

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Our hearts were made sad recently when we heard of the death of Rev. Leighton S. Tracey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., on Monday, Sept. 28th. He was a prominent preacher of the Nazarene Church, a very godly man, and zealous for the cause of holiness. He had spent several years in missionary work in India. Brother Tracey was born in Carleton Co., N. B., and was well and favourably known by many of our readers. On two occasions at least he visited Hartland, where some of his relatives and friends lived, while the writer was pastor there, and spoke in our church. He will be greatly missed by his own church and many friends as well as by his beloved family, to whom we extend sincere Christian sympathy. Besides his wife he is survived by one son and two daughters.—H. S. Dow.

The work in our church at Fort Fairfield is very encouraging indeed. The attendance at the services and interest is good. The meetings are seasons of refreshing. We find the people all ready to co-operate in the work, especially with their tithes and offerings. We heard the treasurer say recently that there is over $400.00 in the treasury. We are expecting to use a part of this to paint our church building, outside and in, very soon.

Rev. L. T. Sabine baptised three candidates on Sept. 27th and another on Oct. 11th. One united with the church at Belvedere and five at Crystal.

On Oct. 11th revival services began with the church at Crystal, Rev. G. A. Rogers is assisting the pastor, Rev. L. T. Sabine. The services are fairly well attended and several have been at the altar seeking to be reclaimed or sanctified. The faithful band is united in prayer and effort for a gracious revival.

The faithful ministry of the evangelist is blessed of the Lord. Christians, join us in prayer for this needy field.

The church at Fredericton began special services Oct. 20th, with Rev. H. E. Mullen as evangelist. The campaign will continue over Nov. 8th.

Rev. G. A. DeLong is assisting Rev. J. A. Owens in revival meetings at Saint John.

The work at Amherst is reported as encouraging under the labours of Rev. D. W. and Mrs. Marsten. They have adopted the Storehouse Tithing Plan recently.

Lic. Wilbur Mullen is ready for evangelistic or pastoral work. See his letter.

Please remember in prayer the various revival efforts. Also the campaign beginning at Moncton, Nov. 15th, continuing over Nov. 29th. We hope that many of our friends will be able to share the privilege of Dr. Butler's ministry during this meeting.

PERSONALS

Miss Marguerite Trafton returned to Fredericton recently from a four weeks visit with her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Untz, of Hyde Park, Mass., and Rev. N. E. Trafton, of Newport, R. I.

Miss E. R. Trafton, R. N., spent the week-end and Thanksgiving with her parents, Rev. P. J. and Mrs. Trafton, at Fredericton.

Miss Joan Smith, of Saint John, who is attending Prov. Normal School at Fredericton, spent the week-end and Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Smith, Saint John West.

Mrs. W. A. Hopper, of Moncton, was able to attend church on a recent Sunday morning, the first time in many months. Sister Hopper keeps cheerful and has a good testimony of God's keeping grace.

"On Sunday, Oct. 18th, Sgt. Edward Dow, R. C. A. F., attached to the Mountain View Air Training School in Ontario, occupied the pulpit of the Wesleyan Methodist Chapel, Belleville, Ont., in the absence of the pastor, Rev. D. R. Chateau. Bro. Dow's message was very much appreciated by the people. He gave a fine expository message on the "Service of Paul as a Christian minister."

It might be of interest to some to know that it was our happy privilege to meet again Brother and Sister Harold Burt, and Brother and Sister Don Robinson, of Hartland, while in Toronto supplying Brother Tokley's work. Brother Robinson is suffering from a severe throat infection which required to be lanced and was unable to be at the service. Brother Burt's hearty "Amen's" were an inspiration to the preacher.

We had a very interesting letter from Miss Mary Campbell, whom many of our readers know. She is teaching in a Nazarene College in Red Deer, Alberta, and enjoys her work very much. She also says that she is standing true to her convictions and the experience of heart holiness which she received among the Reformed Baptists in the Maritimes. We were glad to hear from her and hope that she will soon write a letter for publication in the King's Highway.

We also received a letter from another good friend, Brother Alton Urquhart, of Southwest Harbour, Me. Brother Urquhart sends his renewal for the Highway, also some money to be used in some other part of the work, which we appreciate very much. He writes that his wife has been in the hospital for a serious operation, but is out again and enjoying good health, for which we are thankful. Their purpose is to be true to the Lord to the end. Let us remember to pray for one another.—H. S. D.

MARRIED

Marney-Mooers

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Woodstock, when Miss Evelyn Mooers, of Temperance Vale, was united in marriage to Mr. Glenn Marney, also of Temperance Vale.

Their many friends join in wishing them happiness.

F. A. ANDERSON

Anderson-McLaughlin

On the evening of Sept. 17th, the Reformed Baptist Church at Wood Island was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Norma Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McLaughlin, of Grand Harbour, was united in marriage to Herman Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of Wood Island.

The ceremony was performed by F. A. Anderson, brother of the groom, assisted by Rev. G. R. Symonds, pastor of the church.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents.

We join in wishing them a long and happy life.

F. A. ANDERSON

Greene-Estey

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Estey, Centreville, N. B., when their daughter, Doris Annie, became the bride of DeVerne M. Greene. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Mullen, Black's Harbour, N. B., assisted by Rev. H. W. Carpenter, of the Baptist Church, Centreville, and Lic. Joseph Moses, pastor of the Reformed Baptist Church, Royalton, N. B.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elva Estey, and Donald Bartley supported the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Greene will reside at Black's Harbour, N. B.
