatly missed in the home and church. She leaves to mourn besides her husband, two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Rainage, Halifax, N. S.; Mrs. Arthur McMann, Newcastle Bridge, N. B.; a son, Robert Macfarlane, Fredericton; a sister, Mrs. John Duncan, Blantyre, Scotland, and five grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the home on Wednesday, May 20th, at 2.30 p. m., the writer officiating, assisted by Rev. Alexander Gibson, U. B. Many gathered to pay their last tribute of respect, and there were many beautiful floral tributes. Burial took place in Rural Cemetery. She was highly esteemed by all who knew her. To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy. A Mother in Israel has been called to her reward.

P. J. TRAFTON.
