HALIFAX ORGANIZATION SERVICE

On Wednesday evening, March 22nd, the Reformed Baptist Church of Halifax was organized by Revs. G. A. Rogers and B. C. Cochrane, assisted by Lic. Wilbur Mullen.

The acting pastor of our Mission, Lic. Miriam Sanders, conducted the devotional exercises of the service. Then Rev. G. A. Rogers presented the Bible as the only rule of faith and practice for the church (a beautiful pulpit Bible had previously been given to the Mission by Mr. and Mrs. George Bradshaw of Halifax). Lic. Wilbur Mullen read the Scripture, and the Covenant was read by Rev. B. C. Cochrane. The prayer of Consecration was offered by Rev. G. A. Rogers, after which the right hand of fellowship was extended to the candidates. The message was given by Rev. B. C. Cochrane, who spoke from I. Cor. 12:27.

The attendance at the service was good, and the presence of the Lord most gracious. It was truly a great meeting! The special seal of God seemed to be stamped on the organization of this new church and we pray and believe for its success in witnessing for Holiness in the City of Halifax.

I am in the best of service for the best of Masters and upon the best terms.—John Williams.

RESURRECTION CONVERSE

It happened on a solemn eventide,
Soon after He that was our Surety died,
Two bosom friends, each pensively inclin'd,
The scene of all those sorrows left behind,
Sought their own village, busy as they went
In musings worthy of the great event:
They spake of Him they lov'd, of Him
whose life,

Though blameless, had incurr'd perpetual strife,

Whose deeds had left, in spite of hostile arts,
A deep memorial graven on their hearts.

The recollection, like a vein of ore
The farther trac'd, enrich'd them still the more;

They thought Him, and they justly thought
Him, one

Sent to do more than He appear'd to have done;

To exalt a people, and to place them high Above all else, and wonder'd He should die.

Ere yet they brought their journey to an end,
A stranger join'd them, courteous as a friend,

And ask'd them with a kind engaging air
What their affliction was, and begg'd a share.

Inform'd, He gathered up the broken thread,
And, truth and wisdom gracing all He said,

Explain'd, illustrated, and search'd so well,
The tender theme on which they chose to dwell,

That, reaching home, "The night," they said,
"is near;

We must not now be parted, sojourn here."
The new acquaintance soon became a guest,

And, made so welcome at their simple feast,
He bless'd the bread, but vanish'd at the word,

And left them both explaining, "Twas the Lord!

Did not our hearts feel all He deign'd to say?
Did they not burn within us by the way?"

—Cowper

God never makes us sensible of our weakness except to give us of His strength.
Fenelon.

It is well that we have more books and more sermons on prayer. But the outstanding need is not more about prayer, but more prayer itself. Not all can be preachers or singers or teachers, but all may be prayers. Lord, teach us to pray.—C. Witness.
