

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. H. L. Robertson has resigned as pastor of the Calais and Crawford churches and is open for a call for the coming year.

Rev. H. C. Mullen has resigned from the Hartland circuit and is open for a call as the Lord leads.

Rev. F. A. Anderson is suffering from trouble with his jaw which the doctors have been unable to diagnose as yet.

Meetings at Seal Cove were delayed in beginning due to the illness of a member of the family of Rev. R. T. Sellick, the evangelist. The services were started Sunday, Feb. 21st. Lic. Wilbur Mullen is assisting with the music.

Lic. Thelma Rose is assisting in the special services at Black's Harbour.

APPRECIATION

We wish to express appreciation to Rev. H. E. Mullen and Quarterly Meeting of Dist. No. 3 in collecting renewals and new subs. for The Highway at the recent district meeting at Jonesport. Thanks also to Mr. Donald Cochrane, who sent in considerable renewal money from Marysville recently. Let pastors and people co-operate to gather in all subscription arrears and seek new names for our list. Thus will this "preacher of righteousness" continue its good work.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Abigail Rimes

Mrs. Abigail Rimes, who has been ill for some time, died at her home at Woodstock, in her 80th year. The funeral service was held Friday, January 29th, at the home, and was conducted by F. A. Anderson.

Mrs. Rimes leaves to mourn, four sons, four daughters, thirteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Interment was in the Woodstock cemetery. We extend our sympathy to those bereaved.

Mildred Fawcett

The death occurred, on her twenty-seventh birthday, Feb. 19th, of Miss Mildred Fawcett, of Moncton. Miss Fawcett was a daughter of Deacon Bamford and Mrs. Fawcett, of Killams' Mills, but had been living at Moncton for the past eight years.

The deceased was a young woman of sterling character, a faithful and devoted follower of the Lord for many years. Throughout the weeks of her illness she maintained a strong faith in God, and gave testimony to a blessed hope of the future. She was lovingly cared for by her mother, and the people with whom she made her home while in Moncton, Mr. and George Stiven, who loved and cherished her as one of their own.

The funeral service was held from Dunfield's Undertaking Parlors, Petitcodiac, on Sunday, Feb. 21st, and was conducted by the Rev. B. C. Cochrane, assisted by Revs. H. M. Kimball and Donald McLeod. Favourite hymns were sung by the choir of the Reformed Baptist Church of Moncton.

Left to mourn the passing of Sister Mildred, besides the parents, are three brothers, Arthur, of Moncton; Henry and George of Petitcodiac, and one twin sister, Mrs. Constantine, of Petitcodiac; her kind friends, Mr. and Mrs. Stiven, and an unusually large number of friends. May the comfort of the Holy Spirit be upon those who mourn.

A HOLY MINISTRY

Oh, if we only had a holy ministry, it would be far more important than an educated ministry. If the ministry were holy enough, they would do without so much education.

God forbid that I should undervalue an educated minister. Let ministers be educated as well as they can, the more the better, if they are only holy enough.

It is all a farce to suppose that a literary ministry can convert the world. Let the ministry have the spirit of prayer, let the baptism of the Holy Ghost be upon them, and they will spread the gospel. Only let Christians live as they ought, and the church would shake the world. If Christians in New York would do it, the report would soon fill every ship that leaves the port, and waft the news on every wind, till the earth was full of excitement and inquiry, and conversions would multiply like the drops of morning dew.

Suppose you were to give up your business, and devote yourselves entirely to the work of extending the gospel. The church once did so, and you know what followed. When that little band in Jerusalem gave up their business and spent their time in the work of the Lord, salvation spread like a wave.—Charles G. Finney.

To be ignorant of one's ignorance is the malady of ignorance.—A. B. Alcott.
