

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. B. D. Price has resigned as pastor of the Woods Harbour and Shag Harbour Churches and is open for a call as the Lord leads.

Rev. E. R. Watson, of Millville, N. B., has resigned as pastor of the churches of that circuit, and is open for a call.

Rev. H. L. Robertson has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Calais and Crawford churches and is open for a call.

The special meetings have started at Seal Cove. One man prayed through to victory in the first service, Sunday morning. Please pray for this meeting.

The revival service at Black's Harbour closed Sunday, Feb. 1st. Rev. H. S. Mullen, the pastor, reports great preaching by the evangelist, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, and several souls found victory.

We attended the evangelistic services at Saint John Friday, Feb. 6th. The evangelist, Rev. Dr. Dixon, preached a good message. Some souls received definite help in the meetings which were closed Sunday, Feb. 8th.—H. S. D.

Rev. J. A. Owens will conduct the devotional broadcasts over radio station CHSJ Feb. 26th, 28th, 8.30-8.45 a. m.

QUARTERLY MEETING DIST. NO. 2

PERSONALS

Many of our subscribers to the King's Highway are shut in this winter, some because of infirmities of age, others because of poor health. Many of them write and tell us how much they enjoy The Highway. We had the privilege of calling on several while we were at Port Maitland recently. Among them were Mrs. Edgar Landers, Mrs. E. T. Kinney, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. P. B. Hurlburt, at Yarmouth, N. S., and Mrs. Hattie Haskill and Mr. John Smith, of Port Maitland. We found them all happy in the Lord. Brother Aaron Churchill, of Sandford, is also confined to his home because of ill health. We expected to get to see him, and some others there but circumstances over which we had no control seemed to prevent us. Mrs. Hugh Churchill also of Yarmouht has been quite ill this winter, but the last report we had was, she is improving again.

We are sorry that these good folk are deprived of getting to church. We miss them, but have not forgotten their faithful service and labor of love when they were able to be more active. And now they need not feel that there is nothing that they can do, or that their days of usefulness are past, for they can still do a very important and necessary work. We mean they can still be intercessors; they can pray for the salvation of others and thus be potent factors in the work of the church.

Mrs. Everett Bain, of Sandford, and Mr. Henry Benson, of Seal Cove, have both been to the hospital and have undergone very serious operations, but we are glad that they are recovering their health, and are able to be out to church again.

Also Brother George Crosby, of Brazil Lake, is in poor health this winter. Let us remember to pray for the sick.

Mrs. Wm. Russell, of Sackville, writes: "I miss the church at Moncton very much and am not able to get to church here very often, but I am going on with the Lord. Pray for me."

Mrs. B. C. Cochrane received word that her sister, Miss Jean Doyle, R. N., has arrived safely in South Africa.

Mrs. H. S. Dow spent the Christmas season with her daughter, Mrs. Darrel Beem, of Hartford, Conn. On her way home she also visited her brother, A. B. Miller, of Pittsfield, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Charlton, of West Somerville, and Rev. E. W. and Mrs. Lester, of Oldtown, Me.

NOTICE OF QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 1 will convene, D. V., at Victoria, N. B., on Thursday, March 12th, to continue over Sunday, 15th. It has been a long time since there was a quarterly on this District, so let us make amends by making this the greatest one this District has ever seen. Let all churches send a letter and also delegates if possible.

H. C. MULLEN,
Secretary

A fine way to enlarge the heart is to crowd in another genuine friendship.

In the long run, your character will make you gain. In the meantime, it is gain.

A child enters your home and for twenty year makes so much noise that you can hardly stand it. Then it departs, leaving the house so silent that you think you will go mad.—Rev. John Andrew Holmes.

MARRIED

London-Farnham

A happy event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Farnham, Victoria, N. B., on the evening of Jan. 31st, when their daughter, Sarah Edris, was united in marriage to Guy Clifton London, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frazer London, of Lower Brighton, N. B. The groom is a member of the R. C. A. F. now stationed in Fredericton, and the bride a teacher at Wilmot, N. B. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Earl London, brother and sister of the groom and bride respectively.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Hartland, in the presence of members of the immediate families, and a few invited guests. After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served. The good wishes of a host of friends will follow these fine Christian young people.

Smith-Green

A quiet and pretty wedding took place on Feb. 7th at the residence of Harry Harvey, of Seal Cove, when Miss Oral L. Green, daughter of Lic. and Mrs. Percy Green, of Wood Island, and Mr. Carl J. Smith, of North Head, were united in marriage by the writer.

The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of relatives and friends after which refreshments were served.

We join their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Smith a long and very happy future.

A DESCRIPTION OF CHRIST

During the public ministry of Jesus Christ upon the earth, the following description of His person was sent by Publius Lentulus, President of Judea, to the Senate of Rome. It is from an ancient manuscript:

"There lives a man of singular character, whose name is Jesus Christ, in Judea. The barbarians esteem Him as a prophet, but His own followers adore Him as the immediate offspring of the immortal God. He is endowed with such unparalleled virtue as to call the dead from their graves, and to heal every kind of disease with a word or a touch. This Person is tall and elegantly shaped; His aspect amiable and reverent; His hair flows into those beautiful shades which no united color can match, falling into graceful curves below His ears, agreeably couching upon His shoulders, and parting on His head like the head of Nazarene. His forehead is smooth and large; His cheeks without either spot, save that of a lovely red; His nose is smooth and formed with exquisite symmetry; His beard is thick and of a color suitable to the hair of His head, reaching a little below the chin, and parted in the middle like a fork. He rebukes with majesty, commands with mildness, and invites with the most tender and persuasive language; His whole address, in deed or word being elegantly graceful and characteristic of so exalted a being. No man has ever seen Him laugh, but many have seen Him weep, and so persuasive are His tears that the multitude cannot withhold theirs from joining in sympathy with Him. He is very temperate, modest and wise, and in short, whatever this phenomenon may turn out in the end. He seems at present from His excellent bearing and Divine perfection, in every way surpassing the children of men."—The Sword and the Trowel.
