

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Licentiate Ralph and Ronald Sabine supplied the pulpit for their father, Rev. L. T. Sabine, while at home for the Christmas season, covering three Sundays.

They returned to Nazarene College at Wollaston, Mass., on Monday, Jan. 4th.

Lic. Wilbur Mullen is assisting Rev. G. A. DeLong and the church at North Head in revival effort. The campaign began Sunday, Jan. 10th.

Let us give special time and strength to prayer in behalf of the revival meetings now in progress and those soon to begin. May the Lord revive His work.

The church at Havelock, N. S., has received a gift of twenty-five dollars from Mr. Earl Sabean, of Quincy, Mass. Mr. Sabean sets a good example by remembering his home church in the time of prosperity.

Ministers present at the special Alliance Session at Fredericton Dec. 29th were: Revs. Archer, Trafton, Dow, H. C. Mullen, Owens, H. E. Mullen, Dunlop, F. A. Watson, Hilyard, Wilson, Anderson, DeLong, Marsten, Cochran and Mrs. H. C. Sanders; Licentiate: Alice Sterritt, Wilbur Mullen, and Joseph Moses.

There were two meetings of the Alliance: 10.00 a. m. and 2.00 p. m. Rev. J. A. Owens, vice-president, presided.

Rev. G. A. Rogers will engage in revival effort with Rev. H. S. Wilson and the church at Jonesport beginning Sunday, Jan. 17th.

APPRECIATION

We looked forward to the Christmas season with glad anticipation, not because of giving or receiving gifts as much as hearing from our many friends whom we only contact at that season of the year.

It was not a disappointment, for personally I received over one hundred beautiful cards, bearing good wishes besides Christmas letters and gifts, all of which I highly appreciate, but the only way I can acknowledge so many is through the medium of The Highway.

So again, I wish to express my grateful thanks and appreciation.

May the real spirit of Christmas abide with us during this New Year, giving us thankful hearts for the manifold blessings we are continually enjoying, and for courage to face the problems and testings which may be in store for us,—“looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith,” whom we love and endeavour to serve.

Wishing all a Happy New Year.

I. M. KEIRSTEAD

PERTH CHURCH FUND

Previously acknowledged	$318.50
Miss Alice Sterritt	2.00
Mrs. H. G. McCrea	5.00
Glendon McCrea	1.00
Mrs. Bert Clair	1.00
Mrs. May Cogswell	1.00

The building committee on behalf of the Church express our thanks for these contributions together with those listed in the previous issue. Cold weather and scarcity of labour has slowed progress on the building since Christmas. We plan to continue as weather permits.

S. G. HILYARD

PERSONALS

Among the delegates at the recent meeting of our Alliance at Fredericton were: Albert Shaw, of Sandford; Fred Sollows, Port Maitland, M. H. Young, Millville; Ralph Ingersoll, Saint John; Mrs. B. C. Cochran, Moncton; Mr. Clowes Patterson and Mrs. Annie Horncastle, Fredericton; and Mrs. F. A. Anderson, Woodstock.

We had a very nice letter recently from one of our good subscribers, and one whom many of our readers know: Mrs. Anna M. Barker, who lives in Boston, Mass., and is matron of the Eliza Henry Home there.

Sister Barker wrote a very interesting letter, which we would like to publish, but she refuses the editor permission to do so. She says she enjoys the King's Highway very much, but she does not keep it all to herself, neither does she destroy it, when she has read it. This is what she writes: “I just sit down when it comes and read it all through, then I loan it to two dear old ladies, then send it to my daughter in Syracuse, N. Y.; she reads it, then gives it to some ladies in her S. S. class. So it does its quota of missionary work.” We wish that all our readers would take the same interest in getting the Highway into the hands of other people who would like to read it. Sister Barker is also prompt in sending in her renewals. Don't you think you could help us some by following her example?—Editor.

FOREIGN MISSION FUND

Mrs. Emma Downey, in memory of her husband	$ 5.00
Rev. S. G. and Mrs. Hilyard	5.00
Wood Island Church for native worker	22.00
Hartland Missionary Society	10.50
A friend, for Charles Sanders	5.00
Fredericton Church Christmas Offering	65.00
Woodstock Sunday School	2.11
A friend at Rockport, Mass., for native worker	11.00
Beals Island Sunday School	48.00
Mr. W. R. Carson	50.00
Mr. Moses D. Hillman	5.00

RIVERSIDE WELL CONTRIBUTIONS

Fredericton Church	$25.00
Wood Island	5.00
Seal Cove	3.50
Mrs. Downing	2.00

We need at least one hundred and fifty dollars to clear off this debt. Who else will respond with an offering?

F. A. DUNLOP, Treasurer

SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Rev. M. S. Trafton	$1.50
Mrs. Alberta Landers	1.50
Mrs. Frank Kimball	1.00
Robert Landers	1.50
Byron Brown	.50
Mrs. Hannah Bragdon	.50
Mrs. Viona Willey	.50
Miss Marjorie Stevens	.50

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We wish to acknowledge with appreciation the receipt of a very liberal gift of money from our church at Moncton at Christmas time. We also thank the many friends who remembered us with cards and letters. Blessings be upon all during the year.

B. C. and MRS. COCHRANE

MARRIED

Smith-Atwood

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Reformed Baptist parsonage on the evening of December 15th, when Iona St. Clair Atwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Atwood, of Woods Harbour, and John Lewis Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Port Maitland, were united in marriage. The ceremony was witnessed by immediate relatives. Rev. F. A. Dunlop was the officiating clergyman.

The groom is a member of the armed forces, now stationed at Petawawa, Ont.

The happy young couple carry with them the good wishes of their many friends.

Tucker-Justason

A very pretty wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist Church of Black's Harbour, N. B., on Jan. 7th, at 3 p. m., when Miss Helen Augusta Justason, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Justason, was united in marriage to Mr. Russell Calvin Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Tucker, of Letete, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. S. Mullen, pastor of the said church, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

After a short motor trip this young couple will reside at Letete. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Brawn-Bradley

A quiet wedding took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Woodstock, Dec. 19th, when Anna M. Bradley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradley, of Maple Ridge, was united in marriage to Weldon D. Brawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brawn, of Staples Settlement.

A number of relatives were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. A. Anderson.

We join with their many friends to wish them a happy future.

OBITUARY

“Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.”—Revelation 14-13.

James Perry

The community's oldest citizen, James Perry, passed away on Dec. 8th at the age of 90 years.

The funeral services were held on the 10th and interment in the Crystal cemetery. The deceased made his home with Mr. Charles Thorne for the past 25 years.

L. T. SABINE

Thomas Wolverton

It now becomes our duty to record the passing of our good friend and brother, Thomas Wolverton. Brother Wolverton departed this life Dec. 18th, 1942.

He had been in failing health for a long time; most of his life had been lived at Four Falls, Victoria Co., N. B. It was at this place in a revival meeting conducted nearly thirty-five years ago by the writer, that our brother found Christ as his Saviour. He was one of the charter members of the Reformed Baptist Church, that was organized there at that time. The last testimony of St. Paul was his choice for his funeral service; it was his choice also that I should conduct that service. We believe Brother Wolverton has gone to be with Christ his Saviour. He died in the faith once delivered to the saints. He leaves to mourn their loss his sorrowing wife, three daughters.

(Continued on Page Five)