

one, although we always feel very unworthy of it all.

Then in January we were completely surprised by a large number of our good people as they filled the parsonage and filled the kitchen table also with groceries of all kinds. A very pleasant evening was spent, leaving us feeling very grateful to our heavenly Father.

We have not seen any great victories during the year, but we have been pressing on, with deep determination, and a great deal of inspiration from God, for which we have been so thankful, consequently the tide seems to be rising slowly. Praise His dear name: and we are just trusting God now, that someone will be able to come to help us in special effort, that a few more, at least, who seem near the Kingdom, may get in before it is too late.

Faithfully yours,
G. A. and MRS. DELONG

Dear Brother Dow: Havelock, N. S.
Your editorial in The Highway of Jan. 31st was very timely.

How true it is that modern life is not proving conducive to piety.

The moving picture industry especially has become a great detriment to spirituality.

'Movie' programmes invade the home, and after a few months gain the predominance.

They seem to breed a kind of infatuation, and hold the attention of listeners even to the extent of taking pleasure in vulgar and coarse jokes.

What a travesty on entertainment!

Before "movies" were introduced, people lived more sanely, at least, than they do now.

It is to be hoped that the war will curtail their influence.

Yours for rectitude,
MRS. J. H. CUNDELL

Dear Highway: Port Maitland, N. S.

During our week of preaching and prayer, I had the privilege of speaking at the U. B. churches at Arcadia and Hebron, N. S. Rev. A. Bishop and Rev. Mr. Wakeling spoke in our church at Port Maitland. The concluding service was held at the U. B. Church at Port Maitland and Rev. H. S. Dow was the guest speaker and gave a very timely message on Luke 11:13.

Our revival campaign at the R. B. Church of Port Maitland was from Jan. 11th to Feb. 1st. Rev. H. S. Dow did not come to this people or pastor as a stranger. He never came with a stronger, straighter message. He preached with the blessing of God upon him and his message. We never found an off service as far as blessing was concerned.

The church received great help by our brother's able ministry in spiritual things. From the start some in the community seemed to feel that the price was too great. Naturally they turned away sorrowful. Others kept warming up more and more as the meetings advanced. If the meetings could have lasted a while longer it seemed that a real break would have come. Many requested prayer. Some were definite seekers and happy finders. One outstanding case was a school teacher in one of our public schools. Eternity itself will reveal the results of this revival.

The singers of Sandford and Port Maitland R. B. Churches rendered valuable service.

It was great to have Brother Dow with us in our home. He has always meant a great deal to this pastor and his wife. We can say, 'Truly, he is a man of God.'

Yours for victory,
G. A. ROGERS

Dear Highway:

We say, "Thank you" for all the greeting cards that we received at Christmas. The churches of this circuit gave us one of the largest contributions of any Christmas season since we have been on the field. The church at Port Maitland gave us a beautiful blanket. The churches at Sandford and Brazil gave a substantial sum of cash. There were numerous personal gifts. We feel grateful, but unworthy of such kind treatment.

We have resigned after a period of six years Not that we have seen what our hearts have longed to see and not that we are dissatisfied with the kind treatment of the good people of this field, but acting for what we believe would be for the best interest of His work, we felt like passing over the leadership to other hands. The churches have been fortunate in securing Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Marysville, N. B., who will take up the work in July. May God bless these faithful people under the ministry of their new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Dunlop.

Pray that God will give us a time of gracious blessing in the closing months of our ministry in this place.

Yours for the interest of souls,
REV. & MRS. G. A. ROGERS

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed the money for my Highway for another year. Sorry I did not send it before as I don't think I could do without it. There is so much good and helpful reading. I find Jesus very near and precious to me. I could not get along without such a loving Saviour. We have had a lot of cold and stormy weather but the Lord has been very good to me. I have been fairly well all winter. I don't get to Church but I hear a sermon on the radio sometimes. I was 80 years old in July and I can see to read and knit and sew. I often read God's holy word; there are so many good and precious promises. Simply trusting every day, trusting through a stormy way. Even when my faith is small, trusting Jesus, that is all.

I will close, wishing you one and all a happy and successful new year.

Yours in Christian love,
MARY S. COLE

Saint John, N. B.

Dear Highway Readers:

We would like to report victory through the Blood of the Lamb.

We feel that God has been good to us here in Saint John, having sent to us as a church, refreshing showers and heart warmings that I trust we will never get over.

We enjoyed Rev. Dr. Dixon very much, and he was used of God to bring truths, both new and old, from God's Holy Word.

Many souls knelt at an altar of prayer, renewing covenants, being sanctified holy, pleading for pardon. Praise God for the working of the Holy Ghost in our midst. There are those who are yet to come.

Join with us in prayer that these will soon put in for the good things of the Kingdom.

Lic. Herbert McGeorge preached Sunday evening for us and his message on "The Great Day of His Wrath has Come and Who Shall be able to stand," was a timely warning.

Four months to Beulah. Plan to attend this year.

REV. J. A. OWENS

Dear Highway:

I would like to write a few lines in loving remembrance of my father, Edgar Clark, who left us nine years ago this winter, but whose memory is ever present with us.

Especially sweet to me is the memory of the last time I visited him and my mother, and it is of that visit I wish to speak. Although my father had many attacks of severe suffering for years, still he had been able to keep around, and his death was to us all a shock.

The night before he passed away, my husband and I decided to drive in and spend the night with them. I often recall his joy at seeing us.

Later in the evening after a pleasant talk together, my husband and I had gone to our room. My father was still in the living room, and I heard him singing:

Fade, fade each earthly joy,
Jesus is mine;
Break every tender tie,
Jesus is mine.

I spoke about the strangeness of it at that late hour, but I little realized that in those words he was bidding us all good-bye, at the same time leaving us the sweet assurance that One he loved still more was with him. In twenty-four hours my father, who loved his wife, family and home very dearly, had left behind all earthly ties and gone to be with One who was still more precious to him. All down through these years we have missed him so much, but fortunate are we who have the Blessed Assurance that the one we loved is in the loving care of our Heavenly Father, and although we miss him so, we could not wish him here in this world so full of pain and sorrow.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

Sent in by daughter, Mrs. W. E. Morgan, Maplewood, N. B.

FULL SALVATION

The blessing of Holiness is a conscious experience! One cannot have it and not know it, any more than he can love or hate, suffer or enjoy, and not know it. The work wrought in the individual is deeper and often more apparent than in his own conversion, as is evident:

- In the complete consecration;
- In the inward rest of soul;
- In the permanent peace;
- In the greater joy;
- In the new liberty of service;
- In the sense of inward cleanliness;
- In the deeper measure of love;
- In the love for all Holiness people;
- In the closer communion with God;
- In the witness of the Holy Spirit to entire cleansing.

It is utterly beyond question for one to have such feelings and desires and aspirations, and not to recognize them.

Holiness is an experience which more than any other satisfactorily enables one to use his condition, place and surroundings for God. One may be:

- Peaceful in prosperity;
- At rest in adversity;
- Victorious in persecution;
- Rejoicing in sickness and suffering;
- Earnest in living and happy in dying.—War Cry.

Many supposedly new discoveries in the field of religion, health, and psychology amount to little more than the recognition of old and neglected truths and principles.
