

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa. 126-6.

Following the recent Quarterly Meeting at Hartland, Rev. P. J. Trafton visited at Fort Fairfield for a few days, and also visited his brother at Mapleton, Me. Brother Trafton had charge of a prayer service at Fort Fairfield, and also preached in the morning service, Sunday, Sept. 19th. His messages were much enjoyed by the people.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge attended two prayer services at Fort Fairfield recently and gave inspiring exhortations. Also on Tuesday, Oct. 5th, Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Wilson were at the Fort, and Brother Wilson spoke in the prayer meeting.

Rev. H. C. and Mrs. Archer have returned to Moncton for the winter months. Their address is 45 Williams St.

Revs. P. J. Trafton and F. A. Watson exchanged pulpits for the morning service of Sunday, Oct. 10th.

Special services begin at Grey's Mills Sunday, Oct. 17th, with Lic. Miriam Sanders assisting the pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens.

The Moncton Church will engage in revival effort beginning Oct. 19th, with Rev. H. E. Mullen as evangelist.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen will minister in special services at our Mission in Haliiax, beginning Sunday, Oct. 17th. Rev. G. A. Rogers has been faithfully standing by this work during the lengthy series of services, and Paul Mullen has been giving valuable assistance as pianist and song leader. We urge you to pray earnestly for this important meeting. Victory does not come easily in a campaign of this nature but God is able and willing to help. Some souls have been at the altar but the "break" has not come yet. Keep praying.

A GOOD RESPONSE

Many of our Sunday Schools have already voted to adopt the use of the Wesleyan Methodist Co., literature, as recommended by the Alliance. We trust that those who have not done so will take action soon.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."
—Revelations 14-13.

Mr. Thomas Tilley

Thomas Tilley, a valued member of the Reformed Baptist Church at Victoria Corner, passed away at Rosedale, N. B., Sept. 22nd. The deceased had suffered a broken hip in a fall a few weeks ago, from which he never recovered.

He is survived by four children: Mrs. Gordon York, Rosedale, N. B.; Percy Tilley, Bridgewater, Me.; William Tilley, Moncton, N. B.; Mrs. Percy York, Houlton, Me. There were four clergymen present at the funeral service: Revs. P. J. Trafton, H. C. Mullen, Mr. Petchey and A. D. Cann. Rev. P. J. Trafton preached the funeral sermon.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our sympathy.

Mr. Gordon York

Gordon York, a resident of Rosedale, N. B., passed away at his home on Saturday, Oct. 2nd. He had suffered injury in a fall a few months ago, and never recovered. He is survived by his wife.

Brother York was an active Christian man in the community and contributed much toward the erecting of the Reformed Baptist Church at Victoria Corner.

The funeral service was well attended. Six clergymen were present: Revs. Lee Good, O. W. Shaw, H. C. Mullen, H. M. Kimball, Mr. Petchey and A. D. Cann. Rev. Mr. Good, a life-time friend of the deceased, preached the funeral sermon at the request of the late Brother York.

May God comfort the sorrowing hearts.

QUARTERLY MEETING DIST. NO. 4

The quarterly meeting of District No. 4 convened with the Church at Sanford, Sept. 9-12.

The opening message was brought by Rev. P. W. Briggs, the text being found in I. Cor. 15:58. The glorious thought of the resurrection being an incentive for us to be steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.

The services through the day on Friday and Saturday were led by the laity. They were blessed times spent in prayer and testimony.

On Friday evening a Sunday School convention was held. Rev. F. A. Dunlop gave a talk, using the black-board to illustrate his message. This was very helpful, showing the benefit of the black-board in teaching the primary class. Mrs. F. A. Dunlop gave an interesting talk on methods of teaching. This was inspiring and helpful to teachers. An animated Sunday School discussion followed, led by Mrs. Perley Briggs. A choir made up of young people, and special selections by different ones helped make this convention a success.

Saturday afternoon the business meeting was held. Roll call found the following ministers present: Revs. F. A. Dunlop, B. D. Price and P. W. Briggs. The officers of last quarterly were re-elected. Treasurer, Vernon Churchill. There were delegates from each church except Havelock. Reports were all encouraging.

Saturday evening Rev. B. D. Price preached, his text being Phil. 1:10, showing us the need of sincerity in our worship. Sunday morning love feast was led by Mrs. Perley Briggs and was a time of blessing and sweet fellowship as the large number present testified to God's saving and keeping power. At 11 a. m. Rev. F. A. Dunlop spoke. He preached from St. John's gospel 10:10. This message was preached in the demonstration of the Spirit, warning us that Satan as a thief is trying to steal the church's glory. Sunday afternoon Rev. P. W. Briggs brought the message, his text found in II Cor. 12:7. The thorn in the flesh, showing us the need of dying daily to our human nature. The closing message by Rev. B. D. Price, using scripture Numbers 14:27. This was a message to young people and very timely. One soul knelt at the altar and found peace, for which we thank our Heavenly Father.

This was a blessed quarterly meeting. The people of Sanford entertained royally, the weather was excellent, attendance good, and best of all, God met and blessed His people. May the Lord richly bless the work of holiness everywhere

GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On Sept. 6th, 1943, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Mullen, of Woodstock, N. S., celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. About forty friends and relatives gathered at their home to celebrate the occasion. Ten children were born of this union, eight of whom were at home for the anniversary. The eldest son, Edgar, was a victim of world-war No. 1, and a daughter, Viola, died during the flu epidemic of 1918.

May our brother and sister enjoy many more happy years together.

WANTED

1. Fathers like Abraham. "He will command his children and household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord" (Gen. 18:19).
2. Mothers like Hannah. "As long as he (her son) liveth, he shall be lent to the Lord" (I Sam. 1:28).
3. Boys like Jesus. He returned with His parents to Nazareth, "and was subject unto them" (Luke 2:51).
4. Girls like the little maid who told her mistress that God could heal Naaman's leprosy (2 Kings 5:1-3).
5. Brothers like Nehemiah and Hanani, who served God together (Neh. 7:2).
6. Sisters like Mary and Martha who received Jesus into their home and into their lives (Luke 10:38).
7. Men in high places like Daniel, in whom no fault could be found (Dan. 6:5).
8. Preachers like Paul, who "in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling" presented the truth in the power of the Spirit (1 Cor. 2:1-5).
9. Servants of God like Barnabas. "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and faith" (Acts 11:24).
10. Lovers of the Bible like the Bereans. "They received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily" (Acts 17:11).—Source Unknown.
