

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. Wilbur Mullen was guest speaker at a recent Y. P. Rally in the Nazarene Church, Oxford, N. S. Brother Mullen also supplied at Amherst Sunday, Nov. 21st.

Lic. Miriam Sanders spoke in the morning and evening services at Westchester, Nov. 21st. Sister Sanders is now at Halifax, taking the regular services at our Mission.

Rev. G. R. Symonds reports the work of the Seal Cove-Wood Island pastorate as encouraging. There were six seekers at the altar in a recent Sunday evening service at Seal Cove. Brother Symonds is also conducting regular services at Woodward's Cove on Sunday afternoons.

Rev. G. A. Rogers will supply at Amherst, beginning Sunday, Dec. 5th.

Rev. H. C. Archer supplied at Moncton, Nov. 14th and 21st, and conducted the services at Amherst Nov. 28th.

The item regarding Rev. D. W. and Mrs. Marsten appearing in the last Highway had some errors. It should have read that they and son Leroy left for Kansas, Nov. 18th.

Doubtless we will hear more of the Convention of Holiness Churches in Toronto Nov. 24th-25th, but Brother Rogers' wire indicates that it was a grand success. Praise the Lord!

DONATION

On the evening of Nov. 10th a goodly number of folk from Havelock, N. S., and surrounding communities met at our home and gave us a donation of cash, groceries and vegetables amounting to fifty dollars. An enjoyable evening was spent in conversation and singing, an excellent lunch was served, after which the people departed for their homes leaving us very grateful to God for His blessings and to His people for their generosity and kindness. Our testimony is, "Thanks be unto God which always causeth us to triumph in Christ," we praise Him for His saving and sanctifying power.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

That we may guard against any mistakes relative to new plan of ordering Sunday School supplies, we are printing a list of the schools whose orders have reached us. They are as follows: Fort Fairfield, Royalton, Hartland, Victoria Corner, Lower Brighton, Woodstock, Meductic, Marysville, Fredericton, Saint John, Grey's Mills, Head of Millstream, Moncton, Amherst, Westchester, Black's Harbour, Wood Island, Crawford, Beals, Jonesport, Sandford, Port Maitland, Havelock and Wood's Harbour. Some other churches expressed their intention to unite with this plan, but this will remind them that their order has not reached us. There is still time if action is taken at once.

The faith of the Christ gives us living joy and dying rest.

PERSONALS

Mrs. P. J. Trafton returned Nov. 11th from a four weeks visit with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Untz, of Hyde Park, Mass. While absent she and Mrs. Untz spent a week-end with Rev. N. E. Trafton at Newport, R. I. She also had the pleasure of a visit from her son, Alfred H. Trafton, of Pontiac, Mich. Mrs. Trafton visited for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Havelock Churchill, of Wellesley, and Mrs. Anna M. Barker, of Boston. She had a very enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hillman and daughter have taken up residence in Fredericton. He is head of the meat department of the T. Eaton Co. branch.

We read in the Canadian Free Methodist Herald a note from Sister Thelma Rose, who is attending Lorne Park College. She writes that the atmosphere and surroundings of the school are excellent and that she expects to have a good year.

TO VARY MAY BE DANGEROUS

A man who had travelled quite a good bit overheard an officer reprimand the pilot severely because his trained ear had detected a sudden flapping of the sail which was hardly noticeable to anyone else, but when the officer checked up on the compass he found the ship a half point off the course.

"You must be mighty hard-boiled on accurate steering," said the on-looker.

"We have to be. Half a point in many places might bring us directly on the rocks."

So it is with us in life. A little off from truthfulness, honesty, virtue and the danger is great.

THE SIN OF WORRY

Worry hurts more than work, and, as Christians, we have no right to be the victim of worry, anxious care, depression, and forebodings. Instead of complaints, let us try supplications, let us tell them to Jesus, and spread out our needs with "The presence chamber of the Almighty," where alone peace and strength abide.—George Muller.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 2 will convene at Calais, Me., Dec. 2nd-5th. Churches of the district are requested to send delegates and report by letter.

HOLINESS IN THE BIBLE

Holiness Enjoined

For I am the Lord that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy (Lev. 11:45).

That he would grant unto us, that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life (Luke 1:74-75).

Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord (Heb. 12:14).

Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God (II. Cor. 7:1).

But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy (1 Peter 1:15, 16).

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness (II Peter 3:11).

Holiness Promised

An highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness (Isaiah 35:8).

To the end he may stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness (1 Thess. 3:13).

And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it (1 Thess. 5:23-24).

Holiness Obtained

Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, which paseth by us continually (II. Kings 4:9).

Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblamably we behave ourselves among you that believe (1 Thess. 2:10).

And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ (Romans 15:29).

Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James. to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called (Jude 1).—Herald of Holiness.

OBLIGATION

By Clarence Edwin Flynn

Though foolish I may be, and blind;
And fall short in my score
Of goodness, I must still be kind
To dumb things evermore.

Whatever reasons there may be,
Or not, this will I take—
God's creatures have a claim on me
For the dear Master's sake.

The cattle shared with Him their bed
The midnight He was born.
The march of praise a donkey led
On His triumphant morn.
