

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, N. S., went to Benton, N. B., on Jan. 6th to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rogers. He returned home the following Friday.

We are sorry to hear that Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Island Falls, Me., has been suffering greatly for several weeks with rheumatism. His sons, Ronald and Ralph, who are attending E. N. C., were home for Christmas. Miss Helen Mullen, daughter of Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Mullen, of Hartland, also spent Christmas with Rev. and Mrs. Sabine.

Rev. A. D. Cann reports that the work at Westchester is encouraging, with better attendance and increased interest.

Rev. H. M. Kimball, of the Killams Mills, and Salem, and Head of Millstream circuit, was a recent caller on the editor, and says that in spite of the storms, he is able to keep most of his appointments this winter.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, of Moncton church, had been speaking over the air the first week of the new year. He has been assisted in singing by Mrs. Cochrane and Mrs. A. K. MacCallum.

The editor of the King's Highway, while visiting his son, Edward, in Ontario, preached in the Wesleyan Methodist chapel at Belleville, Ont., on the last Sunday night of the old year. He also spoke at prayer meetings going and coming at St. John, N. B., Calais, Me., and Hartland, N. B., and held services at Amherst, N. S., on Sunday, Jan. 4th. We expect to begin special meetings with the church at Port Maitland on Sunday the 11th. Miss Miriam Sanders, of Amherst, is engaged in special meetings, with Fred Strickland in his Mission at Truro, N. S. The Amherst church expects to hold evangelistic services soon, assisted by Rev. A. D. Cann, of Westchester.

Rev. J. A. Owens, who has been suffering from arthritis in his back and right foot, had the misfortune to fall on the ice and sprain his other ankle. He is beginning special services the last Sunday in January, with Rev. Mr. Dixon, of Everett, Mass., as evangelist.

Rev. G. A. Rogers and Rev. H. S. Dow have been recent over-night guests at the parsonage in Saint John.

We thank God for the way these young men are keeping true to God, and we believe are being used of God for His glory as they witness for Him daily. Brother McGeorge has been a great help in the work here. He quite often takes a service and his messages are always appreciated.

OF THOSE WHO ARE ILL

"He Whom Thou Lovest is Sick"

Several of our people have been quite sick recently, with colds, lagrippe, etc., but many seem to be on the way to recovery again. Among these are Mrs. Noah Hicks, of Killam's Mills; John J. Hayes, of Lower Millstream; and Brother John Golding, of Peel, N. B. Brother and Sister Golding are spending the winter with their daughter, Mrs. Percy Barter, of Hartland. Mrs. H. C. Archer slipped on the ice recently and had a bad fall. She was confined to her bed for a few days but is able to be out again.

Mrs. Walter Steeves, of Hillsboro, N. B., writes that Mr. Steeves is not enjoying very good health. Sister Steeves is still praising the Lord for His many mercies and blessings. She sends her renewal for the Highway, stating that she reads it and then passes it on to others who are glad to receive it.

Mrs. Victor Rushton, of Westchester, is in poor health. We are sorry to learn of Sister Rushton's illness, and pray that she may soon recover health.

Mr. Beecham Trites, of Berry's Mills, N. B., had the misfortune to hurt one of his eyes recently, suffering a painful injury while working in the woods. He has been in Moncton for several days receiving medical attention. The last report we have is that he is gaining and expects to be spared the loss of sight in the affected eye.

We also hear that Brother Thomas Wolverton, of Four Falls, is not very well this winter, for which we are sorry.

Let us pray that God may give grace and healing to these afflicted ones.—H. S. D.
