

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Report from Marysville says the work is encouraging. The attendance at both Church and Sunday school is increasing and several wanderers from the fold of Christ have returned in the regular services finding the peace of reconciliation. We say, praise the Lord!

We hear that the work of excavation and foundation of the new Perth Church is completed and erection of the building is under way.

Special services began at Hartland Nov. 15th, Rev. G. A. Rogers being evangelist.

The special services at Moncton closed in great victory Sunday, Nov. 29th. Thirteen seekers at the altar Sunday night. A great meeting. Letter in later issue.

Rev. J. A. Owens received three candidates into church membership Sunday, Nov. 22nd.

Rev. R. T. Sellick and Lic. Wilbur Mullen were guests at the Saint John parsonage recently.

Rev. R. T. Sellick is assisting Rev. H. E. Mullen and the church at Beals, Me., in revival efforts. Meetings began Nov. 22nd.

PERSONALS

The family of Stanley Hayes have been under quarantine during November and have been greatly missed in the Sunday school and church services.

Mrs. Harry Grant, of Crystal, is convalescing from a recent illness, and we hope to see her back to church again.

Mrs. Geneva Pyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Kelly, is in the Milligen Hospital, Island Falls, for treatment. We hope a speedy recovery will be her experience.

Rev. P. J. Trafton and the editor of the King's Highway called on our good brother, Thomas Wolverton, recently. We found him confined to his bed and very weak in body, but strong in faith and praising God for salvation.

Several of our people and readers of the Highway are sick and others have unsaved ones in their families that they are anxious about, still others have financial problems, and they are sending their requests to us very often asking us to pray that God will undertake for them, and heal, save and help them. We want the readers of this note to take some time to pray earnestly for so many that are in distress.

We are sorry to hear that our good brother, Aaron Chuchhill, of Sandford, N. S., is sick and in bed again. Please remember our brother in prayer.

We had a letter recently from our good sister, I. M. Keirstead, of St. Andrews. We did not know until she wrote that she had quite a poorly spell after Beulah, and had to go to a doctor in Fredericton for treatment. We are glad, however, that she is better again, and as usual she is interested in the Lord's work and is praying much for the many sorrowing, troubled souls, who need help from Jesus in this time of trouble because of war. Let us pray also for Geo. Cushing, our deacon at Crawford, Me., who is very ill with gangrene in his foot.

We have several encouraging letters recently commending us for our editorials and work on the Highway, which we appreciate very much and take this opportunity to say, Thank you. Several of these good folk are a long distance from their home churches and miss the fellowship of our meetings. Among them are: I. A. J. Ward, of Vancouver, B. C.; Arthur Deadman, of Regina, Sask.; E. W. Griffith, of Montreal; Mrs. Addy A. Day, of Westford, Mass.; Miss Eva Sears, of Wallingford, Conn.; Mrs. R. W. Armstrong, of London, Ontario, and many others whose names we have mentioned before in the Highway. We are glad that our readers are finding our paper a real help in time of need. We hope that many others will send in their renewals before the end of this year which will be very soon now. Thanks.—H. S. D.

MARRIED

Glidden-Gould

At the Ref. Baptist parsonage, Crystal, Me., on Saturday evening, Nov. 21st, Miss Ruth M. Gould, daughter of Clarence and Mrs. Gould, of East Holden, Me., formerly of Belvedere, and Mr. Lex M. Glidden, of Stacyville, Me., were united in marriage by Rev. L. T. Sabine. Mr. and Mrs. Glidden will reside at Stacyville.

Their many friends wish them every happiness.

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

An outstanding event took place Saturday evening, Nov. 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bradley, Grey's Mills, Kings Co., N. B., when a large number of friends from Saint John, Clifton and Grey's Mills vicinity gathered with the immediate family to honor Mr. and Mrs. Bradley on the occasion of their golden wedding.

The guests were welcomed by the bride and groom of fifty years. A pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all as associations of the past and present were called to mind.

At the close of the evening beautiful gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bradley on behalf of those present by Rev. J. A. Owens. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley responded, expressing their surprise and appreciation for a very pleasant evening of remembrance.

The Bradleys are of a Loyalist family, still living on the original Crown Grant No. 17, now known as the Elmdale Farm, which has always been in the family name.

In the present Bradley family there are four sons, five daughters and twelve grandchildren.

CORRESPONDENCE

Saint John, N. B.

Just a few lines re our special services which were conducted by the writer assisted by Brother G. A. DeLong as evangelist.

The meetings were fairly well attended and finances came very easy. Our people stood by nobly in every way. Brother DeLong proved to be a good evangelist, his messaes right through the whole series were clear, straight, and forceful. He preached the whole truth, and faithfully declared the whole council of God.

A number of souls were at the altar, and we feel they were only a small number in comparison with those who rejected the Lord, and who failed to yield to the moving of the Holy Spirit. But God is faithful, and we are still praying and expecting to see souls saved in the regular church services.

We are enjoying the (Nazarene) fellowship of Rev. Mr. Hammond, who is living in the city for the time.

We enjoyed a call from Sister Alice Sterritt last week. She was guest at our November Missionary meeting, and we had the privilege once again of having her take us on a trip to Africa with her lantern slides.

Rev. Mr. Whitman, who represents the Sudan Mission, showed us his views of their work in Africa, last evening. Surely it does repoice our hearts to know there are souls somewhere who are hungry for the Word of God. How little the privileges of the gospel are appreciated in this land of peace and plenty. We wonder what will have to happen to people to awaken them to a sense of their need.

We are nearing the Xmas season, and let us keep the Prince of Peace ruling in our hearts even in a world of war and strife.

Yours in His service,

ARTHUR & HAZEL OWENS
