

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa 126-6.

Rev. E. S. Hammond, who has been pastor of the Nazarene Church at Springhill, N. S., during the last year, writes that he has resigned the pastorate there and will be open for evangelistic work after April 1st. His address is Box 376, Springhill, N. S.

We regret to hear that Rev. H. L. Robertson is ill and in hospital. Brother Robertson underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis recently and is now improving.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop and the church at Port Maitland, N. S., have been engaged in revival effort with Rev. W. W. Tink as evangelist.

Rev. G. A. DeLong and the North Head Church began a revival campaign Sunday, Feb. 13th, with Rev. Mabel Manning as evangelist.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane will conduct morning devotions over radio station CKCW, Moncton, Feb. 22nd-25th inclusive, 8.45 a. m.-9.00 a. m.

Rev. B. D. Price writes that he is open for a call to pastoral service for the coming church year.

Lic. Joseph Moses writes that he is at home and ready for service as the Lord leads.

The Editor wishes to express sincere thanks to pastors who are co-operating in gathering in Highway arrears, and enlisting new subscribers. The response is most gratifying. Let's boost The Highway!

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE

The November Missionary meeting held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Woodstock, marked the 55th anniversary of the organization of the first missionary society of the denomination. After the business session, a short programme was carried out. This was followed by a short talk by the late Mrs. S. A. Baker, who had been present at that first meeting. Mrs. Simon McLeod, now living in California, was the first president, and the late Mrs. A. L. Bubar, of Saint John, was secretary.

Other churches of the Denomination organized missionary societies which have been the means of spreading the gospel in lands far away, and also being a quickening influence in the home work.

NOTICE

Applications for work at Beulah Camp have been coming in. Those wishing to serve as waitresses write Rev. H. E. Mullen, Beals, Maine; dishwipers, Rev. H. S. Wilson, Jonesport, Maine. All applicants are requested to enclose return postage.

LETTER

Rev. B. C. Cochrane, Moncton, N. B.:

Dear Friend and Brother: Your kind letter of recent date received and much appreciated. I do thank you from my heart for your very kind offer to send me The Highway for a year. Your good Christian letter and the above announcement thrilled my heart with joy, and I say, God bless you!

I received the first copy yesterday, the 1st of February. From that also I received much inspiration and blessing, which I was glad to share with others. And the thought of getting so splendid a paper as The Highway for a whole year! I know I shall enjoy, and I trust, profit from it through the year.

God bless you all! With warmest thanks!

Yours in Him

The above letter is typical of those received from persons receiving The Highway through the kindness of contributors to the Supplementary Fund. We reproduce it here for the encouragement of those who support this fund, believing it will bring joy of heart to those who have given.—Editor.

MARRIED

Burns-DeMerchant

On Jan. 1st, Walter Burns and Miss Pearl DeMerchant, of Fort Fairfield, were united in marriage in Andover by Rev. S. G. Hilyard.

A TRIBUTE IN MEMORY OF
MRS. S. A. BAKER

Saint John, N. B.,
Jan. 31st, 1944

Dear Editor:

I have not previously addressed a letter to The King's Highway, but the death of Mrs. S. A. Baker is felt so keenly by me that I desire to say just a word or two. Nothing that I can say would add to the worthy tributes already paid, but coming from one who is a kind of "outside pillar" of the Alliance, it may have some special interest.

The Bakers and I were close neighbours at Beulah Camp and in that way I came to know Sister Baker very intimately, and the more intimate my acquaintance became, the more it grew in esteem and affection. There was such a humility displayed by our good sister that she always left the impression by her presence and testimony that she looked upon herself as being one of the most unworthy of Christians; but we all knew that none was so worthy to be called a follower of Christ and none more worthy of being canonized as a true saint. There must have been a loud sound of trumpets when she passed through the gates of the Eternal City and she must be in the front ranks of the armies of heaven. It is our great privilege to share her "precious faith."

Sincerely

H. E. THOMAS

A TRIBUTE

In the passing of Mrs. S. A. Baker, our denomination has lost one of its oldest members, an earnest, sincere and devoted worker, one deeply interested in all the enterprises of our work. She was very closely connected with our Foreign Missionary Society, and with the work being carried on in Africa; she had been the first vice-president for a great many years and maintained a deep interest in the work up to the last. We will miss her advice and counsel in connection with the work. My first recollection of her was when she and her husband, the late Rev. S. A. Baker, came to live at Meductic, he was acting as a local preacher at that time. I was a boy some fourteen years of age. She and my mother were intimate friends and they had many happy seasons together. We reverence the memory of these godly women, who stood so nobly by the cause of holiness, when the fight was hard. God is not unmindful of their courage and devotion to the cause that was and is so near to His great heart. Many sorrows entered into her life, but none of these daunted her courage, nor weakened her faith in God, it held firm, anchored in the rock of ages. Her last years were spent in the home of Mrs. C. P. Phillips, of Woodstock, N. B., who cared for her tenderly and gave her the very best attention up to the last. Sister Baker will be missed by a great host of friends, among them our missionaries on the foreign field, with whom she kept in touch because of her deep interest in the work. May her mantle fall on others who will display the same heart concern in the work of holiness and continue faithful as she did.

Yours for true holiness,

P. J. TRAFTON
