PASTOR AND WIFE GIVEN FAREWELL

A farewell party, honoring Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Owens and family, was held recently at the home of S. H. Bradley, Grey's Mills, N. B.

A goodly representation of the neighbors from the community were present and during the evening voiced their appreciation to the pastor and his wife for their faithful and untiring ministry by presenting them with a gift of money.

Vocal numbers were given by members of the Owen family; a hymn sing and Bible quiz were also enjoyed.

Rev. G. A. Rogers was also present on this occasion.

God's trials nobly borne, in obedience to His righteous will, are the paths to victorious triumph.—S. A. Brooke.

PERSONALS

We were glad to meet at Beulah some of our good people who have moved away to areas where we have no churches. Among them were Brother and Sister A. C. Willey and daughter, Frances; Misses Reta and Hazel Briggs; Brother Chester Sabeau; Azelia Cottrell; Brother and Sister Ambrose Wiley and family; Phyllis Mullen; Brother Fred Blaney and others. It was good to renew acquaintance with these friends in Christ and hear their testimonies again.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

them of the spirit of sanctity which rightly belongs to the Lord's Day is that of the secular and worldly type of radio programs. Many people who would give no consideration to attending a program of this nature on the Sabbath Day, and would strongly protest such forms of public entertainment in their community on Sunday, will give audience in their homes to these commercially sponsored broadcasts. Let us watch the little foxes that spoil the vines.

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." In the midst of a generation that is wilfully rejecting this divine command, let us earnestly labor toward its preservation. We may often stand with the minority and our zealous efforts may seem to have little influence in stemming the world-ward tide, but for God and righteousness let us fight the good fight.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. C. COCHRANE,
MRS. F. A. ANDERSON

TO THE BACKSLIDER

Yours is a peculiar case for you have already come to Jesus, and have wandered from Him. You have been near, but now you are afar off.

Your sin is very great; you have experienced something of Christ's love, yet you have forsaken Him and crucified the Son of God afresh. Your backsliding began perhaps in secret by neglecting prayer and God's Word. Perhaps you have fallen into open sin, and brought disgrace on the name of Christian. You have lost opportunities of doing good, which you might have improved to the help of others, yet Jesus, the kind Shepherd, is waiting to welcome you back. God says He will heal you and love you freely, for He is merciful and waiting to receive you again; so come to the Saviour again while He gives you time and strength.

Time is short, eternity is long. Where will you spend it? M. R. C.

Selfishness is that detestable vice which no one will forgive in others, and no one is without in himself.—Henry Ward Beecher.
