

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. F. A. Watson has tendered his resignation as pastor of our church at Beals Island and is open for a call to any of our churches. Brother Watson has served the Beals Church ten years during two pastoral periods. His ministry has been deeply appreciated by the people of the church and community he has served so well.

Rev. A. D. Cann is assisting the Amherst Church in revival effort.

Lic. Mered Grant, of the R. C. A. F., has been enjoying an extended leave with his wife and family at Amherst. Brother Grant suffered quite a painful injury at Halifax recently when he was struck by a car, but we are glad to learn he is quite recovered.

Rev. Ella Sanders supplied the pulpit at Westchester Sunday, Jan. 18th, and Lic. Miriam Sanders supplied there Jan. 25th.

Rev. G. A. Rogers, of Port Maitland, N. S., has already tendered his final resignation to the churches on this field. This circuit consists of three churches: Port Maitland, where the pastor lives, and Sandford and Brazil. Brother and Sister Rogers have done good work in building up these churches spiritually, and the people naturally wanted them to remain with them another year. But Brother Rogers would not let them extend a call to him again. He will finish six years of pastoral work here in June. He is an excellent pastor to work among the people, in addition to all his other work he averages over five hundred calls a year, where he prays in the homes of about all the people in the community. This is a good pace that Brother Rogers has set for other pastors. If any have done better, we would like to hear from them.

Of course some of our churches which are in need of a good shepherd will be calling Brother and Sister Rogers right away. The churches here have several of our preachers under consideration and some of them no doubt will be receiving a call to be their pastor for the coming year, and whoever is favored with a call will do well to come, for I don't know where you will find a finer class of strong holiness men and women than are on this circuit. We have churches that are larger in membership, but none stronger spiritually. There is a good number of men and women, heads of families active in the work of the churches, and a goodly number of young people and children coming on in the Sunday schools and young people, and Crusaders' work, which looks encouraging for our churches here for time to come.

The special meetings being held at Port Maitland are going on under the blessing of God. The saints are being fed and strengthened, and a few are seeking definite spiritual help and requesting prayer.

Rev. H. S. Dow expects to begin evangelistic meetings with Rev. G. R. Symonds and the church at Seal Cove, Grand Manan, N. B., on Sunday, Feb. 8th.

Please address personal mail to him there for the next few weeks.

AN EXPLANATION

Due to a rush of war orders in the office, of publication, which could not be avoided, the King's Highway is late this issue.

MARRIED

On January 3rd a very pretty wedding was performed by the writer assisted by Rev. P. J. Trafton in the Reformed Baptist Church in Fredericton, when Patricia Nellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Ripples, N. B., was united in marriage to Private Charles Donald McCall, son of Mrs. Alice McCall, of Moncton.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends both from the church and out of it, among whom were the bride's parents and the groom's mother and sister, also a number of other relatives.

The church was fittingly decorated for the occasion by the young people of the Fredericton Church.

The wedding march and other fitting music was played by Miss Lois Goodspeed, organist.

Following the ceremony luncheon was served by the bride's parents at 242 Saunders street.

After a brief tour through the province, the happy couple will reside at 242 Saunders St., Fredericton.

Best wishes extended for a happy married life.

H. L. ROBERTSON

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Baptist Church at Keirsteadville, N.B., when Esther Irene Edgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edgar, and J. Esly Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Long, of Snider Mountain were united in marriage, Rev. W. W. Close officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by her sister, Miss Doris Edgar. Earnest Brown supported the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Later Mr. and Mrs. Long left on a motor trip through the province. They will reside at Snider Mountain. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

CORRESPONDENCE

A few words of appreciation for the kind remembrances to us at Christmas season.

On December 23rd at the close of the prayer service the members of the Crawford Church presented us with a sum of money amounting to eight dollars in cash. This was a surprise to us. Some that were not present at that meeting gave their gifts later, making a total of $13. Some provisions were given also.

We wish to thank them in this report. We pray God's blessing on them of his heavenly bounties.

At the Christmas season the kind folk of the Calais church remembered us as usual. Some with gifts of money and most all with kind greetings.

On December 22nd the Young People of the Calais Church surprised us with the gift of a beautiful electric table lamp, also a gift for Marilyn. We want to take this opportunity to thank them at this time. We also wish to thank all those who came in and helped us, or sent things in during our recent illness. We pray God's richest blessing upon all these dear people.

Yours in Christian love,

H. L. and MRS. ROBERTSON

MUST WE SIN?

A certain preacher closed his sermon with the declaration that "no man can live without sin." "No one," said he, "can keep the commandments. I break them all myself, every day and hour." He called upon a staunch old saint to close with prayer. The brother prayed about as follows: "O Lord, have mercy on us! 'Thou shalt have no other gods before me, Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy,' and 'Thou shalt not bear false witness;' and here is a preacher who says he breaks them all every day and hour. Thou hast said, 'Thou shalt not steal,' 'Thou shalt not commit adultery,' and 'Thou shalt not kill,' and here is a preacher who says he breaks every commandment every day and every hour. Lord, have mercy on us, and send us a better preacher. Amen!"—From the Pentecostal Herald.

"The things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal."
