

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

The special meetings at Bristol, N. B., closed Sunday, Oct. 4th. Rev. G. A. and Mrs. Rogers, assisted by Lic. Thelma Rose, co-laboured in this effort which began Aug. 23rd, continued over six Sundays and concluded with an all-day meeting and baptism Sunday, Oct. 4th. A good number of souls sought the Lord during this campaign, and good was done that will be fully known only when the Lord of the harvest reveals the same. During the meeting our workers were assisted by Revs. H. C. Mullen, P. J. Trafton, F. A. Watson and S. C. Hilyard, as well as the people of Hartland, Perth, and others of our churches in the area. Remember this work in prayer.

Rev. H. E. Mullen reports the work at Beals encouraging, with good attendance.

The Moncton church expects to engage in special services beginning Nov. 15th. They have engaged Rev. C. W. Butler, of University Park, Iowa.

Revival services are going on at Head of Millstream Church, where Rev. H. M. Kimball, pastor of the church, is "doing the work of an evangelist."

Lic. Wilbur Mullen has been assisting his father, Rev. H. C. Mullen, in special meetings at Lower Brighton.

Rev. H. L. Robertson preached at Perth, N. B., Sept. 27th, in the evening service.

Some of our churches are now engaged in revival effort, and more of them will be soon. Let us give ourselves to special prayer for these meetings. Certainly revivals are needed, and just as surely, God is willing to give them. Intercessors are needed, so let us pray!

Rev. H. L. Robertson, of Calais, Me., and Rev. H. S. Dow, of Fort Fairfield, had an exchange of pulpits on Sunday, October 4th. In our exchange, H. S. Dow preached at Calais morning and evening and at Crawford in the afternoon. We were glad and blessed in meeting the people again and ministering to them, who also seemed to enjoy our ministry.

PERTH CHURCH FUND

Rev. W. E. Smith—$5.00, with promise of more to follow.

H. G. McCrea—$65.00 to apply on new lot.

George McLean—$5.00 with promise of more to follow.

The Building Committee expresses appreciation for the ready response to this Fund, and say, Thank you!

REV. S. G. HILYARD
Perth, N. B.

HIGHWAY SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Dr. J. E. Jewett.....	$5.00
S. H. Bradley.....	1.50
Lester Alley50
Mrs. Emma Downey.....	.50
Miss Helen Grant.....	.50
Miss Mary Campbell.....	.50
Mrs. Manning Mullen.....	.50

There is a small chance of truth at the goal where there is not a childlike humility at the starting post.—Coleridge.

To dally much with subjects mean and low, proves that the mind is weak or makes it so.—Cowper.

PERSONALS

The editor of the King's Highway and Rev. P. J. Trafton had the privilege of making a brief call on Mrs. S. A. Baker and Mrs. C. P. Phillips one evening recently. We found them enjoying about their usual state of health, and happy in the Lord.

We had a good letter from our old friend, Dr. J. E. Jewett, in California, who used to live in Woodstock several years ago. He is enjoying good health and the blessing of the Lord. He writes that he has sold his orange grove and has moved to Whittier, California. He says he sees Mrs. Diadama McLeod at Long Beach, and she does not look much older, although she is in the 99th year of her age. He also spoke of seeing several other people whom many of our readers knew a few years ago, and will be glad to hear from. Mrs. Grace Story, Mr. and Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. Manzer Thornton, Mrs. Marion Goss,

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burtt, who moved from Hartland, N. B., to Toronto, Ont., last summer wrote that they are enjoying the blessing of the Lord and are getting settled in their new home and enjoy it. They also enjoy the preaching of Mr. Tokley, whose church they attend, where they also find many good friends.

MARRIED

Polk-Beal

A pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Jonesport, on Sept. 26th, when Iona M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Beal, was united in marriage to Carlton Polk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Polk, of Jonesport. The ceremony was performed by the writer, the double ring service being used.

Best wishes for a long and happy wedded life are extended.

H. S. WILSON

Morgan-Atkinson

The Reformed Baptist parsonage of Saint John, N. B., was the scene of a quiet wedding, when Miss Bernice Atkinson, formerly of Apple River, N. S., became the bride of Mr. George Morgan, of Brown's Flats, N. B., on August 31st, at 8.30 p. m.

The bride, wearing a powder blue dress and hat, and a corsage of Talisman roses, was attended by Mrs. Fred Johnson, of Brown's Flats, and the groom was supported by his brother, C. Gordon Morgan, also of Brown's Flats.

A number of relatives and friends witnessed the happy occasion, and immediately following the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. A. Owens, a wedding luncheon was served in the Paradise Tea Room.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will reside at Brown's Flats, where he is engaged in farming.

Russell-Foster

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Foster, Grand Harbor, when their daughter, Helena Salome, was united in marriage to Ronald Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Russell, of Seal Cove. They were attended by Miss Purves Guptill and Ross Russell. Little Miss Alice Harvey was flower girl.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. R. Symonds in the presence of relatives and invited guests. A reception was held after the ceremony when many fine and useful gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell will reside in Saint John, where Mr. Russell is serving with the Canadian Army.

We join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

REV. G. R. SYMONDS

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelations 14-13.

Mrs. William Cook

The death of Mrs. William Cronk, age 76 years, occurred at her late home in Grey's Mills, N. B., Sept. 15th.

Sister Cronk had suffered from high blood pressure for some time, which resulted in a stroke, leaving her practically helpless. She was in this condition when her husband became seriously ill, and passed away a few months ago.

Possessing a sweet disposition, and a deep Christian experience, Sister Cronk endeared herself to everyone who knew her. She was a loyal member of the Reformed Baptist Church in that place, and kept her faith in Jesus firm unto the end.

The funeral service was held Sept. 17th, from her home to the church, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, assisted by Rev. Mr. Coburn, of Long Reach. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. She leaves to mourn their loss, six daughters: Mrs. M. A. MacDonald, of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Joseph Parks and Mrs. Allen Copp, both of Saint John; Mrs. Merrell Hillman, of Woodstock; Mrs. William Flanders, of Grey's Mills; also Mrs. Reynolds White, of Grey's Mills, who cared for her during her illness.

Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

Our prayers and sympathy follow the sorrowing ones.

REV. J. A. OWENS

Mrs. John J. Hayes

After an illness of several months, Mrs. John J. Hayes passed away in the General Public Hospital at Saint John, N. B.

It was our privilege to visit with our sister during her stay at the hospital, and although she suffered terribly at times, she was strong in her faith, and longed to go to be with Jesus. She was 61 years old. Her death occurred on July 15th, and the funeral service, conducted by the writer, was held in the Reformed Baptist Church at Head of Millstream, the 17th of July. Revs. H. M. Kimball and Mont Reicker assisted in the service.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn one daughter, Laura, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Philip White, of Newburyport, Mass., and Mrs. Amanda Thompson, of Saint John; also five step-daughters and one step-son.

Interment was in the family lot in the cemetery adjoining the church.

May God comfort and sustain those left to mourn a loving wife and mother, and a kind neighbor and friend.

REV. J. A. OWENS

Note.—This should have appeared in a previous issue.

You demand universal suffrage; I demand universal education to go with us.—Forster.