

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

We have just closed a two weeks' revival with Rev. H. S. Dow as our evangelist. Our brother brought us good holiness messages from God's Word, directed by the Holy Spirit with power and blessing.

In spite of people resisting the Spirit, God was faithful in convicting of sin, and we believe the services have been very profitable.

The presence of Brother Dow has been an encouragement to our Christian life. May the Lord bless him as he goes into his next campaign.

Yours in Christian love,
D. W. MARSTON,
Royalton, N. B.

Lic. D. W. Marston has accepted an unanimous call to our church at Amherst, N. S., as pastor for next year.

Rev. W. E. Smith reports a good time in his evangelistic meetings at Taylor, N. Y. His address now is 12 Essex street, Winter Hill, Somerville, Mass. Any of our churches wishing to correspond with him for evangelistic meetings or pastoral care for next year can contact him there.

Rev. G. R. Symonds has had a baptism at Wood Island recently when several young people were baptized.

We heard some weeks ago that Mrs. H. S. Wilson, the wife of our pastor at Jonesport, was taken to Boston to a hospital for treatment and is seriously ill.

Rev. H. S. Dow expects to assist the pastor, Rev. P. J. Trafton, and church at Fredericton, in evangelistic meetings beginning Sunday, May 3rd.

Rev. A. D. Cann, of Westchester, N. S., is assisting Rev. R. T. Sellick in special evangelistic meetings at Oxford, N. S. We called on Mrs. S. A. Baker in Woodstock recently and found her as well as usual and able to get out to church quite regularly.—H. S. D.

The editor made a brief visit to Killams Mills and Salem on the 28th inst., and found the people encouraged and enjoying the labors of their pastor, Rev. H. M. Kimball. They have given him a call for another year.

The church at Killams has met with some serious losses in the past year by the death of several of their faithful members. But the remaining ones have not lost their courage. They are at work finishing their church building inside. This will involve quite an extra expense, and they would be glad to receive some financial help from any of their members who have moved away. They expect to have it dedicated as soon as it is finished. The date will be announced later.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

- Mr. H. C. Lawton.....$3.50
- Mrs. H. W. McLean..... .50
- Mrs. Perry Harris..... .50
- Mr. Geo. Landers..... .50

Thank you, friends, for your help to this fund.—Editor.

QUARTERLY MEETINGS

The quarterly meeting of District No. 2 will convene with the church at Salem, Kings Co., N. B., May 21 to 24.

The quarterly meeting of District No. 4 will convene with the Church at Sandford, N. S., May 21 to 24.

PERSONALS

The editor of the King's Highway was greatly pleased recently to receive a card from Miss Jean Doyle, R. N., from Durban, South Africa. As our readers know, Jean went over to do war work nursing, several months ago, and says she is delighted with the country.

Mrs. Howard Cox, one of our faithful subscribers at Rosedale, Car. Co., has recently undergone a surgical operation in the hospital at Woodstock, N. B., and has sufficiently recovered to be able to return to her home.

Mrs. Wm. McFarlane, of Fredericton, has suffered a paralytic stroke recently and is confined to her bed.

Mrs. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, N. S., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John MacLeod, at Saugus, Mass.

A recent letter from Mrs. Ida M. Kierstead says that she is greatly afflicted with rheumatism again this spring and suffers much pain.

Mrs. Simon McLeod, of Long Beach, Calif., whom some of our older readers know, has recently celebrated her 98th birthday anniversary. She enjoyed calls and received congratulations from many friends that day. Sister McLeod is quite well for one so advanced in years. She has been a much appreciated subscriber to the King's Highway ever since its beginning. May the dear Lord, whom she loves and serves, be pleased to let our sister celebrate many more birthday anniversaries with her loved ones and friends here.—Editor.

MARRIED

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage in St. John, N. B., on Saturday evening, April 4th, when Miss Laura Dunlop, of St. Martins, was united in marriage to Mr. Stephen Stephenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephenson, of Gordonsville, N. B. They were attended by Miss Seeley and Howard Stephenson, brother of the groom.

Rev. J. A. Owens was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson will reside at Jacksonville, Car. Co., where he will be engaged in farming. God bless them as they start their new home.

LOOK!

We would be greatly pleased and encouraged if many of our good subscribers to The King's Highway who are neglecting their renewals, would let us hear from them, and if you cannot send in all you owe, please send what you can at once. Money seems to be more plentiful now than at some former times. Would this not be a good time to send your renewal? We would appreciate it very much.

Thank you.—Editor.

North Head, N. B.

The years roll on and pass forever:
The good and bad just come and go.
As I live a life of shut-in pleasure,
The future's bright for me I know.

For nothing in this world can last!
Praise God for all His blessings.

MRS. N. W. McLEAN

Editor's note.—Sister McLean has been an invalid for many years. She is confined to her bed and almost helpless; is afflicted with arthritis and is never free from pain, yet she is one of the happiest persons we ever met. She is cheerful and never complains, but is triumphant through Faith, God bless her.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Agnes McKim

The Church at St. John has suffered the loss of one of its valued members in the person of Mrs. Agnes McKim. Sister McKim was always present, when at all possible, and it will be a long day before the loss of her absence will be eased.

To her immediate family and loved ones the Reformed Baptist Church of Saint John come with heartfelt sympathy in this their time of sorrow.

The funeral service was held in the home of her daughter, Miss Alice McKim, 147 Union street.

Rev. Mr. Chisholm, United Baptist, assisted the pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, in the service.

Mr. Owens spoke from a familiar and favourite portion of the Word, the twenty-third psalm.

A trio composed of Rev. and Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Philpotts sang "The Home of the Soul," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye." Mrs. Owens sang a solo, "Unto the Hills."

Our sister leaves to mourn their loss, two sons, Estey J. and George P. of Saint John; and two daughters, Mrs. James Maver, Fredericton, and Alice, who cared for her during her illness.

The floral tributes were many and beautiful; they spoke of the love and esteem in which our sister was held by all those who knew her.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of which our sister was a member, had the closing part of the service.

May these sorrowing ones be sustained in this their hour of need.

Earnest W. Jones

The death of Earnest W. Jones, of Bangor, Maine, occurred recently after a lingering illness. His body was brought to Royalton, N. B., where he spent the early part of his life. Rev. Fred Foster, of Maine, brought the funeral message, assisted by Lic. D. W. Marsten and Rev. H. S. Dow. Interment was made at the Royalton cemetery.—D. W. Marsten.

George Bishop

The death of George Bishop took place at his home, 239 King St., Fredericton, Friday morning, April 17th, after an illness of several months, in the 76th year of his age. He was quiet, courteous and faithful in his duties, and had a great many friends. He is survived by his widow, two sons, Henry Bishop and Wesley Bishop, of Fredericton; two daughters, Mrs. Bruce Stephens, Chipman, and Mrs. Clarene Tapley, of Ripples; three sisters, 21 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held from the home, Sunday, April 19th, at 2.30 p. m. Rev. A. D. MacPherson, U. B., officiating, assisted by the writer, there were a great many people present; the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Interment was in Wilmot section of Rural cemetery.

To the bereaved ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.
P. J. TRAFTON

HOME MISSION FUND

- Rev. S. G. Hilyard—pledge.....$ 1.00
  - Rev. J. T. Gordon—pledge..... 5.00
  - In loving memory of wife and mother—
B. W. Brown and family..... 10.00
- Thanks!
P. J. TRAFTON, Treas.