

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge is assisting Rev. A. D. Cann in special services at Lower Brighton. The campaign began Sunday, Dec. 3rd.

The revival campaign at Saint John, with Rev. H. R. Whiting as evangelist, closed Sunday, Dec. 3rd. The pastor, Rev. G. A. DeLong, reports a fruitful meeting, a number having been saved and sanctified.

The work at Moncton is encouraging. Quite a number of seekers for pardon and purity have been at the altar of late and others have confessed heart hunger. Our morning service of Sunday, Dec. 31st, will be broadcast over CKCW.

Lics. Helen and Alice Sterritt have moved to Woodstock, N. B. Their address at present and for the winter is Box 403, Woodstock, N. B.

We wish to thank all those who co-operated in our November new subscribers effort. We have had an encouraging increase in our mailing list.

KILLED IN ACTION

We regret to report that Private Archie MacCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacCallum, of Moncton, N. B., was killed in action on the western front early this month.

JAMES & MERLE McISAAC
FREDERICK & PHILIP McISAAC

MARRIED

"What God hath joined together, let not man but asunder."

Gilbey-Mitchell

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, 233 Aberdeen St., Fredericton, N. B., Wednesday, Nov. 29th, at 8 o'clock p. m., Helen Carmen Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, of North Devon, N. B., was united in marriage to Harley LeRoy Gilbey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley O. Gilbey, of Fredericton, N. B. Rev. P. J. Trafton was the officiating minister.

Elliott-Estey

Elva Marguerite Estey, of Knoxford, N. B., was united in marriage to Gerald Edward Elliott, of Harvey Station, N. B., Nov. 18th, at Hartland, N. B. Rev. A. D. Cann performed the ceremony.

Kelley-Green

The Reformed Baptist church at Seal Cove was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Ruth Green, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Green, was united in marriage to L/Stk Albert Edward Kelley, Saint John, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Owens in the absence of the pastor.

The Editor and Associate Editor join in Christmas Greetings to all The Highway family.

PERSONALS

Recently the editor received a letter from Miss Anna McLeod, daughter of the oldest subscriber on our Highway list, Mrs. Diadama McLeod, Long Beach, California. Sister McLeod celebrated her one hundredth birthday last March and is still well and active. Her daughter writes: "Mother enjoys having the paper (Highway) read to her. She is enjoying very good health at present, and spends much time reading the Bible."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A memorial service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Fredericton, N. B., Sunday, Dec. 3rd, at 3 o'clock p. m., to the memory of Pte. Albert John Leek, eldest son of Pte. Earle Leek and Mrs. Mary Leek, of North Devon, N. B. He was 17 years of age. He was killed in action in Belgium on Oct. 20th of this year. He signed up with the 90th Anti-Tank Battery but later transferred to an Infantry Battery. He leaves to mourn his sudden passing, besides his parents, three brothers and four sisters and a large circle of other relatives and friends. The church was filled with relatives and friends. Officers and men to the number of 50 or more, from Dist. Depot 7, attended in a body. The pulpit and the Honor Roll were draped, and flowers were placed on the Communion Table. The service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. P. J. Trafton, assisted by Rev. F. A. Watson, of Marysville, and Capt. the Rev. W. E. Aitken, Chaplain at the Depot. A quartette composed of Rev. F. A. Watson, Olin Hillman, Mrs. P. J. Trafton and Miss Christina Crawford sang Jesus Lover of My Soul and Nearer My God to Thee. Rev. Mr. Trafton based his remarks on the words found in St. John, chapter 15, verse 13. "Greater love hath no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends." P. E. Peterson and Willard Saunders were ushers. Miss Lois Goodspeed presided at the organ. After the benediction and National Anthem, Last Post and Reveille were sounded by Bugler Fred Morris. It was a fitting service of honor for the departed and sympathy for the bereaved.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

The death of Miss Ella Maude McCarthy, of Saint John, occurred on Monday morning, November 13th, after an illness of eight months. Her passing, however, was sudden and came as a shock to her many friends.

The only daughter of the late Dennis Florence and Mary vonVebber (deHoughton) McCarthy, she was born in Devonshire, England, sixty-six years ago, and, at an early age, was brought by her parents to Halifax, N. S., where she resided for thirty-three years. Miss McCarthy had made her home in Saint John since 1911, when she became a member of Leinster Street (now Central) Baptist Church, but later joined the Reformed Baptist Church. She was greatly interested in all the church activities and was a staunch lover of Holiness. She served the church faithfully as treasurer for the past seventeen years.

Miss McCarthy leaves to mourn, Miss C. Grace B. Lawlor, of Saint John, who made her home with her since a child; also several cousins.

The funeral service was held from Brenan's

Funeral Home with her pastor, Rev. G. A. DeLong, officiating. He was assisted by the Rev. J. Stuart Wetmore, rector of St. James (Anglican) Church. DeVerne Mullen sang "The Pearly-White City," the favorite hymn of the deceased. The funeral was largely attended and many floral tributes were received. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery, with Rev. G. A. DeLong officiating at the grave.

Mr. George Small, aged 84 years, passed from this life, Nov. 16th, after several months illness. He was a life-long resident of Grand Manan.

The funeral was held from his late home Saturday, November the 18th, conducted by Rev. J. A. Owens. A mixed quartette sang two selections.

He leaves to mourn, one brother, Charles, who is also very sick, and one sister, Mrs. Anne Price, who cared for him during his illness.

May God sustain the bereaved ones.

The Reformed Baptist Church at North Head, N. B., as well as the entire community, has suffered a great loss in the sudden passing of our dear brother, Edwin Redmond, aged 74 years. He had been in failing health for some years, yet he kept active. He attended prayer meeting on Tuesday evening, Oct. 31st, and was in his usual place, taking part in prayer and testimony. He was stricken with a heart attack on his way to his place of business the following morning, and died in the hospital twenty minutes later.

He was a devoted follower of Christ, having been a member of the R. B. Church for about forty years, and held the office of deacon for eight years.

The funeral service was held in the church on Friday, Nov. 3rd. A large crowd gathered to pay their last respects to a man who was loved by saint and sinner alike.

His pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. G. R. Symonds. The text used was Rev. 14-13. The church choir sang three selections.

Two sisters mourn his passing, Miss Grace Redmond and Mrs. Elinor Estle, both of Wakefield, Mass. Interment was made in North Head cemetery.

"Truly he was a prince in Israel." May his mantle fall on another.

SPURGEON AND THE BIBLE

After preaching the Gospel for forty years, and after printing the sermons I have preached more than six and thirty years, reaching now to the number of 22,000, in weekly succession, I am fairly entitled to speak about the fulness and the richness of the Bible as a preacher's book. Brethren, it is inexhaustible. No question about freshness will arise if we keep close to the text of the sacred volume. There can be no difficulty about finding themes totally distinct from those we have handled before; the variety is as infinite as the fulness. A long life will suffice to skirt only the shores of this great continent of light. In the forty years of my ministry I have only touched the hem of the garment of divine truth; but what virtue has flowed out of it. The Word is like its Author—infinite, immeasurable, without end. If you were ordained to be a preacher through eternity, you would have before you a theme equal to everlasting demands.—C. H. Spurgeon.
