MARRIED

A pleasant event took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, 233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B., Wednesday at 4 p. m., May 19th, 1943, when Lorena Augustus Carr, of Geary, Sunb. Co., N. B., and Holly W. Brown, of Carroll's Crossing, N. B., were united in marriage. Mrs. Dalton O. Brown attended the bride and Pte. Dalton O. Brown supported the groom. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties, by Rev. P. J. Trafton, of Fredericton. They will reside at Carroll's Crossing. Their friends wish them many years of happiness.

THE MAIN THING

By E. E. Shelhamer

Some things are more important than others. Let us put first things first.

1. The main thing is heart purity.
2. The main thing is not water, but fire.
3. The main thing that proves your liberality is not how much you give but how much you have left.

4. The main thing is not: Are you able to give a needed reproof? But: Can you take one well?

5. The main thing is not how well you can argue your point, but how you can cease in order to preserve peace.

6. The main thing is not how rich you appear in public, but: Do others have a hard time collecting what you owe?

7. The main thing is not simply to suppress your temper, but have the consciousness that every unholy feeling is removed.

8. The main thing is not how liberal you appear when with your equals, but: Are you close and over exacting with your inferiors?

9. The main thing is not how well a young man behaves when in company, but how kind he is to his mother and little brother at home.

10. The main thing is not how much zeal you have for your doctrine, but how much courtesy you show towards those who oppose you.

11. The main thing is not: how gracefully you can step up to a higher seat, but how well you behave when compelled to take a lower one.

12. The main thing is not how you praise your wife when down town, but: How often do you offer to wash the dishes and sweep the porch when at home?

13. The main thing is not how you can forgive others, but how you can lovingly forget, instead of remembering the little insults and inattentions of the past.

15. The main thing that occurred at Pentecost was not "tongues" or "wind," but purity. Peter declared that their hearts were purified by faith. Why then magnify outward signs instead of inward grace?

CHARACTER—REPUTATION

Character is what we are; reputation, what we seem.

Character is what we are in the dark, or among strangers.

Genius comes in solitude; character, in struggle.

Our character determines our selling-out price.

Character is the sum of the affections. Heaven cares more for what we ARE than for what we do.

"What you ARE speaks so loud I can't hear what you say."

Character is not built by spurts. It is a full-time job.

Men who move the world are men the world can't move.

Right or wrong thinking makes the right or wrong man.

Deepest love comes only with character. An upright man stands at right angles to all moral questions.—Selected.
