

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. Wilbur H. Mullen has accepted a call to the Westchester Church for the coming year. We understand that he will have a companion in labour to assist him.

Rev. F. A. Watson baptized six candidates at Marysville Sunday, June 20th, and received eight into Church membership.

The special services which Rev. G. A. Rogers has been conducting at Killam's Mills, concluded Sunday, June 27th. Brother Rogers baptized one candidate Sunday afternoon and received two into church membership Sunday night. Revs. R. T. Sellick and A. D. Cann assisted Brother Rogers during the first week of the meeting, and Rev. B. C. Cochrane was with him two nights of the last week.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Due to rationing regulations and scarcity of unrationed supplies there will be no meals or food served at Beulah Hotel, until Wednesday noon, July 7th. This will be somewhat inconvenient for those on the various committees, hotel help and others who come early, but we trust that all will co-operate by bringing sufficient food to meet their needs until the above stated time. Under existing conditions we must be prepared to sacrifice somewhat, and be thankful that the Lord has opened the way to have our Camp Meeting this year. HOTEL COMMITTEE

MARRIED

Maker-Rahnell

A quiet, but very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, North Head, N. B., when their granddaughter, Hazel Elizabeth Rahnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Petrie Rahnell, was united in marriage to Mr. James Leigh Maker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Maker, Seal Cove, N. B., on Saturday evening, June 12th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. DeLong in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bradbury.

We join with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Hankinson-Sabine

The home of J. W. and Mrs. Sabine, of Riverdale, Digby Co., N. S., was the scene of a beautiful wedding, when on the evening of June 12th, their only daughter, Bessie, became the wife of Daniel, the only son of Frederick and Mrs. Hankinson, of Weymouth, N. S.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn by Rev. L. T. Sabine, of Island Falls, Maine, an uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. P. W. Briggs, in the presence of about 125 invited guests.

The many friends extend to the happy couple congratulations and best wishes for life.

QUARTERLY MEETING

The quarterly meeting of District No. 3 convened with the church at Seal Cove June 3rd over the 6th. The blessing of God was in evidence upon every service. Ministers present were: Revs. H. S. Mullen, H. S. Wilson, H. L. Robertson, H. E. Mullen, G. R. Symonds, G. A. DeLong. The Thursday service was in charge of G. A. DeLong, who spoke from Phil. 2:15. On Friday evening, Rev. H. S. Wilson brought the message from Jude 3.

The business was held Saturday afternoon. Letters were read from each church on the district, and each letter was real encouraging. The Saturday evening service was in charge of H. E. Mullen. He brought us some great truth from I. Chron. 11:22-23.

Sunday was a great day in the Lord. From the first hymn in the love feast until the last amen in the evening service the presence of the Lord was felt. Bernard Tatton had charge of the love feast. He spoke from the text: Phil. 2-5.

The regular Sunday morning service was in charge of Rev. H. L. Robertson. Brother Robertson brought us an outstanding message from Psalm 19:13-14.

The Sunday School was at 2 p. m. and was well attended.

The afternoon service was in charge of H. S. Mullen. He spoke from Matt. 5:11. This was a good message.

The closing service of the quarterly was in charge of H. E. Mullen, who again proved himself as a man of God. He preached from Lam. 1-12. God blessed this message good, and twenty souls found their way to an altar of prayer, some to be saved and some to be sanctified. After this good altar service, the meeting was turned into a praise service which lasted until midnight. The attendance was large and the finances were easily met, and all the people returned home feeling that it was a great time in the Lord.

We are looking forward for another good quarterly in September at the North Head church.

G. A. DeLONG, Secy.

QUARTERLY MEETING DISTRICT NO. 1

The quarterly meeting of District No. 1 convened with the church at Fort Fairfield, Me., June 17-20.

The first meeting was on Thursday evening. Rev. S. G. Hilyard was the speaker. Friday evening Rev. P. J. Trafton was the speaker.

At 2 p. m. Saturday the regular business meeting was held. Rev. S. G. Hilyard, chairman. Meeting opened with a hymn followed by prayer by Brother Moses Hilman. Then the reading of the minutes of the last meeting.

Roll call found the following ministers present: Rev. P. J. Trafton, Rev. H. S. Dow, Rev. S. G. Hilyard and Rev. H. M. Kimball.

It was then moved and carried that a vote of welcome be extended to Rev. H. M. Kimball upon his return to District No. 1.

Roll call of delegates found present:

Fort Fairfield, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ames; Hartland, Moses Hilman; and Perth, Mrs. Ida McCrea and Mrs. Lester Todd.

Election of officers was as follows:

President, Rev. H. S. Dow; vice president, Rev. S. G. Hilyard; secretary, Mrs. Lester Todd; treasurer, Mrs. Otis Ames; Highway Agent, Rev. P. J. Trafton.

Church reports were then read. There were six written and one verbal in all.

A vote of thanks was given the church at Fort Fairfield for entertaining the quarterly.

On motion it was carried that Rev. H. S. Dow and Rev. S. G. Hilyard arrange for the next quarterly meeting as soon as possible.

A motion was carried that the Quarterly Meeting commend Rev. S. G. Hilyard for his good and faithful work in building a new church at Perth, N. B.

The meeting was adjourned.

Saturday evening the meeting was in charge of Rev. H. M. Kimball who brought the message from Matt. 5:13.

On Sunday morning Lic. Burrell Kimball led the love feast and at 10 a. m. P. J. Trafton brought the message from Romans 6:6-7.

At 2 p. m. Rev. S. G. Hilyard spoke from Jonah 1-6, and the closing service at 7 p. m. was in charge of Rev. P. J. Trafton, who spoke from Titus 2:12-13-14.

The church reports showed the blessing of God was with the church and people and each was looking forward to better times in the Lord.

The attendance was fair and a good spirit was manifest in all the services. The messages were helpful and a blessing to all present.

MRS. LESTER TODD (Sec.)

TOLERATION

For many years, "toleration" was the watchword of the modernists. They denounced the intolerant on any and all occasions. Now that they are in the saddle, they swing to the opposite extreme. When in all history has any company revealed a more intolerant spirit than that which is shown in their recent threat of boycotting those colleges and universities that dare stand for soundness of teaching or even sanity in morals?—The Christian Fundamentalist.
