

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. H. M. Kimball reports the work of the Royaltown circuit as very encouraging.

Mrs. J. A. Owens supplied the pulpit at Blacks Harbour Sunday, Oct. 17th, and Deverne Mullen preached there morning and evening of the following Sunday.

Rev. H. S. Wilson and our Church at Jonesport, Me., will engage in revival effort beginning Nov. 7th. Rev. B. D. Price will be the evangelist.

Special dedicatory services were held at Moncton Sunday, Oct. 17th, the new church organ being dedicated. Brother Deverne Mullen was soloist and brought Spirit-owned messages in song.

This is the time of year when many of our churches engage in revival effort. Meetings are now in progress in some places, and others are scheduled to begin very soon. Let us pray for a denomination-wide revival!

SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE

A final word about the new plan we are adopting relative to supplies for our Sunday Schools. Pastors and Sunday school superintendents are requested to have the forms filled out for the first quarter's supplies for the New Year as soon as possible. We want to get the orders to the publishing house by Nov. 15th. Only orders which are sent in this way will be eligible for discount. Send no money. A statement will be sent with your order. We have heard from the majority of our schools but a few have not responded yet. May we hear from you?

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

On Thanksgiving night, a goodly number of our friends and neighbors gathered in the church for a time of praise and thanksgiving to God. The people brought their gifts with them, piling the front of the church with a generous supply of vegetables and groceries. Donations also included a cash offering.

Part of the service was spent in song, prayer and testimony, at which time the blessing of God was very apparent. Truly we had much to thank Him for.

We do feel very grateful to these people who are standing by us so nobly. God is blessing our work here, and our faith is strong that He will send us a revival.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—

Mrs. George W. Justason

The death of Mrs. George Justason, age 81 years, occurred at the home of her son, Frank C. Justason, of Black's Harbour, Thursday, Oct. 7th, after an illness of about two months. Surviving are five sons, Warren, John, Frank, Joshua and George, all of Black's Harbour; four daughters, Mrs. Robert Moses, Mrs. Harry Moses and Mrs. John Walsh, of Black's Harbour; and Mrs. James Lowe, of St. John.

The funeral was held from the home to the Reformed Baptist Church Saturday, Oct. 9th, and was conducted by Rev. H. S. Mullen, assisted by Rev. Lorne K. Baker.

To the sorrowing we extend sincere sympathy.

THEIR LAST SERMON

One Saturday a preacher was invited to speak to the prisoners in a penitentiary the next day. On that Saturday evening, when talking with the warden, he noticed that two chairs in the audience room were draped in black, and upon inquiring regarding it, the warden said, "Those two chairs are draped for death. Your sermon will be the last they will ever hear." The person writing about the incident added, "You can realize that Browning and Emerson figured very little in the sermon that was delivered on that occasion. There are chairs in most audiences invisibly draped for death."

Oh, the responsibility of giving out the Word of Life both by our preaching and our living!—Selected.

TWO GREAT PREACHERS ON TWO GREAT THEMES

Said D. L. Moody

I was twenty years old before I ever heard a sermon on regeneration. I was always told to be good but you might as well tell a black man to be white as to tell him to be good without telling him how. You might tell a slave to be free, but that would not make him free but He frees us.

We are a bad lot, the whole of us, by nature. It is astonishing how the devil blinds us and makes us think we are so naturally good. Don't talk to me about people being naturally good and angelic. We are naturally bad, the whole of us. The first man born of a woman was a murderer. Sin leaped into the world full grown, and the whole race has been bad all the way down.

I have heard of reform, reform, until I am tired and sick of the whole thing. It is regeneration by the power of the Holy Ghost that we need.

To His Precachers, John Wesley said:

Earnestly aspire after a full deliverance from all sin, and a renewal in the whole image of God, and God will prosper you in all your labor. As soon as any (penitents) find peace, exhort them to go on to perfection.

Preach full salvation now receivable by faith. This is the word which the devil particularly hates, and stirs up his children against; but it is the word which God will always bless.

Do not neglect strongly and explicitly to urge believers to go on to perfection. Preach full sanctification. Preach it definitely. Preach it explicitly. Preach it constantly. Preach it whenever you have an opportunity. Insist on it everywhere. All our preachers should preach it, should make it a point of preaching it constantly, strongly and explicitly. Explicitly assert and prove that it may be received now by simple faith. If others grow weary and say but little about it, do you supply their lack of service. Speak and spare not. Let not regard for any man induce you to betray the truth of God.—Selected.

HIS HOLINESS

is no guile." Psalms 32:2. This is the standard of true evangelical perfection, and is ours when the heart is cleansed from all guile of indwelling sin and recreated in the image of God in righteousness and true holiness. Glory to God for such possibilities for God's redeemed children through grace.

His holiness makes Him the proper object of worship. No being, however great or wise, could ever become the object of the adoration and worship of man if in that being there could be found any moral imperfection or blemish whatsoever. It is before an absolutely perfect God that man can bow and yield himself in total self devotion. On the other hand it takes the grace of entire cleansing and of an imparted righteousness to fit man for this highest exercise in a fully acceptable manner. We are called upon to "worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness."—The Christian Witness.
