PERSONALS

Lic. Mered Grant has returned home from overseas and will be stationed at an Air Force centre in N. B.

We are very sorry to hear that Rev. H. C. Mullen's mother recently sustained a painful injury. Sister Mullen had been visiting with her son at Meductic and had been home only one day when she had a fall and gashed her head quite badly. Brother Handley was called to Nova Scotia following the accident and writes that he found his mother resting comfortably. We pray that the Lord may give grace and healing to this aged sister.

Rev. Norman Trafton is spending his vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Trafton, at Fredericton.

We are sorry to hear that some of our good Grand Manan people are in ill health. Mrs. Henry Benson and Mrs. Emery Forsythe, of Seal Cove, have been seriously ill during recent weeks, and Brother Eugene Wilcox, of Wood Island, has suffered an attack of blood poisoning which necessitated a finger amputation. May the Lord bless those who are under affliction. Let us pray for them.

Rev. H. S. Dow, of Fort Fairfield, Me., attended the wedding of Clarence Dow and Miss Emma Trafton at Fredericton on Monday, June 5th.

NOTICE

Report blanks for Missionary Societies will reach pastors soon. They are requested to urge upon their officers to have them filled in and sent to the secretary on or before June 20th.

OBITUARY

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."—Revelation 14-13.

Mrs. Wendell Phillips

The death of Mrs. Lucy M., beloved wife of Wendell Phillips, of Greenbush, N. B., occurred on Friday night, May 19th, at the age of 69, after an illness of only a few minutes. She leaves to mourn, besides her husband, three daughters: Mrs. (Rev.) S. A. Mullen, of Ludlow, Maine; Mrs. J. Stairs, of Lower Southampton, and Mrs. (Dr.) Brownrigg, of St. Stephen.

Our sister was a woman of solid Christian character and devoted to the work of the church. She was always present, and ready to assist in any way, and will be greatly missed from the church and community.

The funeral took place at the residence on Monday, May 22nd, and was largely attended. The service was conducted by her pastor,

REFORMED BAPTIST CHURCH

Havelock, N. S.

The Reformed Baptist Church of Havelock, Nova Scotia, was erected during the year 1906, while Rev. E. W. Lester was pastor there. In 1919 the parsonage was built and the buildings connected with it. Rev. P. W. Briggs was pastor at that time, and it was largely through his efforts that this work was done. During last year under the leadership of Brother Briggs, who is serving his second pastoral term with this church, repairs were made on the buildings; a steeple was built on the church, asphalt roofing was put on the church, and all the buildings belonging to the property were painted.

The Havelock Church is proud of the workers that have gone from her ranks to preach the Gospel elsewhere. Among these are Rev. H. S. Mullen, Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Mullen, Rev. L. T. Sabine, Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Mullen, Lics. Wilbur Mullen, and Kenneth Sullivan, Mrs. (Rev.) J. A. Owens, and Mrs. (Rev.) H. M. Kimball. Many of the members of this church have moved to the U. S. A. and are labouring faithfully for the Lord in other churches there.

There is still a working nucleus standing by and endeavouring to keep the home fires burning and spread the Gospel in this part of God's vineyard.

Rev. H. C. Mullen. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. L. Gordon. Rev. E. R. Watson and wife sang three appropriate selections. Interment was made in the cemetery at Lower Southampton.

John A. Young

John A. Young passed away from this life, at his home in Ripples, Sunb. Co., N. B., Monday, June 5th, at the age of sixty-five years. He was an adherent of the holiness faith, having attended P. C. I. of Rhode Island, when a young man, for several years. He leaves to mourn, besides his wife, five sons, George, Allan, Lawson, Marvin and Harry; three daughters: Grace, Beatrice and Mrs. Charles McCall; three brothers and two sisters. The funeral was held from the home Wednesday at 3 p. m., June 7th. Rev. P. J. Trafton officiating assisted by Rev. Mr. Chandler (U. B.) and Rev. N. E. Trafton. Burial took place in the C. of E. cemetery at Ripples. Our sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones.

A man should so establish himself in God that he would not need much human consolation.—Thomas a Kempis.
