ANOTHER RALLY, A GOOD SIGN

It is encouraging to hear plans for another Y. P. Rally, this time on District No. 3. We hope that before Beulah all the districts will have had rallies. These Y. P. gatherings should constitute good preparation for our services and convention at Beulah, where we hope to have the greatest year of our existence as an Association.

Without doubt this is the young people's "day." We hear much talk about the Canadian Youth Commission, Empire Youth Movement, and other groups which seek to foster good ideals in the youth of our land. These movements are to be commended for their efforts, but they are weak in that their aims and ideals have only a human challenge, and depend upon human ability for their attainment.

On the other hand, Christian young people not only have the noble ideals of One who left "us an example that we should follow his steps," but we have the actual presence of our Great Example with us to help us achieve our ends. This reassuring fact is the one great distinction between mere human idealism and vital Christianity.

The young people of our denomination have a great heritage—but we can't live on the past. We must go ahead or die. Too long we have been dormant and quite content to recite the victories of another generation. We must have victories of our own! The recent Moncton Rally and the one planned for Seal Cove are good signs of an awakening, but we must not stop there. Let us stir our sleeping societies, let us have more rallies, let us go FORWARD under the leadership of Jesus Christ and to the battle cry of "Holiness unto the Lord."

ANSWER THIS QUESTION

A Welsh minister, beginning his sermon, leaned over the pulpit and said with a solemn air: "Friends, I have a question to ask. I cannot answer it. You cannot answer it. If an angel from heaven were here, he could not answer it. If a devil from hell were here, he could not answer it." Every eye was fixed on the speaker who proceeded:

"The question is this, 'How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation?'"—Sunday School Times.

THREE VIEWS OF LIFE

In the parable of the Good Samaritan we find expressed three different views of material possessions, their acquisition and use.

The thief's philosophy, "What is yours is mine, I will take it."

The philosophy of the priest and Levite: "What is mine is mine; I will keep it."

The philosophy of the Good Samaritan: "What is mine is yours; I will share it."—Charles R. Brown.

Self-distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength, and they are the weakest, however strong, who have no faith in themselves or

YOUNG PEOPLE'S RALLY

Where? Seal Cove, N. B.

When? June 8-11.

Special speaker: Lic. W. H. Mullen.

After one delay, the date is now set for a rally at Seal Cove. Your Assoc. Pres., as well as the entertaining church hope for a good representation from the other societies on the district. Surely no better use could be made of society funds than to send an official delegate, who will repay you by returning with his soul blessed and a good report.

By the time this is in print the date will be only about one week away, so act at once!

On to the rally!

NEW SOCIETY ORGANIZED

Meductic, N. B.

Dear Young People:

Since we have organized a Young People's Society here at Meductic, we feel that it would be in order to give you a report of our work.

In March, during our special meetings with Brother H. S. Wilson, several new young people found the saving power of the Lord and some sought sanctification. We wish to thank the Lord for these new young people. Most of the seekers being boys, we decided to have a boys' prayer service every week. When we boys got together singing and praising the Lord, we really were blessed and uplifted in the Lord.

After a few services we decided that it would be better to organize a society, as we thought other young people would attend a regular Y. P. service who might not come to the boys' meetings. We asked the older members of the church to be present at our organization, and we thank them for their help.

Our election of officers was as follows: President, Conrad Stairs; Vice-Pres., Vallis Warden; Secretary-Treas., Laurence Mullen. A fine idea was suggested by one of the members that we have a lending library of religious books, with Arnold Stairs as librarian. At present we are raising funds for this purpose, and we feel that the reading of these books will be very helpful.

The number of our young people is small as compared with the number that we could have; but we feel like going forward with the Lord's help and winning others for Christ. In these terrible days of sin and strife, how thankful we ought to be that we belong to the Lord and that He is watching over us. It gives us a greater desire to go forward in God's work after seeing these young people find salvation, and we ask an interest in your prayers that these reborn young people may keep true to the Lord.

For all His blessings we say, "Praise the Lord!"

May the Lord be with all our young people and their societies.

LAURENCE MULLEN,
Sec'y-Treas.

LETTER FROM THE WEST

Box 397 Red Deer, Alberta

Dead Highway Members:

Greetings in the precious name of Jesus! Once again I take pen in hand and thus communicate with all the dear Christian friends in the East. Although I love the West and enjoy much Christian fellowship here, I do get so lonesome for the dear ones who helped lead me to the Lord, and others who were of so much help to me in this Christian journey. Then, too, the good times we used to have at the Quarterly Meetings will always be fresh in my memory. As I think of the meeting to be held at Westchester, my spiritual home—well, I don't dare think about it too much, else I would get too lonesome altogether.

A week ago ended some of the very best meetings we have ever been privileged to enjoy. Mrs. Manning, the evangelist, needs no introduction to you people back there. She is indeed a woman of God and the Lord used her here in Red Deer for the salvation of many precious souls. It was a wonderful revival. Many bowed at the altar of prayer for the first time and were wonderfully saved; others were reclaimed and still others were sanctified. God bless Sister Manning! Now she is in Edmonton and covets an interest in all your prayers.

With interest I follow the progress of the work in the different places back there and am praying especially for some that I am intimately acquainted with. May the Lord continue to bless the holiness work in the Maritimes, and to increase the men of God with a burden for souls and ever give them a greater vision of the need.

I had planned to go home this summer, but I finally settled it that if the Lord wanted me to stay here for the summer I would stay. Next, the Lord called me into the Home Mission work here in Alberta. Please pray for me because the work is not going to be easy. However, I consecrated my all to the Lord and told Him He could have all there was of me. If there is anything in me that He can use to win souls, I want to be used of Him. All this hasn't been easy, as I've had to fight that "I can't do anything" battle over again, but now my trust is indeed in the Lord.

We Maritimers enjoy each other's fellowship very much: Bert Hicks, Harold MacMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sullivan. We all have mutual friends and interests back in those provinces by the sea.

Recently, the College has started to sponsor the Saturday Night Street Meetings, and we've been having wonderful times praising the Lord in testimony and in song. Pray that we might in this way win many souls to Christ, because Red Deer, since the soldiers' camp has been built here, has become a very wicked city.

Please write, friends, and especially, please pray for our unsaved students and for the work at large.

God bless you, one and all! I am so glad I am in this holiness crowd, because there is no better group of people anywhere. Praise the Lord for full salvation!

Ever your sister in Christ,

MARY CAMPBELL
