A LETTER FROM THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF OUR GENERAL MISSIONARY SOCIETY

To the Editor of The Highway and all who read this precious paper, I send greetings at this time when my one hundredth birthday is being celebrated.

When we organized the Missionary Society of the Reformed Baptist Church it surely was a new venture of faith. Now we can say, "What hath God wrought!"

My testimony now is: "The blood cleanseth and the Spirit abides."

HOME MISSION FUND

Mrs. Bessie M. Blaney.....	$10.00
G. R. SYMONDS, Treas.

The Christian that does not believe in foreign missions does not believe in the Lord's Prayer. Repeat it and see.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

From March 19th-26th a week of special services will be held at our Halifax Mission. D. V., on Wednesday, March 22nd, a Halifax Reformed Baptist Church will be organized. At that organization service a special offering will be taken toward the establishment of a Building Fund, which will be used for the purchase or erection of a church home for our people in this coastal city.

We have an aggressive, Spirit-filled group of people there, who are deserving of all the encouragement and co-operation we can give them. Will all churches and individuals interested in the Lord's having a strong holiness work in Halifax take immediate action and send a generous contribution to the new Building Fund. If we act at once the offerings sent will reach Halifax in time for that organization service. Send all contributions direct to Miss Miriam Sanders, 117 Agricola St., Halifax, N. S.

CONGRATULATIONS!

To Mrs. Diadama McLeod, of Long Beach, California, who celebrates her one-hundredth birthday, March 16th. The Highway and its great family send birthday greetings. Sister McLeod was the first president of our General Missionary Society and is still keenly interested in the work. May the Lord, who hath given long life, be the unfailing Companion of this aged saint and grant her at last an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ!

DeMerchant-Bradley

On February 26th, Miss Rena Bradley and Philip DeMerchant were united in marriage. The ceremony took place at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Hartland, N. B., and was performed by Rev. A. D. Cann.

THE CHURCH MUST BE HOT

No church society can prosper as it should unless it is in a state of revival all the time. The revival spirit is the normal condition of the real church of Christ. Where there is a revival spirit, a passion for winning souls, manifested in services, sinners are sure to get under such deep conviction that they will yield to God and get saved. This part of church work is not generally sensed. It means more to worship the Lord than to praise Him and go through weekly forms and ceremonies. The more the blessing of the Lord comes on souls, the greater will be their interest in the lost. And to be content with two or three weeks of special evangelical effort in the winter and make no earnest appeal to sinners the rest of the year is not according to divine plan.

Brother preacher, keep a revival spirit, and aim directly to get believers sanctified and sinners converted. Your labors will not be in vain in the Lord.—Sel.—Free Methodist.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Jannie I. Seavey

The community of Beals, Me., was saddened by the death of one of its most respected citizens on Wednesday, February 2nd, when Mrs. Jannie I. Seavey passed away after only a few hours illness. Mrs. Seavey had been in poor health for several years but was able to get around and do her work. She was a good wife and mother, and her main interest was her home, family and church. She was a devoted member of the Advent Christian Church of Beals. She would have celebrated her 50th birthday on May 24th. Mrs. Seavey was born at Beals, a daughter of Edward R. Merchant.

She is survived by her husband, Isaac C. Seavey; a foster daughter, Genevieve Norton; three sisters, Mrs. Edwin Alley, Mrs. Jason Alley, Mrs. Howard Kelly, of Jonesport; a step-mother, Mrs. Mary Merchant, of West Jonesport; two step-sisters, Mrs. James Beal and Mrs. Lessie Woodward, of West Jonesport; one step-brother, Simeon Alley, of Jonesport; several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Melvin T. Sweet in the Advent Christian Church and was in charge of A. A. Blackwood. Interment was made at Sewell Field Cemetery.

CHRIST AS A MISSIONARY

Christ was a home missionary in the house of Lazarus.

He was a foreign missionary when the Greeks came to Him.

A city missionary when he taught in Samaria.

A Sunday school missionary when He opened up the Scriptures and set men to studying the Word of God.

A children's missionary when He took them in His arms and blessed them.

A missionary to the poor when He opened the eyes of the blind beggar.

A missionary to the rich when He opened the spiritual eyes of Zaccheus.

Even on the cross Christ was a missionary to the robber, and His last command was the missionary commission.—Amos R. Wells.—Selected.

THE MISSIONARIES REQUEST

Will you pray for us? Alone we stand
To stem the awful tide of sin and shame.
To cast out demons in the mighty Name,
Which is alone the hope of every land.

Not yet the crowning! Fields must first be won

Lives freely yielded, martyr blood be spilt,
Love cast out fear, redemption blot out guilt,

Ere we behold the Kingdom of God's Son.

Pray, pray for us! We are but vessels frail;
The world's appalling need would crush us down,

Save that in vision we behold the crown
Upon His brow who shall at length prevail.

We shall behold it! Lo, His Word stands sure,

Our King shall triumph in a world set free.
With joy His chosen ones His reign shall see.

Pray for us, brother, that we may endure.
