PASTORS, REMEMBER!

The Church blanks have been mailed to all our pastors. I wish to remind you that our Church year closes on June 15th, and that reports are to be made out and mailed to me at Amherst, N. S., not later than June 18th or 20th. Let us all co-operate, so I can have a complete report, and have it ready to give when our business meeting opens at Beulah.

Remember the Golden Rule. Thank you!

G. A. ROGERS, Corr. Secy.

NOTICE

At the Toronto Convention last November, "The Canadian Holiness Federation" was formed to promote the cause of holiness in a more effective way over our vast Dominion. The historical number was printed in a neat four page paper. I have mailed our allotment to our pastors for distribution. I would urge our people to become members of this Holiness Federation. The payment of one dollar makes you a member. Each church could get together and send their money and thus save cost in sending orders. Send your money to the Treasurer, Rev. L. R. Mack, 245 Perth St., Brockville, Ont.

Kenneth Moore

On May 8th, tragedy struck suddenly in the little community of Collingwood, N. S., when Kenneth Moore, 6 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, was killed instantly on being thrown from a farm wagon when the team of horses took fright.

After a short service in the home, May 11th, conducted by Rev. L. Watts, of the United Church, Collingwood, a funeral service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Westchester. Rev. L. Watts gave a short message, with Lic. W. H. Mullen conducting the remainder of the service.

Besides the sorrowing parents of this departed loved one, are two young brothers, Keith and Ivan, and a large group of relatives and friends.

To all the bereaved ones we extend our sincere sympathy.

William Peters Smith

On April 9th, 1944, William Peters Smith passed away at his home in Alliance, Alberta. He was 79 years of age. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, Lizzie Johnston Smith; four children, Walter, Charlie, Clara and Teenia, all of Alberta; one brother, Alfred L. Smith, also of Alberta; and three sisters, Mrs. Phebe Grant, Houlton, Me.; Mrs. Nettie B. Jewell, Caribou, Me.; and Lillie Liston, Millville, N. B. He was the son of the late Timothy Smith, of Maplewood, York Co., N. B.

Samuel Harvey

This community was shocked to learn, early Sunday morning, April 30th, of the sudden passing of Samuel Harvey, keeper of Southern Head Light, Grand Manan Island. Mr. Harvey seemed to be feeling quite well and had been doing his work of late, although he was very sick last winter.

The funeral service was conducted from the home and was in charge of Rev. Mr. Hainey assisted by Rev. G. R. Symonds.

The deceased was 47 years of age and is survived by his wife and three children: Ruth, of Toronto Lincoln of the R. C. N., and Marion at home. All were able to be home for the funeral.

To the sorrowing we extend our deepest sympathy.

The funeral service of Miss Amy Price, of Woodstock, was held April 2nd, at the home of her brother, Mr. Jesse Price, at Grafton. Interment was made in the Southampton cemetery.
