CALLING ALL YOUNG PEOPLE!

We stood one evening in the dispatching room of a large city police station. A police captain was sitting in front of a microphone. Suddenly the telephone rang. The captain listened into the receiver a moment, then, with a swift glance up at his wall map, which told the position of each patrol car, spoke into the microphone:

"Calling car number three, car number three." In a few seconds a clear voice sounded from a speaker:

"Car three standing by."

"Go to Twenty-nine West Street," continued the captain. "Investigate prowler in back yard. Station 2XVW, 9.02 p. m."

From His great control room in the skies, God is sending forth this arresting message: "Calling all young people, calling all young people . . . The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few . . . who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?"

Never before has there been such a demand for Christian workers, both on the home front and abroad. The fields are NOW ripe with grain ready to be gathered in, but where, where are the reapers? God has hung from the gates of Heaven this sign: "Christian young people wanted," but oh, so pitifully few are receiving God's call with Isaiah's "Here am I; send me."

Last year at Beulah over one hundred and fifty young people crowded the middle row of the tabernacle during our Young People's Convention. Many scores of our other young people were home, or in the service of their country. Out of this fine group are there not a few Joshuas, a Moses, an Isaiah, or a Paul, who are ready to answer: "Standing by, ready for instructions?" Less than three days ago we heard the Chairman of the Home Mission Board say: "Money is not the problem now. What we need is MEN! WORKERS!"

Young People, the challenge is out. God needs you. The Mission field needs you. The home work needs you. Who will answer the call?

THE PIONEER WAY

They hewed a home where forests pressed
From eye to far horizon's rim;
Lord, keep our courage high—let not
Its fearlessness grow dim.

They raised an altar to a faith
That glorified their laboring;
Lord, grant us guided toil—may it
A benediction bring.

They handed down a heritage
By faith and perseverance won;
Lord, help us carry forward tasks
So splendidly begun.

They are the pioneers gone on;
We are the pioneers today;
Forbid that we forget to walk
The pioneering way.—Selected.

MEASURE YOUR NEIGHBOR

One day a mover's wagon came past Farmer Jones' gate. Farmer Jones was friendly toward everybody, so he spoke to the movers and asked where they were going. "We are moving from Johnstown to Jamestown," they told him. "Can you tell us what kind of neighbors we shall find in Jamestown?" Farmer Jones thought a moment. Then he asked, "What kind of neighbors did you find in Johnstown?" "The very worst kind," they said, "Our neighbors were gossipy and unkind and indifferent. We were glad to move away." "You will find the same kind of neighbors, exactly the same," he told them.

The next day another mover's wagon came past Farmer Jones' gate. He greeted them in a friendly way and asked them where they were going. "We are moving from Johnstown to Jamestown," they told him. "Can you tell us what kind of neighbors we shall find there?" "What kind of neighbors did you find in Johnstown?" he asked. "The very best," they told him. "Our neighbors were kind, considerate, and very nice indeed. It almost broke our hearts to move away." "You will find the same kind, exactly the same in Johnstown," Farmer Jones told them.

WHAT IS WORLDLINESS?

The "world" is not a thing but an atmosphere; and worldliness is not an act—it is an attitude. Oliver Cromwell's little daughter had read the Scripture that "If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him." Not able to grasp the thought, she came to her father musing, "The world . . . the world . . . Father, what is the world?"

Whereupon Cromwell, with rare insight, replied, the world is anything that cooeth thine affection toward Christ." It could not be better said than that.—Unknown.

CHRIST'S LOVE FOR SINNERS

Humility is the Christian's loveliest virtue and his crowning grace. Once it was a stigma; today it is a compliment. Christ took the hateful word and made it honorable. Dr. Jowett tells a story of Joseph Parker.

"Why did Jesus choose Judas?" Dr. Parker was once asked. "I do not know," replied the doctor, "but I have a harder question: why did He choose me?"—Christian Endeavor World.

WHO AM I?

By Bess Samuel Ayres

I lead the way to happiness;
I turn dark night to day.
When Fear beholds my shining face
He turns and slinks away.
I stayed with Jesus on the cross;
I'll help you to the end;
I shield the tempted, hold the weak,
For I am FAITH, your friend.

"I WILL GUIDE THEE"

Can you read the following Scriptures and not believe in the ability of God to guide His children?

"The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way." Psalm 25:9.

"I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye." Psalm 32:8.

"And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not." Isaiah 58:11.

"Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth." John 16:13.

"In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:6.

HOW TO STUDY SCRIPTURE

The study of Holy Scripture must be systematic. Aim rather at securing perfect regularity than at covering a large field. Fix your reading at half the amount which your fresh zeal suggests. Few comparatively know what is meant by the accumulated result of the work of half an hour, or of the quiet meditation on three or four verses, every day throughout the year.—Bishop Westcott.

LETTER

Halifax, N. S.

Dear Young People:

God can and will work miracles in this day and age if we ask with faith, believing we will receive the answer. We have only been organized five weeks, but can report great progress spiritually. Our numbers haven't increased much, but God is able. Our average attendance has been 12. Once we had 17; average collection $3.50; also have had a sacrifice box and took $12.00 from that to purchase 24 small Bibles. Took $15.00 from our collections and presented it to the Mission towards general expenses. We have seen one member sanctified and another brought back to the Lord. We are praying for three more to be sanctified now and we have several answers to earnest prayer. We are starting a Missionary Society now and hope to see results from this also. Come in and see us when next in Halifax, and may God bless the Y. P.'s efforts over this and other districts.

God bless you one and all.
