

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.—Psa 126-6.

Lic. Hubert McGeorge has accepted a call to the Killams Mills-Salem churches for the coming year. Brother McGeorge and the Killams Mills church engaged in special services April 16th-25th. Commandant and Mrs. Hargroves, of Fredericton, were the workers. The pastor reports a successful meeting with large attendance, spirit-owned preaching, and definite victory.

Rev. G. A. Rogers has been visiting Mrs. Rogers at her father's home in Saugus, Mass. Rev. H. C. Archer is supplying at Amherst during Brother Rogers' absence.

Regarding our Halifax work, one of our ministers writes as follows: "I am willing to be one of ten preachers who will pledge one hundred dollars towards a church building at Halifax. I am sure that if we preachers get under the load then a good many laymen will come forward to equal our giving." Are there other ministers who feel this way? Where are the nine? And are there laymen ready to "come forward" if the ministers take up this challenge? Let us hear from you.

Dedicatory services are to be held in the new church at Perth May 7th at 2.00 p. m. and 7.30 p. m. Atlantic Standard Time.

We have been requested to print the address of our Halifax Mission again. It is 77 Wndsor street, at the corner of Cunard.

Those who have contributed to this Fund will be pleased to learn that we have secured a building site in Halifax. It is a large corner lot in the northwest residential section of the city, and described by one business man there as the finest piece of ground available in Halifax. This transaction was made possible through the generosity of some of our own people, who have given a large loan, and the faithful support of those who have been giving through this Fund. We are now in possession of a place to build a church in this great and needy city by the sea, so let us give generously to clear payment of the price of the lot and provide funds for building operations.

MARRIED

"What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

Woodman-Corey

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Saint John, N. B., on April 22nd, Rev. J. A. Owens united in marriage St/Sgt. James F. Woodman and Miss Myrtle L. Corey.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which due in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Baby Wilkins

On April the 22nd, death claimed the six months old infant girl of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wilkins, of Ketepec, N. B. The little one was sick but two or three days when pneumonia developed. The sudden death was a great shock to the sorrowing parents. One brother and one sister also survive.

Rev. J. A. Owens had charge of the funeral service held at Brennan's funeral home Monday, April 24th, and spoke comforting words from 2 Sam. 15:23. Mrs. Owens sang two selections. May God comfort the bereaved ones.

Mrs. Georgia Champier

Mrs. Georgia Champier, aged 87 years, recently passed from this life to be with Jesus, whom she loved and served, after a short illness. She suffered a stroke two days previous to her passing. She was tenderly cared for by her daughter, Miss Lydia Champier, R. N., at home; one other daughter, Mrs. Emery Saunders, of Norton, N. B., and two brothers, Mr. W. J. Cosman, of Grey's Mills, and Mr. Peter L. Cosman, of Newcastle, survive her.

The funeral service was held on Easter Sunday from her late home to the Kingston Baptist Church and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Owens. Mr. DeVerne Mullen was soloist. Interment was made in Kingston cemetery.

PRAYER THAT PREVAILS

Seek entirely to depend on God for everything. Put yourself and your work into His hands. When thinking of any new undertaking, ask, "Is this agreeable to the mind of God? Is it for His glory?" If it is not for His glory, it is not for your good, and you must have nothing to do with it. Mind that! Having settled that a certain course is for the glory of God, begin it in His name, and continue it to the end. Undertake it in prayer and faith, and never give up! Pray, pray, pray! Do not regard iniquity in your heart. If you do, the Lord will not hear you. Keep that before you always. Then trust in God. Depend only on God. Wait on Him. Believe on Him. Expect great things from Him. Faint not if the blessing tarries. Pray, pray, pray! And, above all, rely only on the merits of our ever-adorable Lord and Saviour, that, according to His infinite merits, and not your own, the prayers you offer and the work you do will be accepted.—George Muller.

We are children of the converts of foreign missionaries; and fairness means that I must do to others as men once did to me.—Maltbie D. Babcock.
