

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. D. W. Marsten has resigned as pastor at Amherst, N. S. Brother and Sister Marsten and son Paul leave for Kinsac, Nov. 18th.

Rev. F. A. Anderson is assisting Rev. J. A. Owens in special services at Saint John.

Rev. H. E. Mullen and the church at Beals, Me., began a revival campaign Tuesday, Nov. 16th. Rev. J. W. Turpel, of Cliftondale, Mass., is evangelist, and Mrs. Burgess, of Bass River, N. S., special singer.

Rev. H. C. Archer supplied at Moncton Sunday, Nov. 14th, the pastor being ill.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge, of Fredericton, writes that he will be ready for full time service in Gospel work the first of the new year. He will be open for calls to evangelistic effort or any other Gospel work.

Rev. H. S. and Mrs. Mullen and Paul assisted Rev. G. A. Rogers in special effort at Halifax Oct. 17th-26th. There were some souls at the altar. Brother Rogers is maintaining regular Sunday services there and a weekly prayer meeting, and Brother Paul Mullen is remaining until Nov. 21st, to assist with the music.

NOTICE TO MINISTERS

Those who now hold a "Half Fare Permit" and wish it renewed for next year, should do so not later than Dec. 1st. Fill out the card at back of book and send it with $2.00 to the Canadian Passenger Association. If you do not now have a Permit and wish one for next year, write the Secretary of Alliance for a blank.

H. C. ARCHER

NOTICE TO CHURCHES

We are requesting that all churches who have deeded their property to the Alliance to please send the deed, after it is recorded, to the Secretary. We are doing this so that the deed may be placed in the Safe at Beulah for safe-keeping, and that a record may be kept of all properties which have been thus deeded to the Alliance.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Sydney Bancroft

Word has been received recently of the death of Mrs. Sydney Bancroft, of Kenmore, New York, in her 87th year. She was the eldest child of the late Aaron and Adaline Clark, of Woodstock, N. B. Mrs. Bancroft was a member of the North Head Ref. Baptist Church, where most of her married life was spent. Many of her old friends there will regret the passing of a loyal Christian worker.

In her younger days and during her residence in Woodstock, she organized a Young People's prayer meeting. Among the number who attended can be counted three ministers, two missionaries and a number who, perhaps, through the Christian influence felt in those meetings, have kept true to the Lord.

Left to mourn are: Cuthbert Clark, of Norridgewok, Me.; A. L. Clark, Inglewood, California; W. H. Clark, St. Stephen; Mrs. F. L. Mooers, St. John; Mrs. A. P. Allingham, Kenmore, N. Y.

Mrs. Margaret Webb

Mrs. Margaret Webb, 73, widow of Charles Webb, Westchester, passed away on Oct. 20, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Maberry, Camden.

Mrs. Webb, who was a charter member of the Reformed Baptist Church, Westchester, is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Etta Embree, Springhill; Mrs. Ella Maberry, Camden; and Mrs. Douglas Fraser, Baddeck, P. E. I.

and five sons: Raymond, Midgic, N. B.; Russell and Leo, Westchester; Bligh, Londonderry; and Private Ivan, with the Canadian Army at Hamilton, Ontario. A sixth son, Earl, predeceased his mother about three years ago.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday, Oct. 25th, from the home and the R. B. Church, by Lic. W. H. Mullen.

May God comfort all the sorrowing ones.

DOES A CHRISTIAN SIN?

"Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin." John 3:9.

"We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth not." 1 John 5:18.

"Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." Jas. 1:27.

We must serve God or the devil. "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."—Matt. 6:24.

No tree can bear two kinds of fruit. "Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." Matt. 7:17-18.

Must we sin in order to become better? "Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? God forbid. How shall we that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?" Romans 6:1-2.

If we sin, we are servants of sin. "Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever." John 8:34-35.

If a person does commit sin, to whom does he belong? "He that committeth sin is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning." 1 John 3:8.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9.

"But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1:7.—Selected.

WATCHING

Watching each moment,
No doubts and no fears,
Watching for Jesus,
Who soon shall appear.

Watching for Him,
Who shall come from the East,
And shall bring with Him,
Rest, deliverance and peace.

Watching so patiently,
Wondering just when—
But if we're not ready,
I wonder what then?

Dear friend, yet rejecting,
This Saviour of men,
Why not now accept Him,
And make Him your Friend?

Watching, yes watching
Each day of the year.
Watching for Jesus,
Who soon shall appear.
