

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

We rejoice to hear of revival fires being kindled in many of our churches. May the Lord favour us with a general quickening and time of salvation!

Rev. G. A. DeLong and our church at Saint John are engaged in a revival campaign, with Rev. H. R. Whiting, of Meaford, Ontario, as evangelist. The campaign began Tuesday, Nov. 21st, and is scheduled to continue over Sunday, Dec. 3rd.

Lic. Joseph Moses has been called to pastor our church at Head of Millstream, and has taken up the work there.

Rev. H. C. Mullen assisted Rev. L. T. Sabine in special services Nov. 7th-19th.

Sunday, Dec. 10th, is "Universal Bible Sunday." We therefore respectfully dedicate this issue of The Highway to this greatest of books, the Word of God.

A SUGGESTION

With the prospect of a new dormitory being built at Beulah in the near future, the need of pillows, quilts, sheets, etc., before another Camp is quite obvious.

The thoughtful wife of one of our ministers suggests that those who are killing fowl, keep the feathers for pillow down.

Sunday school classes, ladies' groups, Missionary societies, etc., are requested to co-operate in supplying bedding for Beulah.

We pass the good suggestions on to our readers.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A service was held on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 1st, in the Reformed Baptist Church at Wood's Harbor, N. S., in memory of Stanley, fourth son of Rev. and Mrs. B. D. Price, who was killed while serving in the 5th Battalion Central Mediterranean Forces in Italy. Appropriate hymns were sung. A goodly number of people gathered to pay a tribute of respect to one whose life had been taken so suddenly, and expressed sympathy and sorrow for the bereaved family. The sermon was preached by the Rev. P. W. Briggs. May the Lord bless these sorrowing hearts.

I understand that plans are under way for the building of this dormitory next spring. This will mean that several more pledges will need to be paid before that time. I have approximately twenty-seven hundred dollars promised in pledges, but to date I have received considerably less than one thousand. I only mention this to let you know that plans are going ahead for building and the drain on the treasury will be heavy when material is being purchased. Hence, we will need much more than we have received before we can even begin to build.

Thanks for all you have done, and will do.

HOW THE BOOK MOULDED A MERCHANT

When he was a boy of 11, working in his father's brickyard, John Wanamaker invested in a Bible. It was a small, red Bible costing $2.75, and he paid for it in installments.

He read this Bible all his life, and applied it literally to his own problems.

He accepted without question its claim that faith could move mountains. When, at 22, he started his first store with his savings of $1900, everyone said he would fail. But he had faith, and succeeded.

Three times, through three successive panics, his business almost went on the rocks. But he found that the miracle of faith always pulled him through.

The Bible not only shaped his character. He got all his most important business ideas from it. Through these ideas—which revolutionized the whole theory of retail buying and selling, and created our modern principle of "Service"—John Wanamaker became, as President Taft once said, "the greatest merchant in America."

"That little red Bible," Wanamaker wrote, "was the greatest and most important and far-reaching purchase I ever made; and every other investment in my life seems to me only secondary."

Today the Bible occupies a new place in the consciousness of the American people.

Wherever we read, in the annals of our armed forces, of men in deadly peril by land or sea, we also read of their having recourse to the Bible. Men drifting in life rafts on great wastes of waters recall forgotten fragments and repeat them to their shipmates. Men in fox-holes, in stress and suffering of every kind, are upheld by what they remember from the Bible.

To these, and to millions of Americans today, the Bible is a living force as it was in John Wanamaker's life and time.—Dr. Sam Swain.
