

little woman. She can barely read, but she is saved and she loves Jesus, like Mary of old. She too loves to listen with rapt attention to the words of life. Yes, Christian sisters, you have many fellow Christians out here who love the Lord no less than you do. I am sure you will pray for this poor widow as well as for the many others, and finally for those who have not yet come out of the darkness of the night of sin.

Greetings to you from this land of sunshine and shadow.

Yours happy in Him,

C. D. M. SANDERS

CORRESPONDENCE

Head of Millstream, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

Just a few lines from this part of the Lord's vineyard. We are daily thanking the Lord for His goodness and mercy which He has shown to the people of this place, especially this last year. We as a church can truly say, "God answers prayer." Indeed He has done abundantly above what we could ask or think. Praise His name!

The Lord surely came upon us at the Quarterly Meeting, especially Saturday night and Sunday, and many said the oldtime power and glory was upon us. Brother H. S. Mullen gave us some wonderful messages which God honored. We certainly enjoyed the help of the brethren in the services all through, and we were sorry that some of them had to leave on Saturday for their home services on Sunday. The special singing was owned of God. We also thank the Lord for the privilege of having the Mullen quartette with us. They surely did their part well. May the Lord continue to bless them in the coming days.

Our hearts go up with praise to God for the new ones who knelt at the altar of prayer, at this time, and are rejoicing in the Lord today. "And the end is not yet, praise the Lord." We are still looking for more victory in His name. We had special meetings beginning at the end of the Quarter, with Brother McGeorge as the evangelist. He was with us two weeks and we believe we had the right man for this time. His ministry was indeed blest among us. Our prayer is that God will send him back to us.

The good people at Millstream are all well at this time. The church and parsonage are looking very nice in fresh coats of paints. The people are to be commended for the good work done on that line this year, and we know God is pleased with these efforts done in His name.

Please continue to pray for the work in this place.

Yours in His service,

HELEN M. STERRITT

Woodstock, N. B.

Dear Highway Readers:

My testimony is, I am still looking up, and find that God is a very present help in trouble. I can say Amen to Mrs. Hollis Kimball's poem. I once heard an old man say that if he just got inside of heaven he would be happy. I would like a little more than that: I would like to hear Jesus say: "Welcome home."

We want to send our sympathy to Mrs. Kimball and the others of the family.

I would also like to say I think Julia E.

church folk ought to dress different than the world.

Yours in Christ,

MRS. MANNING MULLEN

North Head, N. B.

Just a few lines from this corner of the Vineyard. We have enjoyed our summer here on Grand Manan more than we can express. The weather has been ideal, with the exception of one or two electrical storms. As a family we are very happy in our new home, a dear little white and green cottage, surrounded by lovely trees, just across the road from the church, and overlooking the harbor. The children have described it as being next thing to Beulah Camp. We find the people most kind and generous. The church services are well attended and a good spirit of co-operation prevails. We had a Sunday School Rally Oct. 8th, with a special "Thanksgiving Program." It was a rainy day, but quite a number of visitors came, and we trust will keep coming. Our plan is to have something special in the Sunday School every Sunday during October.

Glad to hear of the good Y. P. Rally at Sandford and trust the Rally at St. John was as great a success.

We pray that all our churches may be visited with a special outpouring of the Spirit during these fall and winter months.

Yours in Him,

J. A. and MRS. OWENS

Black's Harbor, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

A brief report from this part of God's vineyard might be in order at this time.

We are enjoying our work here, and have found some of God's faithful people here at this place.

One evening a few weeks ago we were out calling, and on our return found the house crowded with people. We enjoyed a good social time together. The ladies served a fine lunch, and Deacon Wilcox on behalf of those present, presented us with a fine gift of money. We did and do appreciate their kindness.

On such occasions we feel unable to express the deep gratitude we feel, but pray that God may help us to be worthy of their kindness.

God is blessing in our services, and we are praying for a great outpouring of His spirit during our special meetings, beginning Oct. 25th. Please join us in prayer for the salvation of many souls during the special effort.

H. S. and MRS. WILSON

Port Maitland, N. S.

Dear Highway Friends:

My soul rejoices in the Lord. We are pressing onward and upward. The way grows brighter and His blessings are richer each succeeding year.

This promises to be the best year in many ways since our coming on this field. Already we have had some victories resulting in the salvation of souls, while others have united with the church. We are believing for fruitful services throughout the year. The attendance is holding good and the people are co-operative. We have not found a more generous people anywhere than these. Our three congregations are loyal in the support of the work. Times are good and the Lord's work

Recently, we were remembered by the people of Sandford nad Port Maitland with a most generous donation. This was a kindness indeed, and we desire to be worthy of the same.

We are beginning special services at Sandford the first Sunday in November. Rev. Hallett Mullen will be with us for several Sundays. Please remember to pray that God's whole will may be done.

We greatly enjoyed the last issue of The Highway. It was a real revival issue. The articles were splendid. They should inspire us to keep everlastingly at it. The days are upon us when great emphasis is placed upon other things. We must carry in our hearts the conviction that God's work never can be secondary. If God is unworthy of first place, He is unworthy of any place. Let us keep our lines clear, our issues straight-forward, and clean-cut. "God lives, and He commands, Sail On! Sail On!"

Yours in Him,

F. A. DUNLOP

THE SEASONS OF LIFE

Rev. Ida M. Kierstead

It seems such a short time ago that we were looking forward to Springtime and Summer with glad anticipations and now—the summer is past, a season which we enjoyed to the full.

The seasons of the year may be compared to the periods of life: Childhood as springtime, when all are gay and happy and care-free, with no responsibilities; even the changing moods are like the changing weather with its sunshine and showers.

The summer time of life found us more mature and settled as to our life's work, even our faith became stronger in the Lord.

The warmth and beauty of nature all around us gave us greater pleasure as we came in contact with others of like faith,—so we travelled the road together, happy in His love, and trust that we accomplished something for the Master, in winning souls for Him.

This season hurried along quickly until we reached our Autumn of life, then we were more determined to press onward, The Autumn of nature all about was an inspiration, giving pleasure to many weary pilgrims by the magnificent colors of green, russet and gold—surely a thing of beauty.

How we have been thrilled by it all! Yet these scenes, however beautiful, could not last forever. We awoke one day to feel the chilly winds of winter time, which had stolen upon us unawares; sunny days became more rare, while the physical strength lessened. No one likes the winter time of life I think, for as the days become shorter, we realize that we are not young any more even though we do retain the upward look, and have a settled peace in our souls.

How wonderful is the knowledge that even down to old age, our Father's tender care is still over us, and shall be until "the last feeble step has been taken," "and the gates of the City appears." Praise the Lord!

"Faith and love are like a pair of compasses: faith, like one point, fastens on Christ as the centre; and love, like the other, goes the round in all the works of holiness and right-

p. 121

es that ppiness
stitution
God's
e It is
y to do

ieve in
th her
i real te who
a they vship
ome?

ould at
n their
o have erested
e same
n one's

In the
nstitu-
ish He stitution
forces since whose

est, the es have
which,
es and
stood

the high-
l itces
reason
per reg God?
ork of
be ye

ess for velopfess a
is help
ifer
ser-
to

ar
d rm w
Jesus
rts of

ts of ctices
iving
ng to ment
t.

d "One
the
One
hich
rust,